

2016 AGEP Michigan Fall Conference

-This Year's Theme-
"From the Lab to the Classroom, Making Research Relevant"

Call for Presentations

We are looking for exciting areas of research including engineering, natural and social sciences. Presenters can display their work using a Poster or Oral presentation. Due Oct 10, 2016

Engaging Workshops

- Graduate School Expectations
- Becoming a Faculty Entrepreneur
- Strategies for Navigating the Dissertation
- Teaching Portfolio & Philosophy
- Academic Job Searching

Innovative Panels

- Academia Reality Check
- Paying and Staying for Graduate School
- Getting the Mentorship You Need

Date

Saturday October 22, 2016

Time

8:00 AM – 6:00 PM

Location

Kellogg Conference Center

For More Info, Contact:

Steven Thomas
MSU AGEP Program Manager
msuagep@grd.msu.edu
517-432-3268

This conference is hosted by the Michigan State University Alliance for the Graduate Education and the Professoriate

Register Today
<https://grad.msu.edu/agep>

Keynote Speaker
Dr. Valerie Purdie-Vaughns

This conference supported by the National Science Foundation under The Michigan AGEP Alliance for Transformation (MAA): Mentoring and Community Building to Accelerate Successful Progression into the Professoriate # 1305819.

Valerie Purdie-Vaughns is a professor in the Department of Psychology at Columbia University and an instructor at Columbia Business School. She teaches Negotiations in the Graduate and Executive Education programs at Columbia Business School. and Mind, Culture and Brain in the Department of Psychology.