Professional Development Programs of the Graduate School (PREP program), which include workshops on conflict management, communication skills, interviewing skills, opportunities in 2 and 4 year colleges and outside the academy: http://grad.msu.edu/prep/ For a listing of workshops by professional development categories (research, teaching, career planning and management), go to: http://grad.msu.edu/prep/workshops.aspx

Career Planning Services: http://grad.msu.edu/careerservices/phd.aspx

Instructional Technology Seminars http://lcttp.msu.edu/faculty/index.htm and Online Instructional Resources http://fod.msu.edu/OIR/index.asp

Pronunciation Workshop Series (of interest to international post-docs and teaching assistants): http://tap.msu.edu

Responsible Conduct of Research Series http://grad.msu.edu/rcr/

Lilly Seminar Series (all available to post-docs and selected ones open also to graduate students) for enhancing learning and instruction http://fod.msu.edu/lillyseminar/about.asp

Teaching Assistant Program for pedagogical development of teaching assistant and post-docs http://grad.msu.edu/prospect/taprog.htm

Future Academic Scholars in Teaching Fellowship Program (one-year program exploring “teaching as research” open to graduate students only) http://grad.msu.edu/fast/