International Social Science Research Seminar

Guide to Fellowships and Grants for Graduate Student International Research beginning in 2015-16

Compiled by David Wiley, Kelly Birch, and Christine Root
Michigan State University

August 30, 2014

Not for dissemination beyond MSU students and faculty.

Contents:

I. General Guides to Funding Opportunities, Fellowships, and Scholarships

II. Michigan State University Funding Opportunities for MSU Graduate Students

III. Individual Grant Opportunities

IIIA. Individual Grant Opportunities funded by the U.S. Government Agencies

IIIB. Individual Funding Opportunities by Foundations, Non-governmental Organizations, and Professional Associations

IIIB. (1) Funding Opportunities for International Research

IIIB. (2) Funding Programs for Foreign Language Study for Field Research

IIIB. (3) Funding Opportunities in Many Disciplines - mostly outside the Humanities and Social Sciences - that may support International Research

IV. Postdoctoral Opportunities

I. General Guides to Funding Opportunities, Fellowships, and Scholarships

It is essential to check the status, purpose, eligibility requirements, deadlines, and all other details about grant programs directly from the administering units.

MSU Libraries’ Grants and Related Resources – Includes Funding for Graduate Students (at: http://staff.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/3gradinf.htm), international students (http://staff.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/3forstudent.htm), grant opportunities by discipline (http://staff.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/3subject.htm), proposal writing, and many other resources assembled by MSU Library’s Jon Harrison (harris23@mail.lib.msu.edu), 884-0855.
http://staff.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/index.htm

Graduate Student Opportunities for Dissertation, Research and Conference Funding related to the Environment – Many national and international funding sources, compiled and updated regularly by the MSU Environmental Science and Policy Program (ESPP). Some students have used a conference grant to help fund travel for dissertation or pre-dissertation research.
http://www.espp.msu.edu/education/student_funding.php

American Anthropological Association Fellowships & Support – Lists international and national funding opportunities of interest to anthropologists, many of which are relevant to other social scientists, as well. http://www.aaanet.org/profdev/fellowships/. A search for funding opportunities is available at: http://www.aaanet.org/customcf/coop/search/index.cfm American Political Science Association Grants, Fellowships, and other Funding Opportunities – Lists more than 100 grant and fellowships opportunities in the social sciences.
http://www.apsanet.org/content_3115.cfm

University of Chicago Division of the Humanities Graduate Student Grant/Fellowship Blog – Many fellowships listed, particularly postdoctoral grants. (Note that the “Categories” menu includes Dissertation Research and Dissertation Write-Up, as well as short- and long-term grants, Masters eligible grants, etc.) http://lucian.uchicago.edu/blogs/studentgrantsfellowships/

The University of Chicago lists grants available to international students by region, nationality, discipline, and education level. Some grants listed also are available to American students with international ancestry. Deadlines vary.
https://internationalaffairs.uchicago.edu/fundingoptions#International%20Resources

Columbia University Graduate School of Arts & Sciences – Fellowship Search for external fellowships – http://gsas.columbia.edu/external-fellowships

Association for Asian Studies (AAS): Asian Studies Grants and Fellowships – Listing of Grants, Prizes, and Fellowships by the AAS and others, organized by Asia General, China, Inner Asia, Korea, and Japan.
http://www.asian-studies.org/grants/main.htm

College Scholarships, Graduate Fellowships & Postdoctoral Awards for Minorities and Minorities, among others – Searchable by discipline.
http://www.fatomei.com

African Americans: College Scholarships, Grants and Graduate Fellowships – http://www.fatomei.com/scholarships-for-african-americans.html

SciVal Funding – Database of grant programs and awards made by them. Sign-in required with MSU ID for advanced search: http://www.funding.scival.com/home. More information:
https://vprgs.msu.edu/announcement/msu-access-funding-database

Resources for international students who wish to continue studying in the U.S. – Several websites list resources for international students looking for funding in the U.S. The Institute of International Education’s webpage “Funding for U.S. Study” allows students to search for scholarships and grants by state, region, sponsoring institution, and area study: http://www.fundingusstudy.org/. International Student also provides advice and information about funding international study:
http://www.internationalstudent.com/study_usa/financing/sources/. The International Education Financial Aid website (IEFA) provides an up-to-date, free, comprehensive and searchable list of scholarships available to international students from around the world: http://www.iefa.org/scholarships. EduPASS offers a list of databases dedicated to listing scholarships for international students in specific countries:
http://www.edupass.org/finaid/databases.phtml. Educators for Fair Consideration have compiled a 55-page booklet of information about scholarships and fellowships available for immigrant students who do not have U.S. citizenship or residency. The list is available for free at
II. Michigan State University Funding Opportunities for MSU Graduate Students

MSU Graduate School - Funding Opportunities for Graduate Students – Includes assistantships, fellowships, and travel grants, plus students can obtain emergency funding and funds to top-off their current fellowship with funds from the university. http://grad.msu.edu/funding/ and http://grad.msu.edu/fellowships/

- The MSU Council of Graduate Students (COGS) provides funding for conference travel, professional development, and leadership skill development. Conference Grants of up to $300 are available to graduate and professional students once during their MSU academic career. Deadline: August 29, 2014 (for conference dates August 27, 2014, through January 11, 2015).
- Professional Development Grants of up to $300 also are available to MSU graduate and professional students once in their MSU academic career. These grants should support students in attending events or engaging in activities that enhance their professional development. Last deadline: April 4, 2014 (for program dates of May 12 through August 26, 2014).
- COGS Disciplinary Leadership Awards provide graduate and professional students up to $3,800 in recognition of disciplinary leadership. Students must be nominated by faculty or others. Consideration is given to students who have clearly demonstrated leadership in their respective disciplines and/or professional societies. COGS prefers that the award is used to further the leadership skill development of the recipient. Last deadline: November 26, 2013. http://cogs.msu.edu/funding.html and http://grad.msu.edu/cogs/

MSU Dissertation Completion Fellowships – Contact the office of the college associate dean for research of your college to learn the college’s procedure for awarding these fellowships. Dissertation to be finished during the one-semester tenure of the fellowship; the intent of the fellowship is to free up the student’s time to devote his/herself to writing the dissertation, in preparation for the defense. 120 fellowships awarded annually. Award: $6,000. Deadlines: July 15, 2014 (Fall 2014), October 9, 2014 (Spring 2015), February 6, 2015 (Summer 2015). Some colleges’ application deadline may be earlier. http://grad.msu.edu/fellowships/dissertation.aspx

MSU College of Education has several funding opportunities available to doctoral students. The Summer Research Fellowship funds more than 25 doctoral students annually, providing $6,000 to support their research and scholarly development. The Summer Research Renewable Fellowship funds 10-12 doctoral students for two years, providing $6,000 per summer. Faculty mentors receive an honorarium. The Summer Research Development Fellowship provides 15 first-year doctoral students with $5,000 to develop or strengthen specific research skills and to acquire knowledge about specific methods not thoroughly developed in a regular course. The College’s Research Practicum/Research Development Fellowship provides financial support to advanced doctoral students who have projected or incurred expenses relevant to data collection for their research. Fellowship amounts range from $1,000-$4,000. Outreach and Engagement Fellowships and Travel Funding are also available. Deadlines: Doctoral students will be notified of the application process and deadlines in fall via the Ph.D. listserv. The Summer Research Development Fellowship application process begins in January. http://education.msu.edu/resources/financial/fellowships.asp and http://education.msu.edu/te/phd/Financial-Information/Fellowships-for-TE-PhD-Students.asp#outreach

MSU Graduate Student Research Enhancement – Funds available to support research activities including travel to participate in workshops, data collection, short courses, and extramural laboratory rotations. Awards are intended to match/supplement funds provided by advisors, units, and colleges and will range from $500-$1,000. Only one request per student/tenure in degree program will be considered. Deadline: Rolling, decision on support will be made within three weeks of receiving all the necessary materials. http://grad.msu.edu/fellowships/research.aspx

MSU Doctoral Study Abroad Fellowship – Fellowship consisting of a seminar series during spring semester; an in-country experience of at least two weeks over the summer with an experienced study abroad program leader serving as mentor; and a capstone project designed by the student to meet his or her specific learning needs. Students receive a $2,000 participation stipend and travel funds up to $4,000. Last deadline: October 28, 2013. http://studyabroad.isp.msu.edu/doctoral_fellowship/

MSU International Studies and Programs (ISP) International Scholarships and Awards – Offers funding opportunities to students who are engaged in international activities as well as international students at MSU. Contact ISP at (517) 355-2350 or infoNEW@isp.msu.edu. Scholarships and other funding for graduate students: http://isp.msu.edu/funding/grad_scholarships.htm

MSU National/International Fellowships & Scholarships (NIFS) Office – Describes several grants and fellowships for graduate study in the United Kingdom (Churchill, Gates Cambridge, Marshall, Mitchell, and Rhodes). Most grants aim to support college graduates who wish to begin their Master’s degree. https://nifs.msu.edu/awards

Nelson Mandela Museum/Michigan State University Museum Curatorial Fellowship Program – One curatorial fellowship to be completed during summer and fall semesters. Ten weeks of summer semester will be spent in South Africa (with at least eight weeks spent working full-time at the Mandela Museum in Mthatha) and the following fall semester will be spent working part time at the MSU Museum. Fellows receive $16,000. Up to an additional $500 is available to attend a cultural heritage conference in South Africa and up to an additional $1,000 to cover travel and conference registration costs to present results of fellowship experience or research. Curatorial fellows plan and complete projects in collaboration with and mentored by MSU faculty and professional museum staff at each institution. Last deadline: February 14, 2014. http://museum.msu.edu/index.php?q=node/907

Kellogg Biological Station (KBS) Long-Term Ecological Research (LTER) Graduate Fellowships –

1) LTER Capstone Graduate Fellowship: The fellowship is open to PhD students enrolled at MSU who are interested in extending their LTER-based research or in developing an aspect of their research to include LTER-related activities that would not otherwise be part of their dissertation work. Stipend of $30,000 plus tuition and fees. Additional funds (up to $5,000) will be available for travel or meeting expenses as warranted. 2) LTER Summer Research Fellowships: Two awards of $6,250 each with up to $500 for travel. Applicants must be MSU-based MSc or PhD students. 3) Small Grants: Students conducting graduate-level research are eligible to apply for up to $2,000 for research-related expenses (but not salary or stipends). Priority will be given to those projects most closely aligned with overall LTER goals. Deadlines: Rolling (Small grants). Call for proposals for Capstone and Summer Research Fellowships will be issued in Fall 2014. http://lter.kbs.msu.edu/get-involved/grants-and-fellowships

Annual Theodore Roosevelt Conservation and Environmental Leadership Fellowship – Annual award of approximately $2,500 to support graduate and professional students as they prepare for leadership roles in natural resource and conservation based organizations and agencies. Purpose of the fellowship is to enable individuals to participate in experiential leadership workshops and programs related to conservation of natural and environmental resources. Eligible students must be nominated by a MSU faculty member to be considered. Last deadline: February 15, 2014.
http://grad.msu.edu/fellowships/elf.aspx

Fulbright Programs – Note: Various Fulbright programs are described in individual awards section III.A (below). Applications must be made through MSU; contact Prof. Roger Bresnahan (bresnaha@msu.edu; 517-432-8244), International Center, Room 201A. http://isp.msu.edu/funding/fulbright.htm and http://us.fulbrightonline.org/home.html

Walker Hill International Scholarship – For predissertation visits to the site of the doctoral research in a country outside the U.S. (For international students, research in one’s own country does not qualify.) Award amount depends on income generated by the endowment, but should be at least $600. Financial need may be considered. Deadline: January 30, 2015. http://www.isp.msu.edu/funding/walker.htm

Whittier Endowed International Health Scholarship Fund – Awards of $500 for MSU graduate students (Masters or PhD Level), students in the MSU College of Osteopathic Medicine or Human Medicine, or an MSU professional student for international health research (graduate level) or international health clerkships (Approved IIH international electives (4-6 week duration) for fourth year medical students.). May not be used for research "in one's own country." Deadline: December 31, annually.
https://www.msu.edu/~iih/whittier.html

Gliozzo Scholarship Endowment in Global Health – Supports students who wish to study or conduct research in Africa, Latin America, Central America, or Asia. Donors particularly are concerned with health issues such as malnutrition, infection disease, malaria, HIV, poverty, and polluted water that are symptoms of larger social, political and environmental problems. Number of awards and dollar amount vary by year. Deadline: rolling. https://www.msu.edu/~iih/gliozzo.html

MSU Gender, Justice, and Environmental Change (GJEC) Fellowships – Four $10,000 fellowship opportunities for dissertation research and completion. Projects must address gender dimensions of environmental and/or agricultural change. Applicants must be Ph.D. students at MSU who are ABD. For the Dissertation Completion Fellowship, applicants must graduate by Spring 2016. Last deadline: April 15, 2014. http://gjec.msu.edu/fellowships.htm

MSU College of Education – Marianne Amarel Fellowship by Center for Scholarship of Teaching and Teacher Education – Doctoral student must be enrolled in any doctoral program in College of Education at MSU; renewable up to 3 years. Award: 50% research assistantship and $1,500 in travel and research expenses. Last call for proposals: March 2014. New announcement expected March 2015. http://education.msu.edu/resources/financial/fellowships/amarel.asp

More information: http://education.msu.edu/resources/financial/grad-scholarships.asp

Title VI Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowships (FLAS) – MSU: For studying a language and a foreign area or international development. Enrolled and new graduate students are eligible. Must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Awards pay for tuition and fees, $15,000 annual stipend, and $7,500 for summer language study. Three MSU centers offer them: African Studies Center, Asian Studies Center, Center for Advanced Study of International Development and Center for Gender in Global Context. See their websites for eligible languages, foreign areas, and deadlines, normally January - February. See http://africa.isp.msu.edu/flas/academic-year/, http://casid.isp.msu.edu/academic/fellowships.htm, and http://asia.isp.msu.edu/resources/flas.htm.
Tinker Field Research Grant Graduate fellowship for pre-dissertation research in Latin America – Up to $1,500 for MSU graduate U.S. and international students interested in Latin America and the Caribbean to carry out research in the field in order to acquire as profound and intimate a knowledge as possible of the language, culture and geography; to gather field data; to develop contacts with scholars and institutions in the field; to provide graduate students with experience in developing independent research projects and conducting hands-on field research in Latin America or the Caribbean; to make students’ proposals to external sources of funding for dissertation research more competitive. In no case are these grants to be a substitute for seeking dissertation funding from such external sources. Last deadline: March 31, 2014. http://latinamerica.isp.msu.edu/funding/tinker.htm

Julian Samora Research Institute (JSRI) Endowed Scholarship – $2,000 fellowship available to MSU undergraduate and graduate students engaged in scholarly activities focusing on Latinos/as in Midwestern communities. Last deadline: February 14, 2014. http://www.jsri.msu.edu/community/scholarships

Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies Scholarship – Scholarship to support international research or study in Latin America. Funds may be used to defray the costs of an MSU-sponsored study abroad program or research. Last deadline: March 31, 2014. http://latinamerica.isp.msu.edu/funding/grad.htm

MSU Sociology Graduate Students in International Development—Jay Artis Endowment Fund for Graduate Study in Sociology and John and Ruth Useem Endowment Award for graduate study in Sociology, including dissertation research abroad if they are of advanced candidacy (proposal approved), and planning research in the area of international development. Require 1) proposal and budget no longer than 5 pages for support of doctoral dissertation in the area of sociology of international development, 2) an endorsement letter from the student’s dissertation chairperson. Check deadline with and submit application in either hard copy or electronic form to Shannon Davis, Office Supervisor, or Roseann Bills, Graduate Secretary, Sociology, 316 Berkey Hall. Proposals are evaluated by the Department Chair, Associate Chair, and Graduate Program Director. Last deadline: May 23, 2014. http://sociology.msu.edu/graduate/awards

