WELCOME

to the Thesis and Dissertation Formatting Tutorial
This tutorial is also available on the Graduate School’s website at: http://grad.msu.edu/etd/ along with the formatting guide, sample pages, and instructions on how to submit your thesis or dissertation through the ProQuest website.
What will this formatting workshop teach you?

1. How to FORMAT your thesis or dissertation

2. How to successfully SUBMIT your electronic thesis or dissertation via ProQuest

3. How to successfully COMPLETE your degree and receive your diploma
But before any of that....

• These requirements apply to all dissertations and all “Plan A” Master’s theses.

• “Plan B” Master’s students should contact their department regarding submission of their papers. “Plan B” theses DO NOT get submitted through ProQuest.
ELECTRONIC THESIS AND DISSERTATION DEADLINE DATES

Please see the Graduate School’s website http://grad.msu.edu/etd/dates.aspx for information on specific deadline dates in each semester.

The deadline means: Your document has been reviewed by a Graduate School ETD administrator, it has been considered to be formatted correctly AND all necessary paperwork has been turned in PRIOR to the deadline date/time.
NOTE REGARDING DEADLINES:

It is advised that you submit your document via ProQuest AT LEAST two weeks prior to the deadline date. The deadline is not the date that your document is just to be submitted for the first time.
Formatting Templates
The Graduate School DOES NOT support or endorse any type of template for thesis or dissertation writing. Regardless of the method or template used, the document must meet the Graduate School formatting requirements.

We are looking at your final product, not how you produced your document.
PLEASE NOTE
The formatting requirements set by the Graduate School are NOT comparable to the formatting requirements set by any journals you may have published in or may publish in.
PLEASE USE THIS WEBSITE

http://grad.msu.edu/etd/

This is where you will find the link for the current Formatting Guide for Electronic Submission of Master’s Theses and Doctoral Dissertations.

Make sure you read and follow the formatting guide BEFORE you submit your document to ProQuest via the Graduate School website. The Graduate School’s task is to review your formatting, not to format the document for you.
Consistency is the key...

• Whatever formatting method you choose to use in your document must be employed throughout the ENTIRE DOCUMENT. The method you choose must follow the Graduate School’s formatting requirements.

• Examples: If you number your headings and sub-headings in one chapter, they should be numbered in all chapters. If you put your headings in bold type in one chapter, then they need to be in bold type in all chapters. If you have all of your figures and tables in appendices in one chapter, then you should have them in appendices in all chapters.
Every thesis or dissertation is composed of three parts:

1. Preliminary pages

2. Text (Body of the Document)

3. Reference Materials (Appendix/Bibliography)
MARGINS

All margins must be at least 1 inch all the way around for the ENTIRE document.

Top
Bottom
Left
Right

NOTE: ProQuest does not require a left margin larger than 1 inch for bound copies.

A NOTE ABOUT YOUR NAME

• Your name must match in ALL aspects of your submission. It must match in the following areas:
  – On your approval form
  – In your ETD (electronic thesis and dissertation) contact information in your ProQuest account
  – On the title page of your document
  – On the abstract page of your document
  – On the copyright page of your document (if applicable)

Graduate Degree Granting Units and Programs

• A complete list of Graduate Degree Granting Units and Programs is available on the Graduate School website at:

http://grad.msu.edu/etd/docs/DegreeGrantingUnits.pdf

• Only the units/programs listed here are approved by Michigan State University.
Sample Abstract page

- Master’s thesis abstract may not exceed 1 page
- Doctoral dissertation abstract may not exceed 2 pages

The Michigan State University policy on Integrity of Scholarship is set forth in General Student regulation 1.00, cited in the University catalog: “The principles of truth and honesty are recognized as fundamental to a community of teachers and scholars. No student shall claim or submit the work of another as one's own.” These principles apply to the preparation of master's theses and doctoral dissertations as well as to all other academic work. In submitting a thesis/dissertation in partial fulfillment of the requirements for a master's or doctoral degree, a student takes responsibility for the integrity of that work.

Note about “Public Abstracts”: If your department has approved the use of a public abstract and you include it in your document, it is to be set up the same as the conventional abstract. The public abstract page is not to be counted or numbered and it would precede the conventional abstract.
Copyright...Yes or No?

• Your rights as an author are automatically protected, even without copyright registration.
• BUT, copyright registration establishes a public record that often helps in legal disputes about intellectual ownership.
• Also, copyright registration can be recorded with the U.S. Customs Service for international protection of your intellectual property.
• DECIDE IF YOU WANT PROQUEST TO FILE A COPYRIGHT ON YOUR BEHALF BEFORE YOU COMPLETE YOUR INITIAL SUBMISSION VIA PROQUEST. YOU CANNOT ADD IT AFTER THE FACT BECAUSE YOU NEED TO PAY FOR IT UP FRONT.
Sample Copyright Page

Your copyright page should look similar to this page. “Copyright by” is to be on the first line, your name (in all capital letters) is on the second line and the year is on the third line.

You may place the information anywhere on the page as long as you meet the 1 inch margin requirement.

You are to count, but not number, this page.

Note: Your name listed on this page must match the rest of your submission.

If you wish for ProQuest to file a copyright on your behalf, the option must be chosen when you create your account in ProQuest. YOU CANNOT ADD IT AFTER THE FACT.

Note: If you have a large table or long caption, the table name and caption are to appear on the first page that the table appears on WITH the table. Subsequent pages would have Table x (cont’d) at the top of the page. Then, continue with the table or the caption. See the example to the right.
A FEW NOTES REGARDING TABLES AND FIGURES

• Table and Figure names and captions must match EXACTLY in the document and in the List of Tables and List of Figures with regards to wording, capitalization and punctuation.

