

International Social Science Research Seminar

Guide to Fellowships and Grants for Graduate Student International Dissertation Research beginning in 2018-19

Compiled by David Wiley, Christine Root, and Tara Reyelts
Michigan State University

August 25, 2017

© Copyright Michigan State University Board of Trustees

Not for dissemination beyond MSU students and faculty.

Contents:

- I. General Guides to Funding Opportunities, Fellowships, and Scholarships
- II. Michigan State University Funding Opportunities for MSU Graduate Students
- III. Individual Grant Opportunities
 - IIIA. Individual Grant Opportunities funded by the U.S. Government Agencies
 - IIIB. Individual Funding Opportunities by Foundations, Non-governmental Organizations, and Professional Associations
 - IIIB. (1) Funding Opportunities for International Research
 - IIIB. (2) Funding Programs for Foreign Language Study for Field Research
 - IIIB. (3) Funding Opportunities in Many Disciplines - mostly outside the Humanities and Social Sciences - that may support International Research
- IV. Postdoctoral Opportunities

I. General Guides to Funding Opportunities, Fellowships, and Scholarships

It is essential to check the status, purpose, eligibility requirements, deadlines, and all other details about grant programs directly from the administering units. Do not rely solely on this document.

MSU Libraries' Grants and Related Resources – Includes:

Funding for Graduate Students (<http://staff.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/3gradinf.htm>),
Funding for International students (<http://staff.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/3forstudent.htm>),
Grant opportunities by Discipline (<http://staff.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/3subject.htm>),
Proposal writing, and many other resources assembled by MSU Library's Jon Harrison
(harris23@mail.lib.msu.edu), 884-0855. <http://staff.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/index.htm>

Graduate Student Opportunities for Dissertation, Research and Conference Funding related to the Environment – Many national and international funding sources, compiled and updated regularly by the MSU Environmental Science and Policy Program (ESPP). Some students have used a conference grant to help fund travel for dissertation or pre-dissertation research.
http://www.espp.msu.edu/education/student_funding.php

American Anthropological Association Fellowships & Support – Lists international and national funding opportunities of interest to anthropologists, many of which are relevant to other social scientists, as well. <http://www.aaanet.org/profdev/fellowships/>. A search for funding opportunities is available at: <http://www.americananthro.org/LearnAndTeach/Content.aspx?ItemNumber=1906&navItemNumber=654>

American Political Science Association Grants, Fellowships, and other Funding Opportunities – Lists more than 100 grant and fellowships opportunities in the social sciences. <http://www.apsanet.org/RESOURCES/Grants-in-the-Discipline>

University of Chicago Division of the Humanities Graduate Student Grant/Fellowship Blog – Many fellowships listed, particularly postdoctoral grants. (Note that the “Categories” menu includes Dissertation Research and Dissertation Write-Up, as well as short- and long-term grants, Masters eligible grants, etc.) <http://lucian.uchicago.edu/blogs/studentgrantsfellowships/>

The University of Chicago lists grants available to international students by region, nationality, discipline, and education level. Some grants listed are available to American students with international ancestry. <https://internationalaffairs.uchicago.edu/fundingoptions#International%20Resources>

Columbia University Graduate School of Arts & Sciences – Fellowship Search for external fellowships: <https://gsas.columbia.edu/student-guide/financing-your-education/external-fellowships> and international fellowships – <https://www.internationalscholarships.com/>

Association for Asian Studies (AAS): Asian Studies Grants and Fellowships – Listing of Grants, Prizes, and Fellowships by the AAS and others, organized by Asia General, China, Inner Asia, Korea, Japan, South Asia, and Southeast Asia. <http://www.asian-studies.org/Grants-and-Awards/Other-Grant-Programs>

College Scholarships, Graduate Fellowships & Postdoctoral Awards for Minorities and Minorities, among others – Searchable by discipline. <https://scholarships.fatomei.com/>

African Americans: College Scholarships, Grants and Graduate Fellowships – <https://scholarships.fatomei.com/scholarships-for-african-americans.html>

SciVal Funding – Database of grant programs and awards made by them. Sign-in required with MSU ID for advanced search: <http://www.funding.scival.com/home>. More information: <https://vprgs.msu.edu/announcement/msu-access-funding-database>