College of Social Science Research Scholars Fellowship Program – Up to three-year award for MSU students completing their first year of doctoral study. This award allows recipients to define and begin domestic or international research as a part of their doctoral study. Funds may be used for travel, research/statistics courses, and/or data collection. During year one, Fellows will be awarded $5,000 for use during the summer. Upon renewal, Fellows will be awarded $6,500 each summer during years two and three (contingent upon successful research progress). Last deadline: February 17, 2014. http://www.socialscience.msu.edu/

III. Individual Grant Opportunities

III. A. Individual Grant Opportunities funded by the U.S. Government Agencies

Fulbright U.S. Student Programs for Language and Cultural Study or Dissertation Research Abroad ("Fulbright IIE awards"), Teaching Assistant, Critical Language, Fulbright-Clinton (formerly Public Policy) and Others – For all Fulbright awards, current MSU students must submit applications through MSU. Contact MSU Fulbright Advisor Prof. Roger Bresnahan (bresnaha@msu.edu; 517.432.8244), Room
The various types of student Fulbright programs are described at: http://us.fulbrightonline.org/types-of-grants. Application procedures are described at: http://us.fulbrightonline.org/applicants with specific information relevant to applying for various programs at: http://us.fulbrightonline.org/application-components. The most common fellowship for graduate students to conduct dissertation research abroad is the “Academic” research/study grant. It offers 9-12 months of support to recent BS/BA graduates (graduating seniors) and doctoral students and young professionals for personal development and international experience to conduct study and/or research in one country. Awards provide round-trip transportation, language or orientation courses where appropriate, maintenance allowance, and supplemental health and accidental insurance. Applicants must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. See application information for Academic grants at: http://us.fulbrightonline.org/application-components/academic. The MSU deadline for 2014 is September 15 for the national deadline of October 14. Special grant opportunities in the fields of Business, Journalism, and Science and Public Health in specific countries are also described at http://U.S..fulbrightonline.org/types-of-grants. Fulbright grants available in particular countries can be accessed from: http://us.fulbrightonline.org/countries/regions

Other types of Fulbright grants include:

- English Teaching Assistantships (ETAs) – ETAs are placed in schools or universities outside of capital cities, assigned to improve their students' language abilities and knowledge of the U.S., are integrated into the host community to increase their language skills and knowledge of the host country. ETAs may pursue individual study/research plans in addition to ETA responsibilities. Applicants for English Teaching Assistantships can apply to only one country http://us.fulbrightonline.org/eta-program-charts and http://atwork.us.fulbrightonline.org/application-components/eta

- Fulbright-mtvU Awards – Four awards to conduct research on an aspect of international musical culture. Projects should focus on contemporary or popular music as a cultural force for expression. Preference will be given to recent graduates. In addition to the Fulbright application, an mtvU Documentation and Outreach Plan is required. (Two MSU PhD students in Education have won these awards for a study of hip-hop music and culture in Australia and music and culture in Dominican Republic.) http://us.fulbrightonline.org/fulbright-mtvu-awards and http://us.fulbrightonline.org/application-components/fulbright-mtvu. Last deadline: February 28, 2014.

- Critical Language Enhancement Award – Supplemental grants for Fulbright U.S. Student Program grantees to receive 3-6 months of intensive language study in addition to their research or study grants. Only select languages and host-countries are available for this opportunity. Eligible Languages: Arabic (all dialects), Bahasa Indonesia, Bangla/Bengali, Chinese (Mandarin only), Gujarati, Hindi, Marathi, Punjabi, Russian, and Urdu. Eligible Countries: China, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Jordan, Morocco, and Russia. http://us.fulbrightonline.org/critical-language-enhancement-awards
Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad (DDRA) Fellowship Program (U.S. Department of Education) – Fellowships of $15,000-$60,000 (averaging $35,000) for graduate students spending 6-12 months in full-time dissertation research abroad (excluding those with a focus on Western Europe) in modern foreign languages and area studies. Applications must be submitted through MSU. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States who are studying at higher education institutions in the U.S. Contact Prof. Roger Bresnahan (bresnaha@msu.edu; 517.432.8244), International Center, Room 201A. Check ISP website for MSU deadline for reviewing proposals. Funding for this program and the deadline have been uncertain in past three years. In past years, deadline has been as early as November. In past years, up to 150 awards have been given. In 2014, 86 fellowships will be awarded.

Last deadline for 2014 competition: June 24, 2014. (Announcements for new DDRA awards in 2015-2016 probably will not occur until spring 2015.)

J. William Fulbright - Hillary Rodham Clinton Fellowships – Fellows serve in professional placements as "special assistants" in foreign government ministries or institutions and to gain hands-on public sector experience in participating foreign countries while simultaneously carrying out an academic study/research project. For the 2015-2016 application cycle, fellowships will be available for the African Union, Haiti, Nepal, Bangladesh, Kazakhstan, Peru, Burma (Myanmar), Kosovo, Samoa, Cote d’Ivoire, Malawi, and Timor-Leste. Must be U.S. citizen; have Master’s Degree, JD, or be currently enrolled in a Ph.D. program in a public policy applicable field; have at least two years of full-time professional work experience in policy-related fields; and meet the host country language requirements. Deadlines: October 14, 2014. http://us.fulbrightonline.org/fulbright-clinton-fellowships

Fulbright – National Geographic Digital Storytelling Fellowship – Provides opportunities for U.S. citizens of all ages and backgrounds to participate in an academic year of overseas travel and digital storytelling in up to three countries on a globally significant theme. Fellows receive Fulbright benefits (travel, stipend, health, etc.) as well as instruction on digital storytelling techniques. Applicants must be U.S. citizens and cannot hold a Ph.D. at the time of application. Deadline: October 14, 2014.
http://U.S.fulbrightonline.org/fulbright-nat-geo-fellowship

International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX) Individual Advanced Research Opportunities (IARO) Program – U.S. citizens who are affiliated full-time with a North American college or university are eligible for academic exchange programs in Eastern Europe, Eurasia, and Mongolia. The IARO Program is available to graduate students. Applicants can propose to do research in up to three countries (in Eastern Europe and Eurasia) for 2-9 months. Award: housing allowance, living expenses, and round-trip transportation. Last deadline: December 9, 2013.

National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement (DDRI) – NSF awards are made by various NSF Directorates and Divisions, with varying deadlines for each academic discipline, twice annually. These grants provide funds for items not normally available at the university level, allowing doctoral students to undertake data-gathering and field research that would not otherwise be possible. Citizenship for DDRI awards is unrestricted. DDRI applications must be submitted electronically via Fastlane, with faculty advisor as PI and must be submitted by the MSU Office of Sponsored Programs
(OSP); leave at least 7-10 days to manage electronic submission. At OSP, contact your college’s representative at 517-355-5040 or by e-mail (find your representative at https://www.cga.msu.edu/PL/Portal/DocumentViewer.aspx?cga=aQBkAD0AMQA3ADAA). Consult the instructions for the DDRI (click on Solicitation instructions at: http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=13453&org=NSF&sel_org=NSF&from=fund) and also the NSF Grant Proposal Guide (http://www.nsf.gov/publications/pub_summ.jsp?ods_key=gpg). Also, see the NSF Specialized Information for Graduate Students website: http://www.nsf.gov/funding/education.jsp?org=OISE&fund_type=2

● Directorate for Social, Behavioral, and Economic Sciences (SBE) Doctoral Dissertation Research Grants – Awards are made to undertake significant data-gathering projects and to conduct field research in settings away from campus that would not otherwise be possible in the following fields: archaeology; cultural anthropology; physical anthropology; economics; geography; linguistics; political science; sociology; law and social science; Decision, Risk and Management Sciences; Methodology, Measurement, and Statistics; Research on Science and Technology Surveys and Statistics; Science, Technology, and Society; and Science of Science and Innovation Policy. Deadlines are twice a year and vary by discipline. http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=13453&govDel=U.S.NSF_50

● NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP) – Provides three years of support (annually $32,000 stipend and $12,000 for tuition) for graduate study leading to research-based master's or doctoral degrees and is intended for students who are in the early stages of their graduate study. Includes physical and social sciences. (http://nsfgrfp.org/) Eligible NSF Graduate Research Fellows must have completed at least one year of their graduate program at the time of application. They must be enrolled at U.S. institutions, making satisfactory progress towards their degrees, and have fulfilled all GRFP reporting requirements. Deadlines: October 29-November 4, 2014, depending on field http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=6201

● Additionally, GRFP Fellows are eligible for Graduate Research Opportunities Worldwide (GROW), a Supplemental Award to establish collaboration with select research institutions abroad. GROW continues research cooperation with counterpart funding organizations in Norway, Finland, Denmark, Sweden, France, Japan, South Korea and Singapore. In addition, GROW announces new partnership opportunities in Australia, Brazil, Chile, India, Ireland, the Netherlands, and Switzerland, as well as upcoming partnerships with U.S.AID in Brazil, Colombia, India, Indonesia, the Philippines, Senegal, and South Africa. Last deadline: January 8, 2014. http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=504876

Department of Energy Stewardship Science Graduate Fellowship – Award available to students in their first or second year of graduate study in a science or engineering discipline related to high energy density physics, nuclear science, or materials under extreme conditions and hydrodynamics. Fellowship is renewable for up to four years of study and includes a $36,000 annual stipend, tuition and fees, and yearly $1,000 allowance to spend on research or professional development. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. Last deadline: January 15, 2014. http://www.krellinst.org/ssgf/ and https://nifs.msu.edu/award/department-energy-stewardship-science-graduate-fellowship

The East Asia and Pacific Summer Institutes (EAPSI) – Provides U.S. graduate students in science and engineering fields with: 1) first-hand research experience in Australia, China, Japan, Korea, New Zealand, Singapore, or Taiwan; 2) an introduction to the science, science policy, and scientific infrastructure of the respective location; and 3) an orientation to the society, culture and language. The goals are to introduce students to East Asia and Pacific science and engineering in the context of a research setting and to help students initiate scientific relationships that will better enable future collaboration with foreign counterparts. Must be U.S. citizen or permanent resident, enrolled in a research-oriented master’s or Ph.D. degree program (including joint degree programs), enrolled at a U.S. institution, and pursuing studies in fields of science and engineering research and education supported by the NSF. $5,000 plus participation in Pre-Departure Orientation and roundtrip airplane ticket. Deadline: November 13, 2014 (second Thursday in November, annually).
http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=5284

National Institutes of Health (NIH), National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) Drug Abuse Dissertation Research (R36) – NIDA has announced new NIH Dissertation Awards to support drug abuse doctoral dissertation research in NIDA areas of priority including research on basic and clinical neuroscience and behavior, developmental trajectories, epidemiology, prevention, treatment, services, and/or women and sex/gender differences. (NIDA supports more than 85 percent of the world's research on the health aspects of drug abuse and addiction.) Proposed dissertation research may be in conjunction with an ongoing research study or use extant data. Studies of HIV/AIDS and Health Disparities are encouraged. No more than $50,000 will be provided annually. Deadlines: Oct 16, Feb 16, June 16, annually (new applications); November 16, March 16, July 16 (renewals, resubmissions, revisions).

NIH/NIMH Mental Health Research Dissertation Grant to Increase Diversity – Aims to provide awards to support the completion of doctoral research projects and dissertations from individuals of diverse backgrounds underrepresented in mental health research. Award includes approximately $22,000 yearly stipend and up to $15,000 for additional expenses such as fringe benefits, travel to scientific meetings, and research costs of the dissertation. Award given for no less than 12 months and no more than two years. Applicants must have an approved dissertation proposal. Open to citizens and permanent residents of the U.S. as well as non-citizen nationals. Deadline: August 22, 2014; December 22, 2014.

U.S. Institute for Peace, Jennings Randolph Peace Scholarship Dissertation Fellowships – $20,000 for research and writing in all disciplines, for 4-7 fellowships of up to ten months (starting in September) on topics related to international peacemaking, conflict management, and international security issues. Citizenship is unrestricted. Deadline: December 12, 2014.

Inter-American Foundation's Grassroots Development Fellowships Program – Fellowships for PhD candidates who are citizens of the United States or of an independent country in Latin America or the Caribbean, except Cuba, U.S. universities for dissertation research that examines "the efforts of the rural and urban poor to improve their lives, their methods of organization and production, and the policies and programs designed to alleviate their poverty." Before beginning research funded under the IAF Fellowship, students must have advanced to candidacy for a Ph.D. in the social sciences, physical sciences, technical fields or other disciplines as related to grassroots development issues in Latin America or the Caribbean. Last deadline: January 22, 2013; 2015-16 cycle will be announced during Fall 2014.
http://www.iie.org/en/Programs/IAF-Grassroots-Development-Fellowship-Program

Borlaug Leadership Enhancement in Agriculture Program (LEAP) – A U.S.AID-funded fellowship program aimed at supporting thesis research of graduate students studying at designated U.S. or African universities in U.S.AID-assisted countries in sub-Saharan Africa who show strong promise as leaders in the field of agriculture and related disciplines. Applications are requested from sub-Saharan African students conducting research on topics related to agriculture and the U.S. Government's global hunger

U.S. Borlaug Fellows in Global Food Security Program—U.S.AID also funds a two-part fellowship program to expand the pool of U.S. food security professionals who have the scientific base needed to effectively study and manage the global landscapes in support of sustainable food systems. All topics that relate to food security and are linked to the research strategies to the U.S.AID Feed the Future Initiative are admissible.

- Graduate Research Fellowship Grant Program – Supports graduate students who are interested in conducting research in a country with a significant food insecurity problem. Grants up to $15,000 for six-month international stays, $20,000 for one-year international stays, and $40,000 for two-year international stays. Emphasis is placed on interdisciplinary projects, but students approaching an issue through a single discipline will also be considered. Fellows must be U.S. citizens. Deadlines: November 10, 2014 (Fall 2014 cycle opened August 11, 2014); April 13, 2015 (Spring 2015 cycle will open January 12, 2015). http://www.purdue.edu/discoverypark/food/borlaugfellows/research-fellowship/index.php and http://www.purdue.edu/discoverypark/food/borlaugfellows/research-fellowship/rfa.php

- Summer Institute on Global Food Security – Two-week long program for 30 graduate students attending U.S. institutions and interested in developing a holistic understanding of the conceptual challenges around global food security. Lodging, meals, and teaching materials will be provided at no cost. No citizenship restrictions. 2015 deadline and dates March 9, 2015 (cycle opens January 12, 2015); program will run from June 7-20, 2015. http://www.purdue.edu/discoverypark/food/borlaugfellows/summer-institute/index.php

Leland International Hunger Fellows Program—Two-year program that trains emerging leaders in the fight to end hunger worldwide. During their first year, fellows work directly to build food security in the field, and in their second, they apply their experience to the design of sound development policy at the organizational, national, and international level. Applicants apply directly to specific placement positions. Fellows receive a monthly stipend, health insurance, housing and relocation allowances, and professional development funds. Last deadline: January 11, 2013 (check website for 2015 cycle in late October/early November 2014). Next deadline will be in mid/late January 2015. http://www.hungercenter.org/fellowships/leland/

National Gallery of Art's Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts Predoctoral Fellowships—To support doctoral dissertation research in the history, theory, and criticism of art, architecture, and urbanism. Application for these fellowships may be made only through the chair of graduate departments of art history and other appropriate departments, who act as sponsors for applicants from their respective schools. Awards are $25,000 for 12 months for up to three years. A housing allowance is available for fellows not in residence. Fellows in residence are provided with housing in apartments near the Gallery, subject to availability. In addition, predoctoral fellows receive allowances for travel and research-related materials, depending on the terms of the fellowship. Candidates must be U.S. citizens or enrolled in a U.S.-based university. Deadline: November 15, annually (all predoctoral fellowships begin September 1, 2015). http://www.nga.gov/content/ngaweb/research/casva/fellowships/predoctoral-dissertation-fellowships.html
National Gallery of Art - Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts - Predoctoral Fellowships for Historians of American Art to Travel Abroad – Four fellowships for doctoral students in art history who are studying aspects of art and architecture of the U.S., including native and pre-Revolutionary America. This fellowship is for a period of four to six weeks of continuous travel abroad in areas such as Africa, Asia, South America, or Europe, to sites of historical and cultural interest, including museums, exhibitions, collections, and monuments. The travel fellowship is intended to encourage a breadth of art-historical experience beyond the candidate’s major field, not for the advancement of a dissertation. Preference will be given to those who have had little opportunity for research travel abroad. Application for a travel fellowship may be made only through nomination by the chair of a graduate department of art history or other appropriate department. Each department may support two candidates. The amount of the award is dependent on the travel plan, with a maximum of $6,000. Deadline: November 15, 2014 for the period June 2015 through May 2016.