• For example: This means if you have a colon after the table numbers in the List of Tables, then you must have a colon after the table numbers in the document.

• For example: If you capitalize words in a figure caption in the document, then the words must be capitalized the same in the List of Figures.

Portrait Oriented Page

The page number on a portrait oriented page is to appear centered, 0.5 inch from the bottom of the page on the 8.5 inch side of the page.

Landscape Oriented Page

The page number on a landscape oriented page is to appear centered, 0.5 inch from the bottom of the page on the 11 inch side of the page.
REFERENCES PAGES

• We will now cover the REFERENCE pages

• Components of the REFERENCE pages are.....
Components of the Reference Pages

• Cover sheet for Appendices
• Appendices
• Cover sheet for Bibliography
• Bibliography

Use of a cover sheet for the appendices and bibliography is REQUIRED.

Reference Pages may be placed at the end of each chapter or at the end of the document, but you must follow the same formatting for all chapters.

NOTE: The BIBLIOGRAPHY pages are always last, regardless of being placed at the end of the chapter or at the end of the document.
Sample Cover Sheet for Appendices

If you have multiple appendices in a chapter or at the end of the document, the cover sheet is to say APPENDICES on it.

If you have a single appendix, the cover sheet is to say APPENDIX on it.

The word “APPENDIX” or “APPENDICES” is to be in all capital letters and is to be centered on the page from top to bottom (and left to right).

Information regarding secondary appendix cover pages can be found in the formatting guide.
Sample Cover Sheet for Bibliography

The word “BIBLIOGRAPHY” (or equivalent) is to be in all capital letters and is to be centered on the page from top to bottom (and left to right).

(Other terms that could be used are: REFERENCES, LITERATURE CITED, WORKS CITED)
THE MOST COMMON FORMATTING ERRORS

• Incorrect page numbering of the preliminary pages
• Incorrect margins
• Title page formatted incorrectly
• Table of Contents, List of Tables and List of Figures formatted incorrectly
• Table and figure captions not matching List of Tables and List of Figures

• THIS SERVES AS A REMINDER TO READ AND FOLLOW THE FORMATTING GUIDE BEFORE SUBMITTING YOUR DOCUMENT VIA PROQUEST.

• Do not use a bound copy of a document in your department or in the library as an example.
Electronic Submission of your document via ProQuest

• By following the step by step instructions on the Graduate School and ProQuest websites, you will be able to successfully submit your thesis/dissertation electronically.

• At the ProQuest site you will be given the option to register for a copyright as part of your electronic submission. Note: Registering for a copyright must be done at the onset when you are creating your submission. YOU MAY NOT ADD IT AFTER THE FACT.
• PLEASE DO NOT SUBMIT YOUR DOCUMENT VIA PROQUEST BEFORE YOUR DEFENSE OR BEFORE YOU HAVE MADE THE CORRECTIONS THAT YOUR COMMITTEE REQUIRES.

• DO NOTE: if you submit your document and it is considered to be formatted correctly AND all necessary paperwork has been turned in—your document will be accepted and delivered for publishing even if you were NOT READY to have it delivered. THIS HAS HAPPENED BEFORE AND IT IS A TIME CONSUMING FIX FOR ALL PARTIES INVOLVED.

• The document that you are to submit via ProQuest is one that is ready to go to publishing once it is formatted correctly. This means that no other corrections need to be made to the content of the document AND you have successfully defended and made the corrections that your committee requires.

Submission Review

• Once you submit your document to ProQuest, your submission will be reviewed by a MSU Graduate School ETD Administrator for possible formatting revisions.

• You will be contacted via email with required revisions or with a request for missing paperwork, BEFORE your document is officially accepted and delivered to ProQuest for publishing.

• You will receive a response with the necessary revisions from the Graduate School within two business days from the time we receive your electronic submission.

• The email will be sent to the email address you provided in your newly created ProQuest account.
Email address used in ProQuest account

- Please remember the email address you are going to use when setting up your account in the ProQuest system.
- This is the email address that all correspondence from the Graduate School regarding needed formatting corrections will go to.
- NOTE: Sometimes the emails go into your Spam folder, so if it has been 2 business days and you have not heard from us, check your Spam folder because an email most likely went there instead of going into your inbox. You can also feel free to contact us. Don’t wait for weeks for a response because we usually respond the same day or the next day at the latest.
Sample Letter for REPRINTS

- Permission of a reprint is required by ProQuest, the company that publishes your thesis/dissertation, not by MSU.

Ph.D. students and Grad Plan/Grad Audit

- All Ph.D. students graduating in Spring 2017 or later MUST have a Grad Plan.
- Beginning in Spring 2017 Grad Plan will be the mechanism by which the Registrar’s Office knows to confer your degree.
- Before you submit your dissertation via ProQuest, your plan MUST be complete (only Graduate School and Graduate Secretary Sign-Off not completed). WORK WITH YOUR GRADUATE SECRETARY TO MAKE SURE YOUR PLAN IS COMPLETE.
- If the Graduate School can’t sign off because your plan is incomplete, your degree may not be conferred in the semester you would like it to be conferred.
- As you can see in the example to the right, this particular student does not have their Dissertation title requirement completed and they have not applied for graduation. If the document had been approved and delivered to ProQuest, we would not be able to sign off because of the items above the Graduate School sign-off are incomplete.

Every requirement above “Graduate School sign-off” MUST be completed before your dissertation is submitted to ProQuest.