Resources for international students who wish to continue studying in the U.S. – Several websites list relevant resources. The Institute of International Education’s webpage “Funding for U.S. Study” provides search for scholarships and grants by state, region, sponsoring institution, and area study: <http://www.fundingusstudy.org/>. International Student provides advice and information about funding international study: https://www.internationalstudent.com/study_usa/financing/sources/. The International Education Financial Aid website (IEFA) provides up-to-date, free searchable list of scholarships: <https://www.iefafa.org/scholarships>. EduPASS offers a list of databases of scholarships for students in specific countries: <http://www.edupass.org/finaid/databases.phtml>. Educators for Fair Consideration have compiled a 55-page booklet of information about scholarships and fellowships available for immigrant students who do not have U.S. citizenship or residency. There are resources regarding several scholarship and fellowship opportunities on their website:

<http://www.e4fc.org/home.html>

MSU National/International Fellowships & Scholarships (NIFS) Office – Lists grants and fellowships for graduate study, mostly for beginning a graduate degree. <https://nifs.msu.edu/awards#anchor-17>

II. Michigan State University Funding Opportunities for MSU Graduate Students

MSU Graduate School - Funding Opportunities for Graduate Students – Includes assistantships, fellowships, and travel grants, plus students can obtain emergency funding and funds to top-off their current fellowship with funds from the university. <https://grad.msu.edu/funding/> and <http://grad.msu.edu/fellowships/>

- The MSU Council of Graduate Students (COGS) provides funding for conference travel, professional development, and leadership skill development. Conference Grants of up to $300 are available to graduate and professional students once during their MSU academic career. Deadline: August 23, 2017 (for conference dates August 30, 2017 through January 8, 2018).

<http://cogs.msu.edu/resources/funding/conference-award/>

- Professional Development Grants of up to $500 also are available to MSU graduate and professional students once in their MSU academic career. These grants should support students in attending events or engaging in activities that enhance their professional development. Deadline: August 23, 2017 (for event dates August 30, 2017 through January 8, 2018).

<http://cogs.msu.edu/resources/funding/professional-development-award/>

- COGS Disciplinary Leadership Awards provide graduate and professional students up to $3,800 in recognition of disciplinary leadership. Faculty or others must nominate students. Consideration is given to students who have clearly demonstrated leadership in their respective disciplines and/or professional societies. COGS prefers that the award is used to further the leadership skill development of the recipient. Deadline: TBD, will be announced in Fall 2017. <http://cogs.msu.edu/resources/funding/cogs-disciplinary-leadership-award/>

MSU Dissertation Completion Fellowships – Contact the office of the college associate dean for research of your college to learn the college's procedure for awarding these fellowships. Dissertation to be finished during the one-semester tenure of the fellowship; the intent of the fellowship is to free up the student's time to devote his/herself to writing the dissertation, in preparation for the defense. 120 fellowships awarded annually. Award: $7,000. Deadlines: Varies by college. The Graduate School awards each college funds to disperse. <https://grad.msu.edu/fellowships/dissertation>

MSU Graduate Student Research Enhancement – Funds available to support research activities including travel to participate in workshops, data collection, short courses, and extramural laboratory rotations. Awards are intended to match/supplement funds provided by advisors, units, and colleges and will range from $500-$1,000. Only one request per student/tenure in degree program will be considered. Deadline: Rolling, decision on support will be made within three weeks of receiving all the necessary materials. <https://grad.msu.edu/research-support>

Fulbright Programs – Note: Various Fulbright programs are described in individual awards section III.A (below). Applications must be made through MSU; contact Prof. Roger Bresnahan (bresnaha@msu.edu); 517-432-8244), International Center, Room 306. <http://www.isp.msu.edu/academics-learning/learning-abroad/fulbright-programs/> and <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/home.html>

Title VI Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowships (FLAS) – MSU: For studying a language and a foreign area or international development. Enrolled and new graduate students are eligible. Must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Awards available for tuition and fees during the academic year (stipends vary by center) and $7,500 for summer language study. Three MSU centers offer them: African Studies Center; Asian Studies Center; and Center for Advanced Study of International Development and Center for Gender in Global Context. Websites identify eligible languages, foreign areas, and deadlines, normally January - February. See <http://africa.isp.msu.edu/undergraduate-studies/african-languages/foreign-language-and-area-studies-flas/>, <http://casid.isp.msu.edu/research-and-funding/flas/>, and <http://asia.isp.msu.edu/academics/fellowships-scholarships/flas/>

MSU International Studies and Programs (ISP) International Scholarships and Awards – Offers funding opportunities to students who are engaged in international activities as well as international students at MSU. Contact ISP at (517) 355-2350 or infonew@isp.msu.edu. Scholarships and other funding for graduate students: http://isp.web102.isp.msu.edu/funding/grad_scholarships.htm