http://www.nga.gov/content/ngaweb/research/casva/fellowships/predoctoral-travel-fellowships.html

III. B. Individual Funding Opportunities by Foundations, Non-governmental Organizations, and Professional Associations

III. B. (1) Funding Opportunities for International Research

Social Science Research Council (SSRC)
- Dissertation Proposal Development Fellowship (DPDF) Program – An interdisciplinary training program designed to help graduate students in the early years of their research to formulate doctoral dissertation proposals. For the first time in 2015, the fellowship is not limited to students whose research topics fall within specific fields of study but rather is open to all students in the humanities and social sciences who are beginning to formulate proposals for dissertation research. Funds participation in workshops and up to $5,000 for research. Travel and accommodations to attend both workshops are covered by the DPDF. Deadline: October 15, 2014. http://www.ssrc.org/programs/dpdf/ and http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/dpdf-fellowship/

- International Dissertation Research Fellowship (IDRF) – Approximately 80 fellowships for nine to 12 months (averaging $20,000) for students in the humanities and social sciences. Must have passed qualifying exams by the time the fellowship begins or by December 2015, whichever comes first. Citizenship: unrestricted. Deadline: November 4, 2014. http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/idrf-fellowship/

- Japan Society for the Promotion of Science Fellowship – ABD doctoral and postdoctoral students in the social sciences and humanities are eligible. For individual research and collaboration with Japanese colleagues; topic need not be explicitly about Japan. Award offers are made in early-summer for fellowships that must commence between June 1 and November 30 (long-term) or June 1 and March 31 (short-term). Long-term fellows stay in Japan for one or two years, while short-term fellows remain in Japan for one to 12 months. Deadline: December 1, annually. http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/jsps-fellowship/

Asian Cultural Council – Grants for gifted artists or scholars to conduct research and study, receive specialized training, undertake observation tours, or pursue non-commercial creative activity in the United States or among the countries of Asia. Open to citizens and permanent residents of the U.S. or citizens and permanent residents of the countries of Asia, from Afghanistan eastward through Japan and Indonesia. Deadline: November 1, annually (visit website beginning in September for information about 2015 grant cycle). http://www.asianculturalcouncil.org/ and http://www.asianculturalcouncil.org/apply/individual-guidelines
American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) Competitions and Deadlines – Website below lists all open ACLS competitions with upcoming deadlines. http://www.acls.org/programs/comps/

● The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation/ACLS Dissertation Completion Fellowship – Stipend: $30,000, plus funds for research costs of up to $3,000 and for university fees of up to $5,000. Tenure: one year term beginning summer 2015. Applicants should be advanced graduate students in the humanities or related social sciences in the last year of Ph.D. dissertation writing. No citizenship restrictions. Sixty-five fellowships will be awarded in the 2015 cycle. Henry Luce/ACLS Dissertation Fellowships and American Art also are available to ABD art history students in any stage of their Ph.D. dissertation writing. Ten fellowships will be available for a non-renewable, one-year term beginning between June and September 2015 for the 2015-2016 academic year. Fellowships include a $25,000 stipend and $2,000 travel allowance. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Deadlines: October 22, 2014 for both awards.

● ACLS African Humanities Fellowships – Dissertation-completion and postdoctoral fellowships available to residents and nationals of a country in sub-Saharan Africa, with a current affiliation at an institution in Ghana, Nigeria, South Africa, Tanzania, or Uganda. Applicants should be in the final year of writing the dissertation at a university in Ghana, Nigeria, Tanzania, or Uganda. Award: $10,000 for dissertation completion, and $17,000 for postdoctoral fellows. Deadline: November 1, 2014. Applications must be submitted by email to ahp@acls.org. http://www.acls.org/grants/Default.aspx?id=3210

● Henry Luce Foundation/ACLS Program in China Studies: Pre-dissertation grant of $5,000 for 3-4 months of research in China to prepare for beginning basic dissertation research. Postdoctoral Fellowship (up to $50,000 for two consecutive semesters between June 2015 and September 2016) and collaborative reading-workshop grants (up to $15,000 for workshops held between June 1, 2015 and September 2016) also available. Working knowledge of Chinese is required. Deadline: October 1, 2014. http://www.acls.org/programs/china-studies/

UNESCO Fellowships Programmes – Various fellowships sponsored by UNESCO and China, Republic of Korea, Czech Republic, Poland, Russia, Israel, Japan, and Saudi Arabia. Fellowships are specially tailored training which are designed to give participants an opportunity to receive additional and practical training. Deadlines: vary by nation. http://www.unesco.org/new/en/fellowships/

Laura W. Bush Traveling Fellowship – Funding for 4-6 weeks (~$2,500) in a foreign country. Proposal should address the mandate of UNESCO – using education, natural sciences, social and human sciences, culture, and/or communication and information to build strong ties among nations. Applicants must be U.S. citizens between the ages of 18 and 25 at the time of application. Deadline: September 22, 2014 (for projects conducted in the Winter/Spring of 2015). http://www.state.gov/p/io/unesco/programs/143138.htm
L'Oreal U.S.A - UNESCO-L'OREAL International Fellowships Programme for Young Women in Life Sciences – One-year fellowships (up to $20,000) for 15 young women scientists, from all over the world, who are active in the field of life sciences. With a view to ensuring a balanced geographical representation, a maximum of three women from each of the five geo-cultural regions of the world will be awarded fellowships. Candidates must already be engaged in pursuing research at the doctoral or post-doctoral level in one or more allied fields of life sciences including biology, biochemistry, biotechnology, agriculture, medicine, pharmacy and physiology. Special attention will be given to candidates from the Least Developed Countries. Last deadline: June 10, 2013 (last call for proposals in March 2013). http://www.unesco.org/new/en/fellowships/programmes/unesco-loreal-international-fellowships-programme-for-young-women-in-life-sciences-2014/

Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research
● Dissertation Fieldwork Grants – Up to $20,000 to support dissertation or thesis research that contributes to anthropological knowledge. Students must be enrolled in a doctoral program (or equivalent, if applying from outside the U.S.) at the time of application. There is no time limit on the duration of the grant, and funding may be requested to cover distinct research phases (for example, two summers) if this is part of the research design. Citizenship is unrestricted. Deadlines: May 1 and November 1 each year. Applicants must submit application materials using the Foundation's online application submission procedure as well as send five printed copies to the Foundation by regular mail. http://www.wennergren.org/programs/dissertation-fieldwork-grants
● Wadsworth International Fellowships – Support study leading to a Ph.D. or equivalent doctoral degree in anthropology, particularly for students who are in the early stages of their doctoral programs. Fellowships are up to $17,500 per year, meant to be used towards travel, living expenses, tuition and other fees. The fellowship is renewable for up to two additional years upon successful completion of each preceding year’s study/training. A separate application can be made for an additional year of funding to support dissertation write-up. Applicants must be from countries where anthropology is underrepresented and where there are limited resources to send students overseas for training. (See the country list on the website). Priority is given to applicants who have not already begun graduate training abroad and who are likely to return to an academic position in their home country upon completion of their degree. Deadline: March 1, annually (materials are available three months before the application deadline). http://www.wennergren.org/programs/wadsworth-international-fellowships
● Engaged Anthropology Grant – Up to $5,000 for expenses to enable past Wenner-Gren grantees to return to their research locale to share their research results with the community in which the research was conducted and/or the academic/anthropological community in the region or country of research. Applications must be received within five years of the original approval date of the Dissertation Fieldwork grant. Grantees may apply for the Engaged Anthropology Grant before their doctorate is completed, but funds will not be awarded until the doctorate is in hand. Deadline: February 1 and August 1, annually. http://www.wennergren.org/programs/engaged-anthropology-grant
● See also International Collaborative Research Grants – Up to $30,000 to assist anthropological research projects undertaken jointly by two (or more) investigators from different countries. Applicants usually have a Ph.D., but some exceptions may be made. Proposals which include the optional training element can have an increased funding request up to a maximum of $35,000, of which no more than $10,000 can be for essential training purposes. Deadlines: June 1 and December 1, annually. http://www.wennergren.org/programs/international-collaborative-research-grants
Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR) Mellon Fellowships for Dissertation Research in Original Sources – Fifteen fellowships annually of support up to $2,000 per month for 9-12 months for dissertation research plus an additional $1,000 upon participating in a symposium on research in original sources and submitting an acceptable report to CLIR on the research experience. Maximum award of $25,000. Covers many fields of humanities and social sciences. Citizenship: unrestricted. Expected deadline: November 17, 2014; grant cycle will open in September. http://www.clir.org/fellowships/mellon/mellon.html

Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation Dissertation Fellowships – Support of $20,000 for research concerning violence, aggression, and dominance in relation to social change, the socialization of children, intergroup conflict, interstate warfare, crime, family relationships, and investigations of the control of aggression and violence. Ten or more dissertation fellowships awarded each year. Citizenship is unrestricted. This fellowship is only appropriate for students entering the dissertation writing stage; applicants should be confident that they will finish their dissertation within one year. It does not for support doctoral research, only writing. Deadline: February 1, annually. http://www.hfg.org/df/guidelines.htm

Guggenheim Museum Hilla Rebay International Fellowship – Ten-month fellowship for in-depth professional training, spending at least three months at each of the following: Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum in New York, Guggenheim Museum Bilbao, and Peggy Guggenheim Collection in Venice. Fellows will receive funding of $30,000 (subject to taxes) and gain exposure to Museum operations, including Curatorial, Education, and Registration. Minimum MA/MPhil in art history or related academic fields. Doctoral candidates or recent Ph.D. graduates are encouraged to apply. Candidates must have fluency in spoken and written English, Spanish, and Italian. Deadline: May 15, annually. http://www.guggenheim.org/new-york/education/internships/hilla-rebay-international-fellowship

Ford Foundation Fellowship Programs For Achieving Excellence in College and University Teaching – Membership in an underrepresented group is considered a positive factor. http://sites.nationalacademies.org/pga/fordfellowships/ Two programs: 1) Ford Foundation Predoctoral Fellowships: The Ford Fellowship program will award approximately 60 three-year predoctoral fellowships for U.S. citizens, nationals, and permanent residents in many disciplines. Provides a $24,000 stipend, plus tuition and fees each year, as well as expenses paid to attend at least one Conference of Ford Fellows. Deadline: November 19, 2014; supplementary materials received by January 9, 2015. 2) Ford Foundation Dissertation Fellowships: Approximately 30 one-year fellowships in numerous disciplines for U.S. citizens, nationals, and permanent residents. Provides a $25,000 stipend and expenses paid to attend at least one Conference of Ford Fellows. Deadline: November 14, 2014, with supplementary materials due on January 9, 2015. http://sites.nationalacademies.org/PGA/FordFellowships/PGA_047959

American Sociological Association (ASA) – Minority Fellowship Program (deadline: January 31; application opens in November). The annual stipend for each award (August 1 - July 31) is $18,000. In addition, arrangements for the payments of tuition are made with universities or departments. Student Forum travel grants of $225 to attend ASA annual meeting (deadline: April 1, annually) are also available. http://www.asanet.org/funding/mfp.cfm and http://www.asanet.org/funding/sfta.cfm
Association of American Geographers (AAG) Dissertation Research Grants – Grants of up to $500 for doctoral dissertation research of any geographic specialty. Applicants must have been AAG members for at least one year at the time of submission. Applicants also must be ABD by the end of the semester or term following approval of the award. Deadline: December 31, annually. http://www.aag.org/cs/grants/dissertation

American Psychological Association Dissertation Research Award – 30-40 $1,000 awards and several $5,000 awards to students whose dissertation research reflects excellence in scientific psychology. The program assists science-oriented doctoral students of psychology with research costs. Applicants must be in psychology department or conducting a psychology-focused dissertation. Deadline: September 15, 2014. http://www.apa.org/about/awards/scidir-dissertre.aspx

American Psychological Association of Graduate Students (APAGS) Committee for the Advancement of Racial and Ethnic Diversity Grant Program – Four $1,000 grants every year for projects that recruit, retain, and/or enhance the training of ethnic minority graduate psychology students. Awards may be used to develop workshops, conferences, speaker series, mentorship programs, or the development of student organizations with a focus on multiculturalism or ethnic minority concerns. These grants are available to graduate student members of APAGS who are enrolled at least half-time as students in good standing at a regionally accredited university. Deadlines: December 3, 2014; May 6, 2015. http://www.apa.org/about/awards/apags-cema.aspx

Society for the Study of School Psychology Dissertation Grant Award – Four awards of up to $5,000 meant to promote excellence in research training in school psychology. Requests for proposals are typically made in spring and fall and are announced on major school psychology listservs. No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: March 6, 2014 (a fall request will be distributed in Fall 2014). http://sssspresearch.org/awards?quicktabs_7=1

National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) Academic Advising Research Support Grant – Up to $5,000 awarded to practicing professionals and graduate students from any institution (U.S. or international) seeking support for research in academic advising. Quantitative, qualitative, or mixed methodologies are welcome. NACADA has a particular interest in soliciting proposals that document the outcomes of different advising models. Deadlines: November 1, 2014; March 15, 2015. http://www.nacada.ksu.edu/Events-Programs/Awards/Research-Grants.aspx

National Academy of Education/Spencer Foundation Dissertation Fellowships – For research relevant to the improvement of education. Fellowships support the final analysis of the research topic and writing of the dissertation, but not data collection or the completion of doctoral course work. Grants of $25,000 for up to 30 fellows. Last deadline: October 3, 2014 http://www.naeducation.org/NAED_080200.htm and http://www.spencer.org/content.cfm/naed_spencer-dissertation-fellowships-in-education
American Educational Research Association (AERA) Dissertation Grants – For research about U.S. education using large national or international datasets. Up to 15 $20,000 awards annually for one-year project. Supported by NSF. Proposals should 1) develop or benefit from new qualitative methodological approaches, 2) incorporate subject matter expertise, especially in STEM fields, 3) analyze TIMSS, PISA, or other international data resources, and 4) include integration and analysis of more than one data set. Encourage minority applicants and research on diverse populations. Eligible: U.S. or non-U.S. citizens but must be working at a U.S. institution. Deadline: September 4, 2014. http://www.aera.net/ProfessionalOpportunitiesFunding/FundingOpportunities/AERAGrantsProgram/DissertationGrants/tabid/12812/Default.aspx

American Educational Research Association (AERA) Minority Dissertation Fellowship in Education Research – Dissertation support, U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Targeted toward members of racial and ethnic groups historically underrepresented in higher education. $19,000 stipend for one year and up to $1,000 in travel support to attend the AERA conference. Deadline: November 3, 2014. http://www.aera.net/ProfessionalOpportunitiesFunding/FundingOpportunities/AERAMinorityFellowshipProgram/tabid/10243/Default.aspx

International Education Research Foundation - Sepmeyer Research Grant Program – Supports research, disseminates information on world educational systems, and facilitates the integration of individuals educated outside the United States into the U.S. educational environment and work force. Scholars are eligible regardless of citizenship or residence. Fellows will receive grants of up to $1,000. Deadlines: February 15 or August 15, annually. http://ierf.org/index.php/individuals/new-applicants/research_grants/

ACPA Foundation Grants Program – Supports research that enhances the student affairs profession and disseminates knowledge about college students. Proposals are evaluated based on the importance and usefulness of the topic to student affairs professionals and the strength of the research methodology. Applicants must be ACPA members. Grants usually range from $1,000 to $2,500 for a one-year project; multi-year grants are also available. Last deadline: July 1, 2014. http://www.acpafoundation.org/content/grants

