

Exploring Survivor Diversity through Photovoice: A Digital Story

December 5, 2012 at 7pm

MSU Museum of Natural and Cultural History

This event will be showing a digital story created by a group of sexual violence survivors on campus. Click here to see the flyer.

Funding Your Graduate Experience: Humanities, Social Sciences, and Communication Arts

January 25, 2013 from 3pm - 5pm

In this 2-hour workshop, you will identify funding sources to support graduate research, fellowships, scholarships, and stipends to support your academic experience. Participants will review potential funding sources aligned with your research interests from foundation partners, USG sources, and international organizations and walk through the proposal and budgeting process. Additionally, participants will discuss the development of a management plan to develop research projects and organize funding prospects. Facilitators : Jon Harrison and Mary Anne Walker.

Register through MSU Libraries.

Dissertation Proposal Development Fellowship

APPLICATION IS NOW OPEN. APPLY BY JANUARY 31, 2013, 5PM ET

Supports mid-stage graduate students in the humanities and social sciences, is now accepting applications for the 2013 fellowship cycle. This year's program contains the following research fields, led by senior faculty spanning a variety of disciplines. For more information, click here.

Stay Connected

"Instruction ends in the school-room, but education ends only with life."

- Frederick W. Robertson