

2013 AGEP Scholar Award

The Graduate School at MSU announces the availability of the AGEP Scholar Award in the amount of $2000. Award recipients in good standing will be eligible to apply each year.

Deadline: February 15, 2013 by 5pm EST

Eligibility Requirements

- U.S. citizen or permanent resident* A full-time graduate student in good standing in a STEM or SBE graduate program at MSU
- Demonstrated commitment to AGEP goals, and participation in the MSU AGEP Learning Community and Community activities

Award Details

- Limit of $2,000/year with any possible combination of travel and professional development (including books, society memberships, software, laptops)
- Awardees are able to apply for all other types of funding provided by The Graduate School at MSU
- A brief written summary of the activities supported by the award is required as well as a brief oral report to the MSU AGEP Learning Community

Selection Criteria

- Current participation in the MSU AGEP Learning Community
- Merit of the proposed activities (including how it relates to preparing the candidate for the professoriate)
- Letter of recommendation/nomination by the major research advisor.

To Apply

Click here for the application. For more information on the AGEP Scholar Award visit this link.

Stay Connected

"It is the mark of an educated mind to be able to entertain a thought without accepting it."

- Aristotle