Pi Lambda Theta Research Grants – Grants of up to $2,500 are for research expenses in education, for either an independent project or part of a larger project, such as a dissertation. An applicant must have been a member of Pi Lambda Theta for at least one year before applying; continued eligibility requires continued membership. No citizenship requirement. Deadlines: April 1 and October 1 each year. http://pilambda.org/tag/grants/ and http://pilambda.org/benefits/scholarships/

Educational Testing Services (ETS) – Several graduate and post-doctoral fellowship and internship opportunities in educational measurement. Gulliksen Fellows are awarded a $19,000 stipend and $8,000 tuition for one-year fellowships. Applicants must be enrolled in a doctoral program. An 8-week summer internship program in education is also available; internship provides a $6,000 stipend, transportation and housing. In 2014, the program lasted from June 2 through July 25. Deadline for internship and grants: February 1, 2014. http://www.ets.org/research/fellowships/summer and http://www.ets.org/research/fellowships/
The International Federation of University Women (IFUW) offers a variety of grants for female graduate students who wish to conduct international research. Proposals should demonstrate relevance to IFUW’s mission policy. Deadlines: Vary by membership status. http://www.ifuw.org/where-we-work/usa/ and http://wg-usa.org/

American Fellowships: $20,000 grants to support women doctoral candidates (who will complete their dissertation writing between April 1 and June 30, 2016, and receive their degree between April 1 and September 15, 2016) or scholars seeking funds for postdoctoral research leave from accredited institutions. Students engaged in science, technology, engineering, and math fields or researching gender issues are especially encouraged to apply. Deadline: November 17, 2014. http://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/educational-funding-and-awards/american-fellowships/ and http://aauw-amdissert.scholarsapply.org/default.aspx

Mary Isabel Sibley Fellowship – $20,000 fellowship for unmarried women 25 to 35 years of age who have completed doctoral work except for dissertation. The fellowship is awarded alternately in the Greek or French studies. The award may be used for the study of Greek language, literature, history, or archaeology, or the study of French language or literature. Need not be Phi Beta Kappa member or U.S. citizen. Deadline: January 15, 2015 (for Greek Studies). https://www.pbk.org/infoview/PBK_InfoView.aspx?t=&id=28

Sigma Delta Epsilon Graduate Women in Science Fellowships – For graduate students, postdoctorates, or junior faculty for research “in all the natural sciences, including: physical, environmental, mathematical, computer, life sciences, anthropology, psychology and statistics.” Ten awards annually of $1,000-$10,000. Deadline: January 15, annually. http://gwis.org/national-fellowships-program/

The Margaret McNamara Memorial Fund (MMMF) – Grants of $12,000 for women (at least 25 years old by the end of year apply for grant) studying in Canada or the United States or at Universities of Cape Town, Pretoria, Stellenbosch and Witwatersrand in South Africa. Recipients must return to their home countries after the grant and perform two years of service. Last deadline: August 21, 2012; 2015-2016 grant competition will open in September 2014, check website: www.mmmf-grants.org

Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC) fellowships – Funds MA, PhD, and summer language learning programs at research centers in Rome, Mongolia, Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Cambodia, Iran, India, Jordan, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Yemen, Egypt, Bulgaria, Turkey, Greece, Cyprus, Mexico, Palestine, Iraq, and Senegal and planned new programs for Nepal and South Caucasus. Types of support vary by center, but may include short-term or long-term study and research (sometimes requiring affiliation with a local higher education institution), pre-doctoral short-term travel, and language study. CAORC also offers a Multi-Country Research Fellowship in which scholars in fields in the humanities, social sciences, or allied natural sciences can conduct research in more than one country, at least one of which hosts a participating American overseas research center. All applicants must be U.S. citizens. Deadlines vary: For some, last deadline was November 1, 2013. http://www.caorc.org/ has hyperlinks to all centers. For summary of multi-country program and several other programs organized in conjunction with affiliated partners: http://caorc.org/fellowships/

Members of the Council of American Overseas Research Centers:

American Academy in Rome (AAR)  |  Cyprus American Archaeological Research Institute
American Center for Mongolian Studies (ACMS)  |  Center for Khmer Studies (CKS)
American Center of Oriental Research (ACOR)  |  Mexico Research Network (MRN)
W.F. Albright Institute of Archaeological Research  |  Palestinian American Research Center (PARC)
American Institute of Afghanistan Studies (AIAS)  |  The American Academic Research Institute in Iraq
American Institute of Bangladesh Studies (AIBS)  |  West African Research Association (WARA)
American Institute for Indonesian Studies (AIFIS)  |  American Institute of Indian Studies (AIIS)
American Institute of Iranian Studies (AIrS)  |  American Institute for Maghrib Studies (AIMS)
American Research Center in Egypt (ARCE)  |  American Institute of Pakistan Studies (AIPS)
American Research Center in Sofia (ARCS)  |  American Institute for Sri Lankan Studies (AISLS)
American Research Institute in Turkey (ARIT)  |  Association for Nepal and Himalayan Studies
American School of Classical Studies at Athens  |  American Institute for Yemeni Studies (AIYS)

Center in Developing Status (Only for Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia)  |  American Research Institute of the South Caucasus

Albright Institute of Archaeological Research, W.F. – Fellowships for students and scholars in Ancient Near Eastern Studies from prehistory through the early Islamic period, including the fields of archaeology, anthropology, art history, Bible, epigraphy, historical geography, history, language, literature, philology and religion and related disciplines. New Mediterranean Regional Research Fellowship Program will enable doctoral and post-doctoral students to carry out research in the humanities and related social sciences in countries bordering the Mediterranean and served by American overseas research centers. Amounts range from $5,700-$33,600 depending on length of study. Deadline: October 1, 2014; January 13, 2015 (Mediterranean Research Fellowship). http://www.aiar.org/available-fellowships/

American Councils for International Education – Grant Competitions for Graduate Students for students currently enrolled in a Master's or doctoral degree program:

● Title VIII Combined Research and Language Training Program - Provides full support (between $5,000 and $25,000) for research and approximately ten hours per week of advanced language instruction for three to nine consecutive months in Central Asia, Russia, the South Caucasus, Southeast Europe, Moldova and Ukraine.
● Title VIII Research Scholar Program - Provides full support (between $5,000 and $25,000) for three to nine consecutive month research trips to Central Asia, Russia, the South Caucasus, Southeast Europe, Moldova, and Ukraine.

● Title VIII Southeast European Language Training Program – Provides full support for one to nine consecutive months of language training in Southeast Europe. Deadline: October 1, annually (all grants listed above). http://researchfellowships.americancouncils.org/graduatesstudents

Paul and Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans – 30 fellowships each year for up to two years of graduate study in the U.S. The program is open to individuals who retain loyalty and a sense of commitment to their country of origin as well as to the U.S., but is intended to support individuals who will continue to regard the U.S. as their principal residence and focus of national identity. Each award up to $25,000 in maintenance grants, and up to $20,000 in tuition support each year; overall the award provides up to $90,000 in total support over two years. Deadline: November 1, 2014 (The application will be available on August 25, 2014). http://www.pdsoros.org/

Smith Richardson Foundation: World Politics and Statecraft Fellowship – Stipend of $7,500 to support Ph.D. dissertation research (fieldwork, archival research, or language training) on U.S. foreign policy, international relations, international security, strategic studies, area studies, and diplomatic and military history. The Foundation will award up to 20 grants. Deadline: October 15, 2014. http://www.srf.org/ and http://history.wisc.edu/graduate/funding/external/US/srf.htm

Charlotte Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships – $25,000 for 12 months of full-time dissertation writing on ethical or religious values in all fields of the humanities and social sciences. At least 22 non-renewable fellowships awarded to students who have completed all pre-dissertation requirements, including approval of the dissertation proposal, and are at the writing stage of the dissertation Deadline: November 15, 2014. http://woodrow.org/fellowships/newcombe/

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars Fellowships

http://www.wilsoncenter.org/fellowships-grants

● Woodrow Wilson Dissertation Fellowships in Women’s Studies – Offers $5,000 award to approximately 10 doctoral candidates doing original and significant research about women that crosses disciplinary, regional, or cultural boundaries. Supports the final year of dissertation writing for Ph.D. candidates in the humanities and social sciences. Funds may be used for expenses connected with completing dissertations, such as research-related travel, data work/collection, and supplies. Citizenship: unrestricted. Deadline: October 15, 2014. http://woodrow.org/fellowships/womens-studies/

● The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation also offers Mellon Foundation Fellowships for dissertation completion and travel and research. Both grants are open only to graduate students who previously participated in the Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship Program. The dissertation grant is available to students who have completed all pre-dissertation requirements and are preparing to write their dissertation. The grant offers up to $20,000 for a 12-month period. The travel and research grant is available to students who have completed all pre-dissertation requirements, including approval of dissertation topic. The grant offers up to $5,000 for one summer or one semester and can be used to cover dissertation research, travel to/from research sites, and photocopying of documents and/or purchasing access to databases for research purposes. Deadlines: December 12, 2014 (Dissertation grant) and March 13, 2015 (Travel and research grant) 2015 grant cycles will open in September 2014. http://woodrow.org/fellowships/mellon/dissertation-grants/ and http://woodrow.org/fellowships/mellon/travel-and-research-grants/
● East European Studies Short Term Grants: Grants are available to advanced graduate students engaged in specialized research requiring access to Washington, D.C. and its research institutions. Grants are for one month and do not include residence at the Wilson Center. Applicants should highlight their potential policy relevance and focus on fields in the social sciences and humanities including, but not limited to: Anthropology, History, Political Science, Slavic Languages and Literatures, and Sociology. Southeast Europe remains a primary focus, but projects on Central Europe and the Baltic states are also eligible. Must be U.S. citizen. Deadline: September 1, 2014. http://www.wilsoncenter.org/opportunity/east-european-studies-short-term-grants

● Kennan Institute Summer Research Grants – Stipend of $6,400 for 62 days (or $103.22 per day) for U.S. scholars who conduct research in the social sciences or humanities focusing on the former Soviet Union (excluding the Baltic States) and who demonstrate a particular need to utilize the library, archival, and other specialized resources of the Washington, D.C., area. Must hold an M.A. degree or higher. Applicants must be U.S. citizens. Deadline: January 15, 2015. http://www.wilsoncenter.org/opportunity/kennan-institute-summer-research-scholarships

Council for European Studies (CES) Pre-Dissertation Research Fellowships – Grant includes a $4,000 stipend for two months abroad, travel support for attending and presenting at the CES International Conference for Europeanists, and the opportunity to publish in the bi-yearly Perspectives on Europe. The fellowship is intended to fund fellows’ first research project in Europe. Fellows must be in the early, exploratory stage of their research and possess the necessary language skills to complete their project. Awards include 20 Pre-Dissertation Research Fellowships for graduate students working on general topics in European Studies, one pre-dissertation Research Fellowship for a graduate student working in Portuguese Studies, and one pre-dissertation Research Fellowship for a graduate student in anthropology on a topic in European Studies. Deadline: January 19, 2015 (2015 application cycle opens October 1, 2014). http://councilforEuropeanstudies.org/grants-and-awards/pre-dissertation-research

● The CES also offers the Mellon-CES Dissertation Completion Fellowship in European Studies for ABD students (year 5 or beyond) who are U.S. citizens or green card holders. These fellowships include a $25,000 stipend paid in six bi-monthly installments over the course of the fellowship year, as well as assistance in securing reimbursements or waivers in eligible health insurance and candidacy fees. Winners are expected to participate in professional development activities organized by the CES such as publishing in Perspectives on Europe, presenting at the International Conference for Europeanists, and participating in digital and in-person seminars and workshops. Deadline: January 26, 2015 (2015 cycle opens October 1, 2014). http://councilforEuropeanstudies.org/grants-and-awards/dissertation-completion

Erasmus+ Programme (previously Erasmus Mundus) – Provides several options for Masters and doctoral level study in Europe. Doctoral candidates may apply to spend a study/research/teaching period in an Erasmus Mundus joint program or cooperation partnership. No citizenship restrictions. Deadline: Last quarter of 2014 or January 2015; see website for details; last deadline: March 3, 2014. http://eacea.ec.europa.eu/erasmus_mundus/funding/scholarships_students_academics_en.php

L.S.B. Leakey Foundation
● General Research Grants – For research related specifically to human origins, including paleoanthropology, primate behavior, and studies of modern hunter-gatherer groups. Grants open to ABD doctoral students are in the $3,000-$15,000 range. No citizenship restrictions. Deadlines: January 5, January 15 (resubmissions from previous cycles), and July 15, annually. http://www.leakeyfoundation.org/research-grants/

● Leakey Franklin Mosher Baldwin Memorial Fellowships – For anthropology scholars and students with citizenship in an African country for a program of approved advanced special training or studies leading towards an M.A or Ph.D. at an institution outside the student’s home country. Welcome disciplines include paleoanthropology, archaeology, and primatology. This award is limited to two years of support. The maximum award is limited to $12,000 per year. Deadline: February 15, annually. http://www.iefa.org/scholarships/573/Franklin_Mosher_Baldwin_Memorial_Fellowship

Archaeological Institute of America Fellowships – Eight fellowship programs for travel and study in Portugal, Greece, Italy, Berlin, other parts of Europe and Asia, and the U.S. Grants are open to members of the Archaeological Institute of America at the dissertation research or write-up stage. Colburn Fellowship provides support for study at the American School of Classical Study at Athens (Deadlines: January 15, 2016). DAI Fellowship encourages and supports North American scholars wishing to explore archaeology in Berlin (Deadline: January 31, 2015). Deadline for all other grants: November 1, 2014. http://www.archaeological.org/grants

American Schools of Oriental Research Fellowships to participate in excavations in the Eastern Mediterranean, including Cyprus, Jerusalem, and Jordan – Most grants range from $500 to $1,500. Last deadlines: February 15, 2014. http://www.asor.org/fellowships/excavation.html

Boehringer Ingelheim Fonds - Ph.D. Fellowships (for Basic Biomedical Research in Europe) – Grants for outstanding young scientists (maximum age: 27 years) to pursue a Ph.D. project of approximately three years in basic biomedical research in an internationally leading laboratory. Fellowship comprises a monthly stipend initially granted for two years, which can be extended for up to 12 months. The grant supports European citizens working in Europe and overseas, as well as students from overseas pursuing their Ph.D. project in Europe. The Ph.D. project must be experimental, in the field of basic biomedical research and aimed at elucidating basic biological phenomena of human life and acquiring new scientific knowledge. Natural scientists should have been awarded their diploma or equivalent degree; physicians, veterinary surgeons and pharmacists should have passed their state examinations. At the deadline, the applicant should not have been working on his/her project for more than 6 months. Deadlines: February 1, June 1, and October 1, annually. http://www.bifonds.de/fellowships-grants/phd-fellowships.html

● Short-term Pre-dissertation Travel Grants for European citizens working in Europe and abroad as well as students from overseas working in Europe. Grants are awarded for visits ranging from four weeks to three months and include a flat-rate contribution which may cover the expenses for travel, lodging, and course fees. Deadline: Applications may be submitted at any time but must be received at least six weeks before planned date of departure. http://www.bifonds.de/fellowships-grants/travel-grants.html

American-Scandinavian Foundation Fellowship for Study in Scandinavia – Fellowships and grants for research or graduate study in one or more Scandinavian country for up to one year. Fellowships provide up to $23,000 for one year of dissertation-related study or research. Grants provide up to $5,000 for research or study visits of 1-3 months duration. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. All disciplines welcome. Some ability in the language of the host country is preferred. Deadline:
November 1, annually. http://www.amscan.org/fellowships_grants.html and http://www.amscan.org/study_scandinavia_details.html.

- Additional funding sources for study and research in Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden: http://www.amscan.org/alternate.html.