Dr. Charles and Marjorie Gliozzo Dissertation Research Scholarship – Supports pre-dissertation visit to doctoral research site in a country outside the U.S. Applicants must be U.S. citizen or permanent resident and have completed sufficient academic credits in an MSU graduate program to have clearly-delineated dissertation research objectives and ideally have or are in the process of defended/defending their research prospectus/proposal. Amount of award depends on endowment income. Last Deadline: March 1, 2017 <http://www.isp.msu.edu/information-resources/student-funding/gliozzo-scholarship/>

Walker Hill International Scholarship – For predissertation visits to the site of the doctoral research in a country outside the U.S. (For international students, research in one's own country does not qualify.) Award amount depends on income generated by the endowment, but should be at least $600 with the possibility of more funds if they are available. Financial need may be considered. Last Deadline: January 29, 2016. <http://isp.web102.isp.msu.edu/funding/walker.htm>

Whittier Endowed International Health Scholarship Fund – Awards of $500 for MSU graduate students (Masters or PhD Level), students in the MSU College of Osteopathic Medicine or Human Medicine, or an MSU professional student for international health research (graduate level) or international health clerkships (Approved IIH international electives of 4-6 weeks for fourth year medical students.) May not be used for research "in one's own country." Deadline: December 31, annually. <https://www.msu.edu/~iih/whittier.html>

Gliozzo Scholarship Endowment in Global Health – Supports students who wish to study or conduct research in Africa, Latin America, Central America, or Asia. Donors particularly are concerned with health issues such as malnutrition, infection disease, malaria, HIV, poverty, and polluted water that are symptoms of larger social, political and environmental problems. Number of awards and dollar amount vary by year. Contact Michael Miller at michael.miller@hc.msu.edu for more information. Deadline: rolling. <https://www.msu.edu/~iih/gliozzo.html>

MSU College of Education has several funding opportunities available to doctoral students. The Summer Research Fellowship funds more than 20 doctoral students annually, providing $6,000 to support their research and scholarly development. The Summer Research Renewable Fellowship funds 8-10 doctoral students for two years, providing $6,000 per summer. Faculty mentors receive an honorarium. The Summer Research Development Fellowship provides 15 first-year doctoral students with $5,000 to develop or strengthen specific research skills and to acquire knowledge about specific methods not thoroughly developed in a regular course. The College's Research Practicum/Research Development Fellowship provides financial support to advanced doctoral students who have projected or incurred expenses relevant to data collection for their research. Fellowship amounts range from $1,000-$4,000. Outreach and Engagement Fellowships, Travel Funding, and other fellowships are also available.

Deadlines: Doctoral students will be notified of the application process and deadlines in fall via the Ph.D. listserv. The Summer Research Development Fellowship application process begins in January.

<http://education.msu.edu/resources/financial/fellowships.asp> and

<http://education.msu.edu/te/phd/Financial-Information/Fellowships-for-TE-PhD-Students.asp#outreach>

MSU College of Education – Marianne Amarel Fellowship by Center for Scholarship of Teaching and Teacher Education – Doctoral student must be enrolled in any doctoral program in College of Education at MSU; renewable up to 3 years. Award: 50% research assistantship and $1,500 in travel and research expenses. Expected call for proposals: February 2017.

<http://education.msu.edu/resources/financial/fellowships/amarel.asp>

More information: <http://education.msu.edu/resources/financial/grad-scholarships.asp>

Nelson Mandela Museum/Michigan State University Museum Curatorial Fellowship Program – One curatorial fellowship to be completed during summer and fall semesters. Ten weeks of summer semester will be spent in South Africa (with at least eight weeks spent working full-time at the Mandela Museum in Mthatha) and the following fall semester will be spent working part-time at the MSU Museum. Fellows receive $16,000. Up to an additional $500 is available to attend a cultural heritage conference in South Africa and up to an additional $1,000 to cover travel and conference registration costs to present results of fellowship experience or research. Curatorial fellows plan and complete projects in collaboration with and mentored by MSU faculty and professional museum staff at each institution. Last deadline: February 27, 2017. <http://museum.msu.edu/?q=node/197>

Kellogg Biological Station (KBS) Long-Term Ecological Research (LTER) Graduate Fellowships –

1) LTER Capstone Graduate Fellowship: The fellowship is open to PhD students enrolled at MSU who are interested in extending their LTER-based research or in developing an aspect of their research to include LTER-related activities that would not otherwise be part of their dissertation work. Stipend of $30,000 plus tuition and fees. Additional funds (up to $5,000) will be available for travel or meeting expenses as warranted. 2) LTER Summer Research Fellowships: Two awards of $6,250 each with up to $500 for travel. Applicants must be MSU-based MSc or PhD students. 3) Small Grants: Students conducting graduate-level research are eligible to apply for up to $2,000 for research-related expenses (but not salary or stipends). Priority will be given to those projects most closely aligned with overall LTER goals. Last deadlines: February 10, 2017, but rolling for small grants.

