#iteachmsu Twitter Chat Launch:
BUILDING TEACHING AND LEARNING COMMUNITIES

Want to be part of a community promoting teaching, learning, and innovation at MSU?

If so, join us in-person on Dec. 1st, from 3:30pm-5:30pm, at the MSU Hub for Innovation (D101 Wells Hall). We’ll be launching the first #iteachmsu Twitter Chat, where we’ll discuss how we do and can build teaching and learning communities across MSU.

Never participated in a Twitter Chat? Don’t worry! We’ll have a short orientation before the chat begins (3:30-4:00), a debriefing after it ends (5:00-5:30), and people on hand across the experience to support you.

If you can’t make it in person, join us digitally at 4:00pm by searching for “#iteachmsu” on Twitter.