Leiv Eiriksson Mobility Programme – Grants for three to 12 months of data collection in the U.S., Canada, and Norway, based on fixed monthly rates. Open to Ph.D. students and academic personnel from the U.S. and Canada. New calls are currently under consideration; check website during Fall 2014 for information on the 2014-2015 grant cycle. http://www.forskningsradet.no/servlet/Satellite?c=Informasjonstekst&cid=1224066992139&pagename=internasjonale-stipend%2FHovedsidemal

Centre for International Mobility (CIMO) Fellowships Research in Finland – Grants for young doctoral level students and researchers from all countries and all academic fields. The primary target group is students who will be doing their Doctorate (or Double Doctorate) at a Finnish university. Visiting Doctoral-level students and researchers who are doing their Doctorate degree at a foreign university can also be considered, provided that the motivation letter of the hosting Finnish university department presents exceptionally good grounds for the application. Funds 3-12 months, with monthly allowance of 900-1200 Euros (the allowance will increase to 1,500 Euros for fellowships that begin on or after January 1, 2015). Must have a Finnish university host sponsor to apply. Deadline: rolling. Must be submitted at least 5 months before the proposed scholarship period. http://www.studyinfinland.fi/tuition_and_scholarships/cimo_scholarships/cimo_fellowships

Berlin Program for Advanced German and European Studies – Up to one year of research support at the Freie Universität Berlin for scholars in social sciences and humanities disciplines, including historians working on the period since the mid-18th century. The program accepts applications from U.S. and Canadian nationals and permanent or long-term residents. Applicants for a dissertation fellowship must be full-time graduate students enrolled at a North American university who have achieved ABD status by the time the proposed research stay in Berlin begins. Also eligible are U.S. and Canadian Ph.D.s who have received their doctorates within the past two calendar years. Stipends include $1,400 Euros per month and round-trip airfare. Deadline: December 1, annually. http://www.fu-berlin.de/en/sites/bprogram/

Germany Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) for Study in Germany – For undergraduate seniors, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers (two years or less beyond the PhD) in all fields to undertake up to 10 months independent study or a master’s program in Germany. Awards include stipends of 750 Euros, health insurance, rent subsidy, family allowance, and travel costs. Candidates must have ABD status by the time of application deadline (short-term grants) or by the start of the grant period (long-term grants). Deadlines: November 4, 2014 for 10-month and short term grants. https://www.daad.org/?p=gradstudy

Institute for European History - Residential Fellowships (Mainz, Germany) in arts, history, and social sciences, specializing in the history of occidental religion, ecumenical research on the Reformation in Europe, and general history from the 16th to the 20th centuries. Awarded receive a monthly stipend of $1,200 for 6-12 months of research. Deadline: February 1, 2015. http://www.ieg-mainz.de/likecms/index.php and http://www.ieg-mainz.de/forschung/foerderung/doktorandenstipendien
Alexander von Humboldt Foundation Germany Chancellor Fellowship for Tomorrow’s Leaders – For citizens of the U.S., Brazil, India, Russia, and China for one year of research in Germany in multiple disciplines such as politics and public policy, law, media, business, the non-governmental sector, and the arts. Fellowship provides a monthly fellowship of 2,150-2,750 Euros to up to 50 young professionals. Deadline: 15 September. The fellowship begins on 1 October of the following year. http://www.humboldt-foundation.de/web/home.html and http://www.humboldt-foundation.de/web/4074.html

American Council on Germany –
- Goldman Fellowships for the Study of German and European Politics, Political Economy, and International Affairs – Topics may include German economic and foreign policy and the evolution of U.S.-European relations. Fellows are required to develop research itineraries in consultation with the American Council on Germany. Ph.D. dissertation research candidates eligible. Applicants must be U.S. citizens aged 45 or younger. Knowledge of the German language is not a prerequisite. Award recipients receive travel funds as well as a per diem stipend of $200 for up to 28 days in Germany. Last deadline: July 1, 2014. Expected deadline: July 1, 2015 (check website beginning January 2015 for updates). http://acgusa.org/index.php?section=goldman-fellowships
- Hunt Fellowships for scholarship on contemporary German society and the political, cultural, and social history of Germany – Like Goldman Fellows, Hunt Fellows receive travel funds as well as a per diem stipend of $200 for up to 28 days in Germany. To be eligible for the Hunt Fellowship, projects should focus on German politics, society, and culture, particularly from a historical perspective. Last deadline: July 1, 2014. Expected deadline: July 1, 2015 (check website beginning January 2015 for updates). http://acgusa.org/index.php?section=hunt-fellowships

Leo Baecck Institute Fritz Halberts Fellowships – For research projects concerning the culture and history of the German-Jewish community. Up to $3,000 of support. Last deadline: November 14, 2013; deadlines fall in November annually. http://www.lbi.org/about/fellowships/

American Jewish Committee (AJC) Goldman Fellowship Program – Fellows work in national and international AJC offices for nine weeks, focusing on AJC interests ranging from international affairs and diplomacy to interethnic relations and non-profit management. Participants may also spend part of their time developing an independent project with the AJC office to which they are assigned. Designed to develop future leaders in the areas of international and domestic politics, diplomacy, public relations, and management. $3,000 plus major travel expenses. Last deadline: February 15th, 2013 (check website in January 2015 for Summer 2015 cycle). http://www.jcc.org/goldman-fellowship/ and http://www.ajc.org/site/c.70JILSPwFfJSG/b.8467181/k.91A8/Fellowships.htm

Newbery Library/École Nationale des Chartes Exchange Fellowship – Fellowship provides a monthly stipend ($4,200 monthly, unless otherwise noted) and tuition for an American or Canadian graduate student to study for one term at the École Nationale des Chartes in Paris, the oldest institution in Europe specializing in the archival sciences, including paleography, bibliography, textual editing, and the history of the book. Preference is given to students attending institutions that are members of the Center for Renaissance Studies Consortium. Applications are especially encouraged from students who are in the early stages of preparing their dissertations. Project abstracts and descriptions should provide specifics about a need for the training available at the École Nationale des Chartes and how it will contribute to their dissertation or future projects. Deadline: December 1, annually. Short-term grants also are available; these grants are due January 15, 2015. http://www.newberry.org/long-term-fellowships

Education Office of the Embassy of France in the United States Humanities and Social Sciences (HSS) Chateaubriand Fellowship Program – The HSS fellowship program is offered by the Embassy of France in the U.S. to allow doctoral students in the Humanities and Social Sciences who are enrolled in American universities to conduct research in France for 4 or 8 months. The fellowship provides a monthly stipend of 1,500 Euros, health insurance, and a round-trip ticket to France with welcome package. Last deadline: January 31, annually (call will open October 2014). http://humanities.chateaubriand-fellowship.org/

● The Chateaubriand Fellowship in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) – The Embassy of France in the U.S. also offers a STEM fellowship program to enable doctoral students enrolled in American universities to conduct research in a French laboratory for 4-9 months. Priority is given to candidates working toward a dual Ph.D. degree with their French host institution. All STEM and Health disciplines are eligible. The STEM Fellowship provides fellows with up to 1,400 Euros/month, a round trip ticket to France, and health insurance. Deadline: STEM: January 31, 2015 (call will open October 2014). http://www.france-science.org/chateaubriand

Lady Davis Fellowship Trust Fellowships for Graduate Studies – Post-doctoral Researchers and Doctoral Students from abroad, regardless of nationality, gender or field of scholarship to teach, study and participate in research in Israel at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem and at the Technion Institute of Technology in Haifa. Fellowships are granted initially for one semester or one year with the possibility of extension and include a monthly stipend ranging from $750 to $1,000 and one return ticket. No citizenship or discipline requirement. Deadline: November 30, annually. http://ldft.huji.ac.il/fellowships-information/technion-fellowships/graduate-students

United States-Israel Binational Agricultural Research and Development (BARD) Fund Graduate Student Fellowship Program – BARD Fellowship provides up to $11,000 ($1,500 per month and $2,000 travel) to conduct research in the host laboratory for a period of 3 to 6 months. If accompanied by spouse or child/ren, will pay a one-time $2,000 dependent allowance. Middle East Research and Development Grant (MARD) enables small multinational research groups to jointly prepare a detailed research proposal, funding preliminary research that would strengthen the team’s proposal when applying to the international granting agency. Teams should include representatives from the Palestinian Authority, Jordan, Israel and the U.S. Awards provide up to $50,000 for one year of research and development.

- U.S.–Israel Binational Science Foundation - Prof. Rahamimoff Travel Grants Program for Young Scientists – For U.S. or Israeli citizens 35 years old or younger in environmental and life sciences; international opportunities; medical - basic science; medical - clinical science; medical - translational; social sciences; multidisciplinary; and physical sciences and engineering. Grants of up to $4,000 for trips of two months. In 2013, two calls were made and each supported ten trips. Deadline: December 3, 2014. http://www.bsf.org.il/bsfpublic/DefaultPage1.aspx?PageId=25&innerTextID=25

Longhi Foundation Doctoral Fellowships for the Study of the History of Art – Fellowships of 600 Euros per month (up to 5,400 Euros) are available to support nine months from October-June of research in the history of art at the Longhi Foundation in Florence, mainly concerning Italian painting from the 13th to the 18th centuries. Deadline: May 15, annually. http://www.fondazionelonghi.it/

Medieval Academy of America William Schallek Memorial Graduate Study Fellowship – To support a graduate student in any relevant discipline dealing with late-medieval Britain (ca. 1350-1500) with $30,000 for full-time work on dissertation. Amount covers research and living expenses for the equivalent of an academic year of study. Deadline: October 15, annually (and us.t be a member of MAA by September 15).

North American Conference on British Studies (NACBS) Dissertation-Year Fellowships – Provides a graduate student enrolled in a North American university with a $10,000 stipend to conduct dissertation research in the libraries and archives of the United Kingdom. Two runners-up will receive a $5,000 travel grant. The candidate must need to travel to the British Isles for the purpose of dissertation research, and the awardee must conduct full-time research in the British Isles for an extended stay of at least three-month duration. Travel grant awardees may conduct shorter research trips. Citizens of the U.S. or Canada are eligible and must have completed all the requirements for the Ph.D. degree except for the dissertation. The nomination must be made by the student’s dissertation advisor, who must be a member of the NACBS, supported by one additional letter of recommendation. Last deadline: April 1, 2014. http://www.nacbs.org/prizes/nacbs-dissertation-year-fellowship

American Architectural Foundation (AAF) Sir John Soane’s Museum Foundation Traveling Fellowship – $5,000 traveling fellowship meant to enable graduate students in the history of art, architecture, interior design, and the decorative arts to travel to London to pursue projects related to the work of Sir John Soane or Sir John Soane’s Museum and its collections. Two awards given annually. No citizenship restrictions. Deadline: March 1, annually. http://www.soanefoundation.com/fellowship.html

Institute of Historical Research, University of London School of Advanced Study Mellon Fellowships in the Humanities and Jacobite Studies Trust Fellowship – Fellowships for both pre-dissertation and dissertation research in the humanities using original sources for doctoral degree candidates in a graduate school in the U.S. or Canada. Candidates must already have formal approval for dissertation; grant may not be used for writing up previous work. Pre-Dissertation Fellowship is $5,000; stipend for the Dissertation Fellowship is $25,000. Last deadline: January 17, 2014. The Institute of Historical Research also administers 6-month fellowships on the Stuart dynasty in the British Isles and in exile, from the departure of James II in 1688 to the death of Henry Benedict Stuart in 1807. The Jacobite Studies Trust Fellowship provides a stipend of 7,500 pounds. Last deadline: February 28, 2014.
http://www.history.ac.uk/fellowships/junior

U.S. - Ireland Alliance - George J. Mitchell Scholarships for Study in Ireland – Grants for one year of study in Ireland in arts and humanities; environmental and life sciences; physical sciences and engineering; and social science. Up to 12 awards selected annually. Deadline: October 1, 2014.

National University of Ireland, Galway - Lady Gregory Doctoral Research Fellowships -- Humanities, Social & Behavioural Science, Languages & Literature (Study in Ireland) – Support full-time Ph.D. research within the Structured Ph.D. programmes of the College, in line with the strategic research priorities of the six Schools of the College: Education; Geography and Archaeology; Humanities; Languages, Literatures and Cultures; Political Science and Sociology; and Psychology. Scholarships may thus be awarded across any of the following associated disciplines: Education, Geography, Archaeology, English, Film Studies, History, Irish Studies, Philosophy, Classics, French, Gaeilge, German, Italian, Spanish, Political Science and Sociology, Women’s Studies, Psychology. Applicants are encouraged to affiliate themselves with one of the research institutes associated with the College: the Moore Institute for Research in the Humanities and Social Studies; the Whitaker Institute for Innovation and Societal Change; or the emerging research centre for Social Sciences. Particular research projects may consider the Ryan Institute for Environmental, Marine and Energy Research. Last deadline: April 4, 2014.
http://www.nuigalway.ie/faculties_departments/arts/scholarships.html

International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis (IIASA) Young Scientists Summer Program, Austria – Full funding for summer residential research for students whose interests correspond with IIASA’s research on issues of global environmental, economic and social change. Should be about two years prior to receiving a Ph.D. Participants from 73 countries; usually 6-10 U.S. students chosen. In 2015, program will run from June 1 to August 31. Deadline: January 12, 2015 (opens October 1, 2014).
http://www.iiasa.ac.at/Admin/YSP/reg-info/more_about_the_program.html?sb=3

Austrian Exchange Service – Grants for Ph.D. students, post-docs, and young university lecturers to perform research in Austria in Environmental and Life Sciences; Arts and Humanities; Medical - Basic Science; Physical Sciences and Engineering; and Social Sciences. Deadlines: various: http://www.scholarships.at/

Austrian Government – Various grants for research about or in Austria at: Austrian Database for Scholarships and Research Grants. Deadlines: various. http://www.grants.at/

Belgian American Educational Foundation – $26,000 fellowships for advanced study or research for one academic year at a Belgian University or institution of higher learning in the arts, humanities, environmental and life sciences, and social sciences. Applicants must be United States citizens or permanent residents. Additionally, applicants must be registered in a graduate program towards a Ph.D. or equivalent degree in the U.S. or Belgium or hold a Master’s, Ph.D., or equivalent degree. Preference is given to applicants under the age of 30. Knowledge of Dutch, or French, or German is optional. Health insurance is provided for fellows. Deadline: October 31, 2014.
American Institute of Pakistan Studies (AIPS) Short & Long Term fellowships, Summer Research Grant, and Travel Grants – The AIPS offers several grants available for Ph.D. students. No citizenship restrictions. Non-U.S. applicants must be affiliated with a U.S. academic institution. Last deadlines: January 1, 2014 (long term fellowship); June 5, 2014 (summer research grant); July 1, 2014 (short term fellowship). http://www.pakistanstudies-aips.org/content/fellowships-available and http://www.pakistanstudies-aips.org/

- Long Term Fellowship – Research fellowship for doctoral graduate students lasting 2-9 months in countries other than Pakistan or the U.S. Total fellowship support ranges from $3,000-$25,000. Applicants must be ABD.
- Short Term Fellowship – Fellowship of up to $1,000 per month for 1-5 months of travel in Pakistan. Research must be conducted in Islamabad or Lahore. Applicants must be ABD.
- Summer Research Grant – $3,000 to cover airfare and living expenses. U.S. citizen applicants are required to conduct their research in Islamabad or Lahore. Research must take place during the calendar year that the grant is received (e.g. June 15, 2014-December 31, 2014 for the Summer 2014 Cycle).
- Travel Grant – Provides AIPS members with conference funding of up to $600 for domestic and up to $1,500 for international travel. Requests for funding must be submitted at least two weeks prior to the start of the conference.