<https://lter.kbs.msu.edu/get-involved/grants-and-fellowships/>

Annual Theodore Roosevelt Conservation and Environmental Leadership Fellowship – Annual award of approximately $2,500 to support graduate and professional students as they prepare for leadership roles in natural resource and conservation-based organizations and agencies. Purpose of the fellowship is to enable individuals to participate in experiential leadership workshops and programs related to conservation of natural and environmental resources. Eligible students must be nominated by a MSU faculty member to be considered. Last deadline: November 11, 2016.

<https://grad.msu.edu/fellowships/elf>

MSU Gender, Justice, and Environmental Change (GJEC) Fellowships – Four $10,000 fellowship opportunities for dissertation research and completion. Projects must address gender dimensions of environmental and/or agricultural change. Applicants must be Ph.D. students at MSU who are ABD. For the Dissertation Completion Fellowship, applicants must use the funds to support their writing and graduate by Spring 2016. Email GenCen for updated information. Deadline: April 15, each year. <http://gencen.isp.msu.edu/graduate-students/gjec-program/>

Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies (CLACS) Scholarship – Scholarship to support international research or study in Latin America. Grant of up to $500 may be used to defray the costs of an MSU-sponsored study abroad program or research. Last deadline: February 28th of the year that research will occur. <http://dev.latinamerica.isp.msu.edu/funding/student-funding/clacs-scholarship/>

TIAA Ruth Simms Hamilton Graduate Merit Fellowship – Approximately $35,000 awarded to MSU social science graduate students in a field for research relating to the African Diaspora. Funds may be used to support research, conference presentations, data collection, or dissertation write-up. No citizenship restrictions. Deadline: January 16, 2017. <https://grad.msu.edu/fellowships/tiaacref>

Ruth Simms Hamilton Scholarship Award for Sociology Majors in the College of Social Science - Scholarships will be awarded each year to outstanding sociology majors at Michigan State University. Each submission will include a brief personal essay (1-2 pages) and a resume of career and academic achievements. Deadline: March 1, annually. <http://www.socialscience.msu.edu/students/social-science-undergraduates/scholarships-awards-and-funded-research-opportunities/>

MSU Sociology Graduate Students in International Development— Awards for graduate study in Sociology, including dissertation research abroad. Application requires 1) proposal and budget no longer than 5 pages for support of doctoral dissertation in the area of sociology of international development and 2) an endorsement letter from the student's dissertation chairperson. Check deadline (usually announced over the sociology listserv); submit application in either hard copy or electronic form to Shannon Davis, Office Supervisor, or Roseann Bills, Graduate Secretary, Sociology, 316 Berkey Hall. Proposals are evaluated by the Department Chair, Associate Chair, and Graduate Program Director.

● Jay Artis Endowment Fund – For students who have advanced candidacy (proposal approved) and are planning research about international development. The maximum award is $3,000. Last Deadline: April 14, 2017.

● John L. and Harriette Pipes McAdoo Scholarship Fund – Students are encouraged to apply if they have an approved dissertation or qualifying paper on families of color. The maximum award is $500. Contact Roseann Bills at marshro3@msu.edu for further information.

. Last deadline: April 7, 2015.

<http://sociology.msu.edu/graduate/awards>

III. Individual Grant Opportunities

III. A. Individual Grant Opportunities funded by the U.S. Government Agencies

Fulbright U.S. Student Programs for Language and Cultural Study or Dissertation Research Abroad ("Fulbright IIE awards"), Teaching Assistant, Critical Language, and Others – For all Fulbright awards, current MSU students must submit applications through MSU. Contact MSU Fulbright Advisor Prof. Roger Bresnahan (bresnaha@msu.edu; 517. 884-2167), Room 306 International Center. MSU deadline:

