Develop Your Skills

Assistantships within REHS offer opportunities to supervise student staff members, work on a dynamic team, and manage varied projects with a wide impact

Make a Difference

Graduate assistants in REHS support our residential students in defining and achieving their own success. Here, you can play a vital role in centering care and inclusion for our students!

Support Your Future

Our graduate assistantships offer supportive compensation packages including partial tuition remission, a stipend, and our live-in positions provide an on-campus apartment.