Ashburn Institute Mayme and Herb Frank Educational Fund (FEF) Grants – Supports graduate students of strong academic standing who complete a thesis, dissertation, coursework, or an independent project relating to international integration and federalism. Awards generally range from $500-$2,000 and cover only tuition and fees, paid direction to higher education institution. Deadlines: April 1 for fall awards and October 1 for spring awards annually. http://www.ashburninstitute.org/?q=content/scholarships and http://streitcouncil.org/index.php?page=aud-scholarships

Metropolitan Center for Far Eastern Art Studies Grant Program – Dissertation research projects that reflect advanced scholarship and offer new insights into East Asian art. Doctoral students who have completed all the requirements for the Ph.D. except the dissertation and be engaged in field work may apply for a grant. Grants generally cover overseas travel and living expenses and are intended to supplement other support to a maximum (from all sources) of $22,000 for a single student, $27,000 for a couple. Candidates who receive funds in excess of the above are expected to notify and return the surplus. Deadline: December 31, annually. http://www.metcenter-grants.net/doctoral.html

Japan Foundation Japanese Studies Doctoral Fellowship Program – The Japan Foundation is a semi-governmental organization that promotes international cultural exchange and mutual understanding between Japan and other countries. Fellowships support doctoral candidates in the humanities and social sciences, including comparative research projects, to conduct research in Japan for four to 12 months. Citizenship: unrestricted. Deadline: http://www.jfny.org/japanese_studies/fellowship.html

Japan Monbukagakusho (MEXT) Research Student Scholarship – Japanese Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology offers scholarships to foreign students for (1) research study, (2) professional training, (3) teacher training, and (4) Japanese studies. Applicants must be 35 or younger at time of granting. Scholarship is available to graduate level students wishing to conduct specific research projects at Japanese universities in the fields of the Humanities, Social Sciences and Natural Sciences. Monthly stipend awarded ranges from 143,000 to 148,000 yen and scholarships range from 1.5 to two years in duration. The study area must be in the same field as the applicant has studied (or is now studying) or a related one. Applicants must be able to learn the Japanese language. Last deadline: June 4, 2014. http://www.mext.go.jp/a_menu/koutou/ryugaku/boshu/1319066.htm, Hosei University - International Fund Fellowship - Foreign Scholars Fellowship Program – 2-3 fellowships for scholars in the humanities, social or natural sciences, or engineering who wish to carry out non-degree research programs at Hosei University under the direction of and/or in cooperation with Hosei faculty and researchers. Candidates must be presently enrolled in a doctoral degree program, hold a Doctorate or its equivalent as recognized by the University, have sufficient fluency in either Japanese or English, and be no more than 39 years of age as of April 1, 2015. Applicants may apply for 6 or 12 months of funding. Fellowship package includes transportation to and from Japan and a monthly stipend of up to 300,000 Japanese Yen. Last deadline: June 6, 2014.
http://www.hosei.ac.jp/ic/en/research/hif/

Kobe College Corporation (KCC) Japan Education Exchange Graduate Fellowships Program – Fellowships for U.S. citizens enrolled in a graduate program in the U.S. Applicants should have a record of having taught about Japan or show the potential to do so in the future. Preference will be given to applicants with documented interest in Japanese Studies, including Japanese arts, culture, education, language, history, journalism, or business. Students who have not studied or lived in Japan will also be given preference. Applicants must demonstrate research level Japanese language competency. There are no restrictions on the place of study or research in Japan or age of applicant. Two fellowships are restricted to women; and one is open to women and men. Last deadline: December 20, 2013. Fellowship suspended for 2014/2015; check website for 2015/2016 grant cycle.
http://www.kccjee.org/pages/program_pages/gradfellowship.htm

American Oriental Society Louise Wallace Hackney Fellowship for the Study of Chinese Art – For the study of Chinese art, with special relation to painting and its reflection of Chinese culture, and the translation into English of works upon the said subject for the purpose of furthering a better understanding of Chinese painting in the United States. $8,000 stipend for 12 months. Applicants should have completed three years study in the Chinese language or its equivalent. Citizenship: U.S. Deadline: March 1, annually.
http://www.umich.edu/~aos/hackney.htm

Walter O. Spofford, Jr. Memorial Internship Involving Chinese Environmental Issues at Resources for the Future, Washington D.C. – Summer internship at Resources for the Future for graduate students with a special interest in Chinese environmental issues. Students should be in their first or second year of graduate training in the social or natural sciences. Chinese students are particularly encouraged to apply. $375/week. Last deadline: February 21, 2014.
http://www.rff.org/About_RFF/Pages/WalterOSpoffordJrMemorialInternshipProgram.aspx

Center for Chinese Studies (CSCS) (Taiwan) Research Grant to Assist Foreign Scholars in Chinese Studies – For three to 12 months of support for research in Chinese and Taiwan studies in Taiwan. A direct round-trip ticket between the domicile of grant recipients and Taipei is available; recipients are granted monthly stipends of NT$25,000, as well as assistance with research expenses, research materials, liaisons with universities and research institutions, and use of CCS facilities. Deadline: May 31, annually.

● Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) Taiwan Fellowship – Established in 2010 by MOFA, the Taiwan Fellowship supports doctoral students in conducting advanced research at universities or academic institutions in Taiwan. Scholars work in the social sciences and humanities, with topics related to Taiwan, cross-strait relations, mainland China, the Asia-Pacific region, Sinology, and/or Chinese studies.
Research may last from 3 months to one year, with a monthly stipend of NT$50,000. Last deadline: July 15, 2014 (extended from May 1). http://taiwanfellowship.ncl.edu.tw/eng/

- Ministry of Education (MOE) Short Term Research Award – This award seeks to encourage international scholars to undertake 2-6 months of short-term research activities in Taiwan in order to promote mutual understanding and academic cooperation between Taiwan and the international community. The award provides Ph.D. students with a monthly stipend of NT$25,000 (approximately U.S. $830) and airfare to and from Taiwan. Applicants should be ABD (all but dissertation), focused on one of the following subject areas: Taiwanese humanities, social science, culture, art, and related comparative research. Deadline: September 30 each year for the following year’s project (subject to change). http://tafs.mofa.gov.tw/SchDetailed.aspx?loc=en&Itemid=19

Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation "Doctoral Fellowships" and "Dissertation Fellowships for Republic of China Students Abroad" – These programs support research in Chinese studies in the humanities and social science. (See websites below for details.) Maximum stipend is $18,000. Citizenship for Doctoral Fellowships is unrestricted; must be enrolled in an accredited institution in the U.S., Canada, or Latin America. Citizens of the ROC should apply for Dissertation Fellowships for ROC Students Abroad. Deadline: October 15, annually. http://www.cckf.org.tw/eamericaDD.htm and http://www.cckf.org/eamericaDF.htm

Korea Foundation Fellowships for Field Research, Korean Language Training, and Graduate Studies – One-to-12-month fellowships for around 30 professors and researchers, as well as approximately 150 awards to graduate students who are conducting research related to Korea; not for study in natural sciences, medicine, or engineering. (The Foundation is an independent institution affiliated with the Korean Ministry of Foreign Relations.) Deadline: set based on the region of the program you apply. Check the program schedule on the website below. Deadline for U.S. applicants: August 31, 2014. [http://en kf.or.kr/?menuno=545](http://en kf.or.kr/?menuno=545) and https://apply.kf.or.kr/main.nkf?lang=en U.S.

Scobie Memorial Travel Grant in Latin American Studies – Up to $1,500 for exploratory pre-dissertation research of four-12 weeks on a topic in Latin American history. Last deadline: April 8, 2014. http://clah.h-net.org/?page_id=135

Whitaker International Fellows and Scholars Program for Biomedical Engineers – Awards for 9-12 months for U.S. citizens or permanent resident scholars in environmental and life sciences; medical - basic science; and physical sciences and engineering. Additionally, summer grants are available to U.S. bioengineers and biomedical engineers who wish to continue their work abroad. Grants provide roundtrip travel, living stipend, health and accident insurance, and fixed-amount fellowship award. Deadlines: January 20, 2015 (Fellow application); February 3, 2015 (Summer application). http://www.whitaker.org/
Howard Hughes Medical Institute - International Student Research Fellowships (for Doctoral Students) – Supports outstanding international pre-doctoral students studying in the United States who are ineligible for fellowships or training grants through U.S. federal agencies. Participation is by invitation only. HHMI will award three-year fellowships to international students to support years three, four, and five of a Ph.D. program ($43,000 annually). Eligible biomedical-related fields include biology, chemistry, physics, math, computer science, engineering, and plant biology—as well as interdisciplinary research. Last deadline: February 6, 2014. http://www.hhmi.org/programs/international-student-research-fellowships

American Philosophical Society (APS)

● APS Library Resident Research Fellowships – Applicants must demonstrate a need to work in the Society's library collections. The stipend is $2,500 per month for 1-3 months. Applicant must normally reside more than 75 miles from Philadelphia. Citizenship: unrestricted. Deadline: March 2, 2015, notification in May. http://www.amphilsoc.org/grants/resident

● APS Lewis and Clark Fund for Exploration and Field Research – Applicants must be in fields that require direct observation in field study, such as Anthropology, Archaeology, Biological Sciences, Ecology, Geography, Geology, Linguistics or Philology, and Paleontology. Grants, for research anywhere in the world, range from several hundred dollars to $5,000 for travel and research expenses. Deadline: application February 2, 2015, but letters of support by January 30. http://www.amphilsoc.org/grants/lewisandclark

The Explorers Club Exploration Fund Grant – Provides graduate, post-graduate, doctorate and early career students with grants in support of exploration and field research. Awards range from $500-$5,000 (average award is approximately $2,500). Candidates are considered from a wide variety of disciplines including the natural sciences, anthropology, archaeology, animal studies, and conservation science. Deadline: Check website beginning in late August. http://www.explorers.org/index.php/expeditions/funding/expedition_grants

The Getty Research Institute Predoctoral Residential Grants – For work on projects related to the Getty Research Institute's annual theme; the 2014-15 theme was Object – Value – Canon. Getty Predoctoral Fellows are in residence in Los Angeles for nine months from mid-September to mid-June and receive a stipend of $25,000. Citizenship: unrestricted. Deadlines: November 1, annually (check website in Fall 2014). http://www.getty.edu/foundation/initiatives/residential/getty_pre_postdoctoral_fellowships.html See also Mellon-Mays Undergraduate Dissertation Grant above.

American Musico logical Society

Review of African Political Economy Small Grants for African scholars/activists – The small grant competition offers four small research grants, each up to £3000, for African scholars/activists based in Africa and pursuing a political economy agenda. Eligible: nationals of an African country or residence in an African country. African scholars who are based outside Africa will not be considered. Last deadline: July 31, 2013. There will be no grant competition in 2014, but there may be a call for proposals in 2015. For inquiries about the competition, write roape@sheffield.ac.uk.
http://www.pambazuka.org/en/category/announce/88202

Ruth Simms Hamilton Research Fellowship – Approximately $35,000 awarded to graduate students at an accredited public or private university enrolled in a social science field for research relating to the African Diaspora. The fellowship, administered by the TIAA-CREF Institute, is in memory of Professor Hamilton who was a Professor of Sociology at Michigan State University and served on the Board of TIAA-CREF. Funds may be used to support research, conference presentations, data collection, or dissertation write-up. No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: December 10, 2013.
http://grad.msu.edu/fellowships/TIAACREF.aspx

University of Rochester Frederick Douglass Institute Predoctoral Fellowship Program – Sponsored by the Frederick Douglass Institute for African and African-American Studies, this fellowship provides $26,000 and additional research funds to a graduate student from any university whose degree contributes to the scholarship in the field of African and African-American Studies. Fellows must be in full-time residence during the tenure of their awards. No citizenship restrictions. Applicants must have completed all required courses, qualifying exams, and at least one chapter of the dissertation before the fellowship begins. Last deadline: December 31, 2014 (2015 cycle opens September 1, 2014).
http://www.rochester.edu/college/aas/grad_programs/fellowships.html

Boston College African and African Diaspora Studies Program (AADS) Dissertation Fellowship – For scholars working in any discipline in the humanities or social sciences with projects focusing on any topic within African and/or African Diaspora Studies, preferably on comparative projects in dialogue with critical issues and trends within the field. $30,060 stipend plus $1,500 research budget. Must be in residence for nine-month academic year and teach one course. Last deadline: January 31, 2014.
http://www.bc.edu/schools/cas/aads/resources/dissfellowship.html

Marilyn Yarbrough Dissertation/Teaching Fellowship – Provides $32,500 stipend plus health benefits, housing, and a small moving allowance and some conference travel for residence at Kenyon College for scholars in the final stages of their doctoral work who need only to finish the dissertation to complete requirements for the Ph.D. Fellowships have been awarded in African and African American Studies, American Studies, Anthropology, Art History, Asian Studies, Biology, English, History, Math, Modern Languages and Literatures (Spanish), Music, Religious Studies, Sociology, Women's and Gender Studies. Last deadline: December 15, 2013.
http://www.kenyon.edu/x27112.xml

Dumbarton Oaks Junior Fellowships, Graduate Digital Humanities Fellowship, Summer Fellowships, and Short-term Pre-doctoral Residencies – Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collection, located in Washington, DC, offers residential fellowships for doctoral students interested in Byzantine, Garden and Landscape, and Pre-Columbian studies. Junior and Digital Humanities Fellowships are one-year fellowships ($27,000-$47,000, including a stipend of $15,500-$28,000 as well as moving costs and housing) intended for degree candidates who have fulfilled all preliminary requirements for the Ph.D. by the time of application. Short-term residencies are offered for advanced graduate students preparing for their exams, conducting research, or writing their dissertations. Students in need of access to fieldwork and photo collections, the Rare Book Room, or Museum objects are particularly encouraged to apply. Residency provides 2-4 weeks of free accommodation and free lunches on weekdays, as well as a Reader badge for access to the library. Seven-to-nine week summer fellowships also are available to scholars at all stages of their career, providing an allowance of $250 per week, housing, and travel reimbursement. Deadline: November 1, 2014 (Junior Fellowship), July 18 (Digital Humanities Fellowship). http://www.doaks.org/research/fellowships-and-grants/

PEO International Peace Scholarship Fund and Scholar Awards – Scholarships for international female students studying in the U.S. and Canada (Peace Scholarship) and American and Canadian women pursuing a doctoral degree at an accredited college or university (Scholar Award). Scholar Award provides up to $15,000 to women who are within two years of completing doctoral level degrees. Applicants for the Scholar Award must be nominated by local PEO chapters. Peace scholarship provides up to $10,000 to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Deadlines: November 20 (Scholar Award) and March 1, 2015 (Peace Scholarship). http://www.peointernational.org/peo-projectsphilanthropies

Rotary Foundation Scholarships – The Foundation is piloting District Grants and Global Grants, which may include scholarships, to be offered by individual Rotary clubs. The Foundation also offers the Rotary Peace Fellowship Professional Development Certificate, for professionals with extensive experience in peace-related fields. The 3-month program in peace and conflict resolution takes place at Chulalongkorn University in Bangkok, Thailand, and includes 2-3 weeks of field study. (The Ambassadorial scholarship program has been terminated.) Deadlines: vary, district and global grants accepted throughout the year; peace fellowship applications accepted March-July (check local Rotary club for details). https://www.rotary.org/myrotary/en/take-action/apply-grants and https://www.rotary.org/en/peace-fellowships

Sustainability Science Program Fellowships at Center for International Development, Harvard University – Residential fellowships (semester, 10 months, or year), 12-month stipend of $55,000 for post-doctoral fellows, $28,000 for doctoral fellows, and a negotiated amount for mid-career fellows depending on their citizenship, current salary, current employment location, seniority, and other sources of support ($35,000 maximum). The awards aim to promote sustainable development. Last deadline: January 15, 2014. http://www.hks.harvard.edu/centers/mrcbg/programs/sustsci/grants-fellowships/fellows/fellowships-in-sustainability-science

British Petroleum - Future Conservationist Awards – Awards of up to $15,000 to high potential teams who aim to develop their skills through practical conservation projects lasting from three months to one year. Projects must take place in countries not defined as “high income economies” by the World Bank and focus on globally important species or sites for biodiversity conservation that are under threat. Each team must have at least three people and at least 50% of team members must be from the country where the project is taking place. No team member should have more than five years of paid work experience in the conservation sector. Deadline: Next call for applications will be early October 2014. (Last deadline: November 11, 2013.) http://www.conservationleadershipprogramme.org/FutureConservationistAward.asp

Bioversity International - Vavilov-Frankel Fellowships (for Scientists from Developing Countries) – Grants for nationals of low- and medium-income countries, aged 35 or under, holding at least a master's degree (or equivalent) in a relevant subject area. Two fellowships are available to encourage the conservation and use of plant genetic resources by enabling outstanding young scientists to carry out innovative research outside their own countries for 3-12 months (up to $20,000) on a range of biophysical, economic, and social themes related to the conservation and use of plant genetic resources in developing countries. Last deadline: December 15, 2013.