MSU deadlines are September 15, 2017 for research/study grants and September 23, 2017 for the English Teaching Assistantships. These deadlines allow time for the required interviews and revisions before the final submission on October 6, 2017. All applications require the one-page personal essay, one-, two-, or three-page Statement of Grant Purpose, the length depending on the award, three reference letters (or forms for the ETA), a language reference form for each language you will use in your research (except English and the applicant's native language) provided by a tertiary-level language instructor, transcripts from MSU and all institutions from which you received a degree, and letters of invitation or affiliation from the institution(s) in the host under whose direction you propose to work. Panels of MSU faculty and advanced graduate students who are Fulbright alumni will review the applications, conduct the interviews, and make suggestions for revision. All grant materials, including the letters of recommendation, must be uploaded to the application by the application deadline. National Deadline: October 6, 2017. <https://us.fulbrightonline.org/>

The various types of student Fulbright programs are described at: <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/types-of-grants>. Application procedures are described at: <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/applicants> with specific information relevant to applying for various programs at: <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/application-components>. The most common fellowship for graduate students to conduct dissertation research abroad is the “Academic” research/study grant. It offers 9-10 months of support to recent BS/BA graduates (graduating seniors) and masters and doctoral students and young professionals for personal development and international experience to conduct study and/or research in one country (one to three countries for the National Geographic digital storytelling award). Awards provide round-trip transportation, language or orientation courses in certain cases, maintenance allowance, and supplemental health and accidental insurance. Applicants must be U.S. citizens as of the deadline date.. Application information for Academic grants: <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/application-components/academic>. The MSU deadline for 2017 is September 15; the national deadline is October 6. Special grant opportunities in the fields of Business, Journalism, and Science and Public Health in specific countries are also described at <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/types-of-grants>. Fulbright grants available in particular countries can be accessed from: <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/countries/regions>

Other types of Fulbright grants include:

- English Teaching Assistantships (ETAs) – ETAs are placed in primary and secondary schools or universities outside of capital cities in their countries of application. They are assigned to improve their students' language abilities and knowledge of the U.S. and are integrated into the host community to increase their language skills and knowledge of the host country. ETAs may pursue individual study/research plans in addition to ETA responsibilities. Applicants can apply to only one country.

Internal Deadline: September 23, 2017; National Deadline: October 6, 2017.

<http://us.fulbrightonline.org/eta-program-charts> and <http://atwork.us.fulbrightonline.org/application-components/eta>

- Critical Language Enhancement Award – Supplemental grants for Fulbright U.S. Student Program grantees to receive 3-6 months of intensive language study in addition to their research or study grants. Only select languages and host-countries are available for this opportunity. Eligible Languages: Arabic (all dialects), Bahasa Indonesia, Bangla/Bengali, Chinese (Mandarin only), Gujarati, Hindi, Marathi, Punjabi, Russian, and Urdu. Eligible Countries: China, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Jordan, Morocco, and Russia. Applicants must complete an additional form as part of their larger Fulbright IIE application and note this interest in their statement of grant purpose. Same deadlines as for the Fulbright IIE. <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/critical-language-enhancement-awards>

● Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad (DDRA) Fellowship Program (U.S. Department of Education) – Fellowships of $15,000-$60,000 (averaging $35,000) for graduate students spending 6-12 months in full-time dissertation research abroad (excluding projects focused on Western Europe) in modern foreign languages and area studies. Special consideration may be given to students who study a select list of languages. Applications must be submitted through MSU. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States who are studying at higher education institutions in the U.S. Contact Prof. Roger Bresnahan (bresnaha@msu.edu; 517.884.2167), International Center, Room 306. Check ISP website for MSU deadline for reviewing proposals. Last deadline for 2017 competition: March 9, 2017 for final submission by Dr. Bresnahan on March 14, 2017. (Announcements for new DDRA awards in 2018-2019 probably will not occur until winter or spring 2018. Previous years' deadlines have been in November or June.)
<http://www2.ed.gov/programs/iegpsddrap/applicant.html>, <http://www.ed.gov/programs/iegpsddrap/index.html>, and <http://isp.web102.isp.msu.edu/funding/fulbright.htm>

● Fulbright – National Geographic Digital Storytelling Fellowship – Provides opportunities for U.S. citizens of all ages and backgrounds to participate in an academic year of overseas travel and digital storytelling in up to three countries on a globally significant theme. For the 2018-2019 competition, proposals must be for multi-sited projects (one, two, or three countries) that focus on one of the following themes: “The Human Journey”, “Our Changing Planet”, and “Wildlife& Wild Places.” Students must tell their stories and the stories of those they meet during their research on a dedicated blog, providing materials for the blog once a week. Fellows receive Fulbright benefits (travel, stipend, health, etc.) as well as instruction on digital storytelling techniques and will be paired with one to two National Geographic editors. Applicants must be U.S. citizens and cannot hold a Ph.D. at the time of application. Deadline: October 6, 2017. <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/fulbright-nat-geo-fellowship>