Kleinhans Fellowship for Research in Tropical Non-Timber Forest Products – Grants once every two years for $15,000 per year for two years only for Latin America. Applications for projects conducted in the Petén region of Guatemala or Southern Mexico are especially encouraged. Applications for any tropical forest type in Latin America are eligible. The successful applicant will have or be pursuing a master’s degree in forestry, ecology, botany, environmental science or an appropriate related field. Doctoral candidates or post-doctoral researchers are preferred. There are no citizenship requirements. Last deadline: December 31, 2012. (New application guidelines will be updated soon.)

Smithsonian Tropical Research Institute (STRI) Short-Term Fellowships – Three-month fellowships at STRI in Panama to conduct tropical research. Must work with STRI researcher to develop proposal. Focused on graduate students; occasionally funds undergraduates and postdoctoral researchers. Includes stipend of $800/month, research funds not to exceed $2,000, and airfare. The Ernst Mayr Fellowship is awarded to an outstanding Short-Term Fellowship candidate every year. Deadlines: January 15, April 15, July 15 and October 15, annually.

The American Australian Association Australia to U.S.A. Fellowship and U.S.A. to Australia Fellowship – Provides up to $40,000 to Australian citizens and permanent residents for advanced study in the U.S. or AU$40,000 ($31,800 U.S.) to U.S. citizens and permanent residents for study in Australia. For research in business, engineering, geosciences, mathematics, medicine, neurology, pediatrics, sciences, sustainability, and technology. Deadline: April 15, annually *(Australia to U.S.); October 15, annually (U.S. to Australia).

Australian Endeavour Research Fellowships – Provide up to Aus $24,500 for non-Australian graduate students and postdoctoral researchers for 4-6 months of comparative or collaborative research in Australia as part of a current postgraduate or postdoctoral research program. It also assists recipients build international professional links and institutional collaborations. Deadline: June 30, annually (next round expected to open in April 2015).

The Compton Foundation offers a variety of grants throughout the year for international and domestic research. The organization funds projects that explore the connections between its issue areas. See website for more details. Deadlines: various.
http://www.comptonfoundation.org/what-we-support/

International Program Fellowships: The Population Reference Bureau (PRB), through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Agency for International Development (U.S.AID), sponsors fellowships for one or two years. PRB recruits in the spring to fill positions starting in the summer. Currently, PRB is supporting one Fellow who works at U.S.AID for the Office of Population and Reproductive Health within the Global Health Bureau. This position is contingent upon availability of funding. Last deadline: February 25, 2013. Visit website for more information: http://www.prb.org/.
Society for Scientific Study of Sexuality (SSSS) Student Research Grants – Awarded for doctoral or thesis research on human sexuality. Two $1,000 grants awarded. Deadline: February 1 and June 1, annually. http://www.sexscience.org/honors/student_research_grants/

Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues (SPSSI) Applied Social Issues Internship – Open to Ph.D. dissertations in psychology, a social science with psychological subject matter, or related fields. Internship grants range from $300-$2,500 to cover research costs, community organizing and, in unusual cases, a stipend. Deadline: April 25, annually. http://www.spssi.org/index.cfm?fuseaction=page.viewpage&pageid=637

Doris Duke Fellowship for the Promotion of Child Well-being – Provides an annual stipend of $25,000 for up to two years to support the completion of dissertation and related research on topics of child well-being and the prevention of child maltreatment. Fellows are guided by an academic mentor, whom they select; they also identify a policy or practice mentor to assist them in better understanding how to frame their research questions with an eye toward maximizing policy and practice relevance. Up to 15 fellowships are awarded annually. Applicants must be advanced to candidacy and must be citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. Deadline: December 15, annually. http://www.chapinhall.org/fellowships/doris-duke-fellowships

The International Research Foundation for English Language Education (TIRF) Doctoral Dissertation Grant – Up to $5,000 to graduate students who have advanced to candidacy. Applicants should either attend universities in developing countries or demonstrate that their work has the potential for positive impact in developing nations. No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: May 16, 2014. http://www.tirfonline.org/research-grants/doctoral-dissertation-grants/

National Council for Research on Women Mariam K. Chamberlain Dissertation Award – Annual award of $8,500 granted to a first-generation college graduate working on a dissertation under close supervision of a senior dissertation advisor, who will receive $1,500 for continued mentorship. Dissertation must be related to Re:Gender’s mission to end gender inequity, as well as its annual theme and three program focus areas, and recipient must be ABD by the time the award begins. No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: March 10, 2014. Next deadline will be February/March 2015. http://www.regender.org/index.php?q=MKCAwardInfo

International Foundation for Electoral Systems (IFES) Charles and Kathleen Manatt Democracy Studies Fellowship Program – $5,000 award and 4-6 week research residency at IFES in Washington, D.C. Applicants must be a U.S. or international student studying at a U.S. university in the Midwest (see website for complete list of states). Applicants should be pursuing degrees in international relations, political science, public administration, or related areas. Last deadline: March 30, 2014 (4-6 week residency to be carried out anytime between April 1 and December 1, 2014). http://www.ifes.org/Research/Nav/Fellowships/Manatt-Fellowship.aspx
Horowitz Foundation for Social Policy – Provides approximately 15 grants annually in the amount of $7,500 per grant – $5,000 initially and an additional $2,500 upon receipt of a final report or copy of the research product. Preference will be given to projects that deal with contemporary issues in the social sciences and issues of policy relevance. No citizenship restrictions. Deadline: January 31, 2015. http://www.horowitz-foundation.org/grant-info.html

Humane Studies Fellowship – The Institute for Humane Studies (IHS) at George Mason University provides up to $15,000 for one year of graduate study. Applicants should clearly demonstrate their research interest in the intellectual and institutional foundations of a free society. No citizenship restrictions. Other IHS grants include the Hayek Fund for Scholars, Summer Graduate Research Fellowships, and Young Scholars Research Assistantship (up to $3,000 for 8-12 weeks of pre-dissertation research; open to first and second year doctoral students). Last deadlines: January 31, 2014 (Fellowship); April 16, 2014 (Young Scholars Research Assistantship). https://www.theihs.org/humane-studies-fellowships and https://www.theihs.org/research-assistantship

Organization of American States (OAS) Regular Program for Academic Scholarships (Graduate) – Up to $30,000 per academic year to undertake graduate study or graduate research in the Americas. Scholarships are awarded for a maximum of two academic years, and candidates must return to reside in the sponsoring country for a period of no less than two years after completing the program of study covered by the scholarship. Recipients must be citizens or permanent residents of an OAS member state. Last deadline: April 11, 2014. http://www.oas.org/en/scholarships/regular_program.asp

Inter American Press Association Scholarship Program – Provides up to $20,000 for an academic year in a Latin American or Caribbean country. Applicants must be natives of countries in the Western Hemisphere; journalists or students in their final year of a journalism degree; and between 21 and 35 years old. Deadline: January 2015 (competition opens October 2014). http://www.sipiapa.org/en/service/scholarships

The Earthwatch Institute Emerging Scientists Grants – Provides small grants and volunteer opportunities to established and emerging scientists engaging in field research. Supports practical field experience and scientific training opportunities for underfunded and/or underrepresented conservationists. http://earthwatch.org/scientific-research/scientist-opportunities/working-with-earthwatch and http://earthwatch.org/scientific-research/scientist-opportunities/emerging-scientists

C. Lowell Harriss Dissertation Fellowship Program – $10,000 to assist Ph.D. students at the dissertation-writing stage of their doctoral studies. Applicants’ research should complement the Lincoln Institute’s interests in land and tax policy. Fellowship programs also are available for masters and doctoral students enrolled at universities in Latin America and in the People’s Republic of China. No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: February 1, 2014 midnight EST. http://www.lincolninst.edu/education/fellowships.asp#grad

Jacobs Research Funds – Funds anthropological and linguistic research on Native American (First Nations) peoples, with priority given to research on endangered cultures and languages and research on the Pacific Northwest. Research on other areas in Canada, the continental United States, Alaska, Mexico, Central America, and South America will be funded if possible. Individual grants offer up to $3,000 and Kinkade Grants provide up to $9,000 for projects requiring an intense period of fieldwork. Deadline: February 15, annually. http://depts.washington.edu/jacobsf/
Environmental Research and Education Foundation Scholarship Program – Up to $12,000 annually, paid monthly, to doctoral students with a clearly demonstrated interest in solid waste management research. Fellowship can be extended for up to three years from the initial award date. Masters students can be awarded up to $5,000 per year and extended for up to two years. No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: April 18, 2014 (application cycle opened February 7, 2014). http://erefdn.org/index.php/scholarships/index

III. B. (2) Funding Programs for Foreign Language Study for Field Research

Foreign Language and International Studies (FLAS) Fellowships at MSU – MSU Centers for African Studies (http://africa.isp.msu.edu/flas/academic-year/), Asian Studies (http://asia.isp.msu.edu/resources/flas.htm), Center for Advanced Studies of International Development (http://casid.isp.msu.edu/academic/fellowships.htm) with the Gender Center (http://gencen.isp.msu.edu/funding/flas.htm and http://gencen.isp.msu.edu/) offer Title VI FLAS fellowships, both Academic Year and Summer Intensive for study of foreign languages. Awards provide tuition, fees, and a stipend of $15,000 for the academic year and up to $7,500 for summer intensive language fellowships. Contact individual centers for application details. Last deadlines: January 24, 2014 (African Studies Center); January 27, 2014 (CASID/GenCen); February 14, 2014 (Asian Studies Center)

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships for Advanced Study of Asian Languages – Grants for individuals pursuing professional, academic, or business careers that involve the regular use of an East or Southeast Asian language, including Japanese, Chinese, Korean, Thai, Vietnamese, Indonesian, Khmer, and Burmese. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents at or near advanced level in the specified language. The grants fund an academic year of full-time, intensive advanced language study at an institution in Asia (not for part-time study or research). Where there is no structured advanced-level language program at an educational institution in the country, the grant may provide for the financing of private tutorials under certain terms. Deadline: December 30, 2014. http://www.blakemorefoundation.org/Language%20Grants/Language.htm

Critical Language Scholarship Program – Intensive Summer Institutes in Arabic, Azerbaijani, Bangla/Bengali, Chinese, Hindi, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Persian, Punjabi, Russian, Turkish, and Urdu. Institutes have recently been held in Azerbaijan, Bangladesh, China, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Japan, Jordan, Morocco, Oman, Russia, South Korea, Tajikistan, Tunisia, and Turkey. Must be U.S. citizen and currently in an undergraduate or graduate degree-granting program. Funded by the Department of State and administered by the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC). All CLS Program costs are covered, including travel, orientation, room and board, entrance fees, and academic credit. Applications for Summer 2015 will be available in mid-to-late September 2014. Expected deadline: November 2014. http://clscholarship.org/

African Languages Initiative (AFLI): Domestic Intensive Summer Program – The most recent AFLI summer program was held at the University of Florida during Summer 2014 and will be offered again in summer 2015. The program offered courses in Akan/Twi, French, Hausa, Swahili, Wolof, Yoruba, and Zulu and ran from June 11 to August 1, 2014. Last deadline: April 30, 2014. The program and the U. of Florida fellowships have been funded by the Defense Intelligence Agency’s National Security Education Programs (Boren and NSEP Flagships programs). www.africa.wisc.edu/?page_id=24 and http://africa.ufl.edu/african-languages/afl/South Asian Summer Language Institute (SASLI) – Offering intensive study of eight South Asian languages at the University of Wisconsin-Madison for approximately eight weeks each summer (8 credits earned). Students may only register for one language per summer. Languages offered in Summer 2014: Bengali, Hindi, Pashto, Sanskrit, Sinhala, Tamil, Tibetan, and Urdu at the elementary and intermediate levels. Some intermediate level courses may be cancelled. SASLI Scholarship: All SASLI students are eligible to apply for ROTC Project GO Funding, Fee Remission (up to $1,000 of a half/full fee remission), and the FLAS fellowship. Last Deadlines: FLAS: February 15, 2014; Fee Remission: March 15, 2014; SASLI Program: April 1, 2014. http://sasli.wisc.edu/courses.html and http://sasli.wisc.edu/

Southeast Asian Studies Summer Institute (SEASSI) – An eight-week intensive language-learning institute at University of Wisconsin-Madison at three levels of Burmese, Filipino, Hmong, Indonesian, Khmer, Lao, Thai, and Vietnamese. Each course is equivalent to two semesters of study with full academic year credit. Heritage Language Award provides students with tuition and a modest living stipend; FLAS Fellowship provides tuition and a $2,500 summer living stipend. Tuition Scholarship provides partial tuition scholarships that reduce tuition costs to a range of $2,000-$2,500. Last deadline for Heritage Language Award and FLAS: February 14, 2014. Last deadline for tuition scholarship and general application: April 1, 2014. http://seassi.wisc.edu/

Intensive Nepali at Cornell University – Six credits of summer study at Cornell University for beginning and continuing students. A small number of Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) fellowships are available. Program lasts six weeks (e.g. June 9-July 18) and class meets five days a week. The program offers between 20-23 contact hours per week, and fellows are expected to spend between 4-5 hours daily doing homework and preparing for class activities. Last deadline: February 3, 2014 for applications who request financial aid. http://lrc.cornell.edu/asiann/programs/summer/nepali

Center for Arabic Study Abroad (CASA) CASA Fellowship – The program for graduate and undergraduate students in Cairo (moved to Jordan in 2013-2015) is a three-semester, 12-month intensive Arabic language and culture program that includes components focusing on the study of Colloquial and Modern Standard Arabic. Michigan State University students are eligible for roundtrip airfare to/from Cairo, Egypt, tuition for all courses, monthly stipend of $500-$550 U.S.D to help meet living expenses, plus 1,200 LE per year for excursions with ALI. Fellows must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Fellows and also must pass the CASA Selection exam, which Usually requires a minimum of 3-4 years of college-level language study. Last deadline: January 6, 2014. http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/casa/forms/forms.php

Gerda Henkel Foundation Scholarships – Grants for scholars of all disciplines in the arts, humanities, and social sciences, primarily focused on the historical humanities, both inside and outside Germany. Scholarships also are available for two Special Programmes: “Islam, the Modern Nation State, and Transnational Movements” and “Security, Society, and the State” – Types of funding mainly include grants for research scholarships and research projects, and also conferences and workshops. Research grants are awarded only if connected to a research project developed by a university or research institute. Ph.D. scholarships are provided to individual doctoral students who have or will earn their Master’s degree by the age of 28. Support includes up to two years of study with a monthly stipend of 1,400 Euros. Child support, travel aid, and material aid are available as required. Support is primarily provided for students in archaeology, art history, historical Islamic studies, history, history of law, history of science, and prehistory/early history. Deadline: December 5, 2014 (Special Programme in Security); May 29, 2015 (Special Programme Islam). http://www.gerda-henkel-stiftung.de/phd-scholarships and http://www.gerda-henkel-stiftung.de/spsss_eng
Arabic Language Study Programs in the U.S. and Middle East – See many programs listed at http://www.lsa.umich.edu/summer/summerprograms/summerlanguageinstitute and http://www.lsa.umich.edu/neareast/babtainprogram/courses. See also the University of Michigan Center for Middle Eastern and North African Studies blog for additon grants, fellowships, and postdoctoral opportunities: www.cmenasu-m.blogspot.com.

III. B. (3) Funding Opportunities in Many Disciplines (mostly outside the Humanities and Social Sciences) that may support International Research

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Science to Achieve Results (STAR) Fellowships for Graduate Environmental Study – For masters and doctoral students in environmental fields. Potential funding: $42,000 per year ($25,000 stipend for 12 months and tuition and fees up to $12,000 per year) for up to three years. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Last Deadline: May 1, 2013. http://www.epa.gov/ncer/rfa/2013/2013_star_gradfellow.html

World Wildlife Fund - Kathryn Fuller Doctoral Fellowships – Supporting links of doctoral research to WWF’s global conservation efforts for Ph.D. students working on issues of exceptional importance and relevance to conservation in one of the WWF-U.S. priority places, providing $15,000 to $20,000 for research expenses for up to two years. Last deadline: January 31, 2010. http://worldwildlife.org/initiatives/fuller-science-for-nature-fund

National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Dr. Nancy Foster Scholarship Program – For students enrolled or about to enroll to do Master’s and Ph.D. research in oceanography, marine biology, or maritime archaeology. Particularly intended for women and minorities. Yearly support of up to $42,000 per student (12-month stipend of $30,000 in addition to an education allowance of up to $12,000) and up to $10,000 of support for a 4-6 week program collaboration at a NOAA facility. Masters students may be supported for up to two years and doctoral students for up to four years. Approximately 3-4 awards annually. Last deadline: December 12, 2013 (2015 cycle will open in October and close in December 2014). http://fosterscholars.noaa.gov/

NASA [Harriett] Jenkins Pre-doctoral Fellowship – For women, minorities, and persons with disabilities studying NASA-related areas, including earth science and other STEM disciplines. Open to students in first three years of graduate program or currently applying. Up to three years of support. $24,000 year for PhD fellows ($18,000 for Master fellows) plus $8,500 tuition offset. Fellowship also includes a 10-week, hands-on research experience at a NASA Center or the Jet Propulsion Laboratory. Applicants must be U.S. citizens. Last deadline: March 15, 2014. http://www.nasa.gov/offices/education/programs/descriptions/Jenkins_Predoctoral_Fellowship_Project.html

NASA Earth and Space Science Fellowship (NESSF) Program – Funds approximately 75 Master's and PhD students in Earth sciences, Heliophysics, Planetary Science, and Astrophysics. Funds diverse biophysical and social science areas that must be relevant to NASA research. One to three years of support of up to $30,000 per year. Last deadlines: February 10, 2014 (new applications); March 17, 2014 (renewal applications). Deadlines in early February each year.

Amelia Earhart Fellowship – Provides $10,000 to approximately 35 women pursuing doctoral degrees in aerospace-related sciences or aerospace-related engineering. Grants may be used at any university or college offering accredited post-graduate courses and degrees in these fields. Women of all nationalities are encouraged to apply. Last deadline: November 15, 2014.

http://www.zonta.org/WhatWeDo/InternationalPrograms/AmeliaEarhartFellowship.aspx

Google Research Awards Program provides up to $150,000 to support faculty and their graduate students for one year (actual amounts generally fall between $40-70,000). Broad research areas include Economics and market algorithms; Geo/maps, Human-computer interaction; Information retrieval, extraction, and organization; Machine learning and data mining; Machine perception; Machine translation; Mobile; Natural language processing; Networking; Policy and standards; Privacy; Security; Social networks; Software engineering; Speech; Structured data and database management; and Systems (hardware and software). Graduate students are also eligible for the Google U.S./Canada Ph.D. Fellowship Program a two-year program that provides tuition and fees, $33,000 stipend, and a Google research mentor. Students must be nominated by their department. Deadlines: October 15 (2015 cycle will open October 1) and April 15.

http://research.google.com/university/relations/research_awards.html and http://research.google.com/university/relations/phd_fellowships.html

Society of Women Engineers (SWE) – SWE offers scholarships to women pursuing ABET-accredited graduate programs in preparation for careers in engineering, engineering technology, and computer science in the U.S. and Mexico. Applicants complete one application and are considered for all scholarships for which they are eligible. Scholarships range from $1,000-$10,000. To apply, students must be female, attending a graduate program full-time, and not fully funded for tuition, fees, books, and equivalent. Last deadline: December 1, 2013-February 17, 2014.

http://societyofwomenengineers.swe.org/index.php/scholarships#activePanels_

TDR (The Special Programme for Research and Training in Tropical Diseases) – TDR, a collaboration between the World Health organization, UN Children’s Fund, UN Development Programme, and the World Bank, seeks to conduct research on infectious diseases of poverty. TDR funds specific research projects in diseases of poverty, including infectious diseases and the culture and environment that contribute to these problems. There are several calls for grants throughout the year. Deadline: varies by grant.

http://www.who.int/tdr/grants/en/

Schlumberger Foundation - Faculty for the Future Fellowships – Women from Emerging Economies in Physical Sciences – Fellowships to women from developing and emerging economies to pursue Ph.D. or post-doctoral studies in the physical sciences, engineering and technology at leading universities abroad. Fellowships provide up to $50,000 per year and may be renewed through to completion of studies. The applications website will open in September 2014. Deadlines: November 14, 2014 (new applications) and November 7, 2014 (renewal applications). http://wwwfacultyforthefuture.net/

Smithsonian Institute Fellowship Program – Fifty awards annually for research in multiple fields at the Smithsonian Institution by graduate students at any stage. Fellowships are awarded annually to scholars wishing to conduct independent study or research at one or more of the Smithsonian’s 19 units and research centers. Graduate students who have not yet advanced to candidacy are invited to apply for 10 week Graduate Student Fellowships; advanced (ABD) graduate students are invited to apply for Predoctoral Student Fellowships that range from 3-12 months; $6,500 to Graduate Student fellows, $30,000 to Predoctoral Fellows and $45,000 to Postdoctoral and Senior Fellows. Maximum research allowance: $4,000. No citizenship restrictions. Deadline: January 15, annually (2015 grant cycle opens September 2, 2014). http://www.smithsonianofi.com/fellowship-opportunities/smithsonian-institution-fellowship-program/

PADI Foundation Water-Related Projects – Supports “underwater science, environmental projects, and education...that [enrich] mankind’s understanding of the aquatic environment and encourage sensitivity to and protection of the delicate ecological balance of underwater life.” On average, $5,000-$10,000 (and up to $20,000). About 40 awards annually. In 2014, $278,950 was awarded to 55 projects. Deadline: February 1, 2015 (2015 grant cycle opens November 1, 2014) http://www.padifoundation.org/ and http://www.padifoundation.org/Hyperlinks/Application.htm

UNCF Merck Graduate Science Research Dissertation Fellowship – Fellowship intended to support African American graduate students as they complete coursework, conduct research, and prepare the dissertation required for the doctoral degree in the biomedically relevant life or physical sciences. Applicants must be within 1-3 years of completing dissertation research and must have successfully completed all qualifying exams by September 1, 2015. At least 12 fellowships of up to $53,500 for 12-24 months. The Fellow must be African American and a U.S citizen/ permanent resident of the United States. Last deadline: December 13, 2013. http://umsi.uncf.org/sif. For additional UNCF scholarships and fellowships: https://scholarships.uncf.org/

Resources for the Future Joseph L. Fisher Dissertation Awards – Support of $18,000 for doctoral dissertation research on the environment, natural resources, or energy, primarily in economics and other social sciences, and secondarily in the physical or biological sciences. Must have an immediate and obvious link to environmental policy matters. Applicants must be ABD and in their final year of dissertation research. Last deadline: February 21, 2014. www.rff.org/rff/About/Fellowships_and_Internships/Fisher/Joseph-L-Fisher-Doctoral-Dissertation-Fellowships.cfm

Link Foundation – Three fellowship programs: 1) Energy program: 2-year fellowships of $28,000/year for students working toward a Ph.D. degree. (Deadline: December 1, annually) http://www.linkenergy.org/; 2) Fellowship in Advanced Simulation and Training: Five one-year fellowships with each grant totaling $27,000 (Deadline: January 15, annually)
Fellowship in Ocean Engineering and Instrumentation: Several $27,000 predoctoral research fellowships for one year of study and research, open to candidates currently enrolled in academic institutions in either the United States or Canada. (Last deadline: January 11, 2014) http://coe.fit.edu/dmes/link/ and http://www.linkoe.org/

Fannie and John Hertz Foundation Graduate Fellowships – Open to U.S. citizens in the applied and physical sciences who have a record of high scholastic performance. Provides three fellowship options: (1) $32,000, 9-month personal stipend and tuition, renewable up to 5 years; (2) $38,000, 9-month personal stipend and tuition renewable for one additional year; and (3) $6,000 annually for up to three years available to awardees with funding from another source. Application opens August 15, 2014. Deadline: October 31, 2014. http://www.hertzfoundation.org/dx/fellowships/fellowshipaward.aspx

Scholarship from International Association for Great Lakes Research (IAGLR) – Awards two $2,000 scholarships and one-year IAGLR memberships for doctoral students whose dissertation research is likely to make a significant contribution to the understanding of large lakes. Deadline: March 1, annually. http://www.iaglr.org/as/iaglrschol.php and http://iaglr.org/scholarships/iaglr-scholarship/iaglrapp

ThinkSwiss Research Scholarship, Swiss Government – For undergraduates and graduate students at any stage, in all fields to do research at public universities and institutes in Switzerland for two to three months. Award is approximately $1,000 per month. ThinkSwiss Summer Schools also provide travel grants to U.S. participants, who would benefit from hands-on research, training, and professional networks (deadlines vary). Last deadline for ThinkSwiss Research Scholarship: January 31, 2014. http://thinkswiss.tumblr.com/

American Geophysical Union – Several research grants in Atmospheric Sciences; Biogeosciences; Geodesy; Geomagnetism and Paleomagnetism, Hydrology, Ocean Sciences, Planetary Sciences, Space Physics and Aeronomy; Volcanology; Geochemistry and Petrology; Agronomy; Volcanology; Geochemistry and Petrology; and Mineral and Rock Physics. Student travel grants also awarded (deadlines vary). http://education.agu.org/grants/

- Horton Hydrology Research Grant supports up to three Ph.D. candidates working in hydrology or water resources research. Provides up to $10,000 for research costs as well as related travel expenses

- History of Science Fellowship provides doctoral students with a $5,000 fellowship to assist with the costs of travel for data collection. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Deadline: September 24, 2014. http://education.agu.org/grants/research-grants-fellowships/history-science-fellowship/

---

Foundation for Community Association Research, Byron Hanke Graduate Fellowship for Graduate Research on Community Associations – $3,000-$5,000 grants for study of community associations and common-interest communities. Graduate students of all disciplines are welcome to apply, provided their studies relate to community associations generally and to the topic of the candidate’s proposed community associations research project. Deadline: May 1, annually.

Tom Graff Diversity Fellowship Program, Environmental Defense Fund (EDF) – A full-time, one-year position focused on a project that is integral to one of EDF's identified program areas. Provides an annual salary of $45,000 plus benefits. Applicants may apply directly to positions of interest. Last deadline: July 9, 2012. http://www.edf.org/page.cfm?tagID=39576 and http://www.edf.org/jobs

Association for Canadian Studies in the United States ACSUS-Enders Graduate Fellowship in Canada-U.S. Relations – Up to $4,000 award for four to six weeks of data collection at a Canadian university, research site or business. Fellowship aims to fund projects that have policy relevance for Canada-U.S. relations as well as Canadian social, economic, political, security, and quality of life issues. Limited to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Last deadline: March 31, 2014.

The International Reading Association (IRA) offers several fellowships for current members of IRA. No citizenship restrictions.

- Jeanne S. Chall Research Fellowship – $6,000 grant open to doctoral students who are planning or beginning their dissertations and to university-based graduate students who are embarking on their independent research studies focused on reading. See grant webpage for a list of eligible topics. Deadline: November 1, 2014. http://www.reading.org/resources/awardsandgrants/research_chall.aspx

- Helen M. Robinson Grant – $1,200 given annually to assist doctoral students at the early stages of their dissertation research in the area of reading and literacy, focusing on instructional interventions. Recipients must have dissertation proposal successfully defended in order to apply. Deadline: November 1, annually. http://www.reading.org/resources/AwardsandGrants/research_robinson.aspx

- Steven A. Stahl Research Grant – $1,000 award given to a graduate student who has at least three years of pre-K-12 teaching experience. Research must be conducted in the classroom (including action research), focused on improving reading instruction and children’s reading achievement. Deadline: November 1, annually. http://www.reading.org/resources/AwardsandGrants/research_stahl.aspx
Elva Knight Research Grant – Up to $8,000 fellowship to support research in reading and literacy. Deadline: November 1, annually. http://www.reading.org/resources/awardsandgrants/research_knight.aspx

IV. Postdoctoral Opportunities

Thomas J. Alexander Fellowship – Postdoctoral fellowship that seeks to develop and support improvements in education quality and equity, particularly in emerging economies. Fellows will work at the OECD headquarters in Paris with a team of analysts for a period of 3-12 months. No citizenship restrictions. Applicants should hold a Ph.D. and have experience with quantitative research methods and using large-scale surveys. Last deadline: May 30, 2014. http://www.oecd.org/edu/thomasjalexanderfellowship.htm#applying and http://www.oecd.org/edu/Thomas%20J%20%20Alexander%20Fellowships%20Programme%20Description.pdf

Harold A. Richman Postdoctoral Fellowship – In-residence, one-year term appointment ($52,000) renewable for up to one year at Chapin Hall at the University of Chicago’s School of Social Service Administration. Applicants should be interested in applied research careers focusing on child, youth, and family well-being. Last deadline: January 6, 2014. http://www.chapinhall.org/fellowships/harold-richman-fellowship

Ford Fellowship Postdoctoral Fellowship Program for Achieving Excellence in College and University Teaching – Provides one year of support for individuals engaged in postdoctoral study after the attainment of the Ph.D. Fellows are awarded a stipend of $45,000 as well as expenses paid to attend at least one Conference of Ford Fellows. Open to U.S. citizens, nationals, and permanent residents from a variety of disciplines. Deadline: November 14, 2014 with supplemental materials received by January 9, 2015. http://sites.nationalacademies.org/pga/cs/groups/pgasite/documents/webpage/pga_088457.pdf and http://sites.nationalacademies.org/pga/fordfellowships/index.htm

Wilson Center Fellowship – Nine-month residential fellowship for scholars, practitioners, journalists, and public intellectuals. Fellows conduct research and write in their areas of interest, while interacting with policymakers in Washington, Wilson Center staff, and other scholars in residence. Center accepts policy-relevant, non-advocacy fellowship proposals that address key challenges confronting the U.S. and the world. Applicants must have finished their dissertation before they apply, and for “most academic candidates, a book or monograph is required. Applicants may be citizens or permanent residents from any country. Deadline: October 1, 2014. http://www.wilsoncenter.org/fellowship-application

University of Rochester Frederick Douglass Institute Postdoctoral Fellowship Program – In residence, one-year term appointment ($40,000 with $3,000 for research-related activities). Fellows participate in the intellectual life of the institute, pursue their own research, and teach one course in their area of specialization. Awarded to scholars who hold a Ph.D. in a field that contributes to African and African-American studies. No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: December 31, 2013. http://www.rochester.edu/college/aas/grad_programs/fellowships.html

Abe Fellowship Program for Post-Doctorates – The Abe Fellowship is designed to encourage international multidisciplinary research on topics of pressing global concern. Award is for 3 to 12 months of full-time support over a 24-month period. Fellowship tenure must begin between April 1 and December 31 of a given year. Applicants must hold a Ph.D. or terminal degree in their field; they also must be citizens of the U.S., Japan, or nationals of other countries who can demonstrate strong and serious long-term affiliations with research communities in Japan or the U.S. Deadline: September 1, annually. http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/abe-fellowship/

If you find additional funding opportunities or errors in this compendium, please notify: David Wiley, Department of Sociology, <wiley@msu.edu>.

© Michigan State University 2014