National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement (DDRI) – NSF awards are intended to allow doctoral students to undertake data gathering and field research that would not otherwise be possible. The NSF Directorate for Social, Behavioral, and Economic Sciences (SBE) provides DDRI in the following fields: archaeology; biological and cultural anthropology; economics; geography and spatial sciences; linguistics; political science; sociology; law and social science; Decision, Risk and Management Sciences; Methodology, Measurement, and Statistics; Research on Science and Technology Surveys and Statistics; Science, Technology, and Society (which may include history of science); and Science of Science and Innovation Policy. Citizenship is unrestricted. Deadlines for DDRI vary by disciplines and are listed at: http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_list.jsp?org=SBE. (Many, but not all, disciplines have two deadlines per year.) Solicitation instructions for the DDRI are at: http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=13453&org=NSF&sel_org=NSF&from=fund. The NSF Grant Proposal Guide (http://www.nsf.gov/publications/pub_summ.jsp?ods_key=gpg) must also be followed. See also NSF's Specialized Information for Graduate Students website: http://www.nsf.gov/funding/education.jsp?org=OISE&fund_type=2. DDRI applications must be submitted electronically via Fastlane, with faculty advisor as PI. At MSU, the application must be submitted by the MSU Office of Sponsored Programs (OSP); leave at least 7- 10 days to manage electronic submission. Contact your college's OSP representative at 517-355-5040 or by e-mail. (Find your college's OSP representative at <https://www.cga.msu.edu/PL/Portal/DocumentViewer.aspx?cga=aQBkAD0AMQA3ADAA.>)

● NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP) – Provides three years of support (annually $32,000 stipend and $12,000 for tuition) for graduate study leading to research-based master's or doctoral degrees and is intended for students who are in the early stages of their graduate study. Includes physical and social sciences. (<http://nsfgrfp.org/>) Eligible NSF Graduate Research Fellows must have completed at least one year of their graduate program at the time of application. They must be enrolled at U.S. institutions, making satisfactory progress towards their degrees, and have fulfilled all GRFP reporting requirements. Deadlines: October 23 – October 27, 2017, depending on field

http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=6201

Additionally, GRFP Fellows are eligible for Graduate Research Opportunities Worldwide (GROW), a Supplemental Award to establish collaboration with select research institutions abroad. GROW continues research cooperation with counterpart funding organizations in Norway, Finland, Denmark, Sweden, France, Japan, South Korea and Singapore. In addition, GROW announces new partnership opportunities in Australia, Brazil, Chile, India, Ireland, the Netherlands, and Switzerland, as well as upcoming partnerships with USAID in Brazil, Colombia, India, Indonesia, the Philippines, Senegal, and South Africa. Last deadline: December 5, 2016.
http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=504876

Department of Energy Stewardship Science Graduate Fellowship – Award available to students in their first or second year of graduate study in a science or engineering discipline related to high energy density physics, nuclear science, or materials under extreme conditions and hydrodynamics. Fellowship is renewable for up to four years of study and includes a $36,000 annual stipend, tuition and fees, and yearly $1,000 allowance to spend on research or professional development. Fellows may also participate in an annual program review and 12-week practicum at one of three locations. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. Last deadline: Spring 2017. <http://www.krellinst.org/ssgf/> and <https://nifs.msu.edu/awards/department-energy-stewardship-science-graduate-fellowship>

The East Asia and Pacific Summer Institutes (EAPSI) – Provides U.S. graduate students in science and engineering fields with: 1) first-hand research experience in Australia, China, Japan, Korea, New Zealand, Singapore, or Taiwan; 2) an introduction to the science, science policy, and scientific infrastructure of the respective location; and 3) an orientation to the society, culture and language. Applicants apply individually but will be placed with a cohort of students at an appointed location in the host country between June and August. Applicants must propose a location, host scientist, and research project that are appropriate for the host site and duration of the international visit. The goals are to introduce students to East Asia and Pacific science and engineering in the context of a research setting and to help students initiate scientific relationships that will better enable future collaboration with foreign counterparts. Must be U.S. citizen or permanent resident, enrolled in a research-oriented master's or Ph.D. degree program (including joint degree programs), enrolled at a U.S. institution, and pursuing studies in fields of science and engineering research and education supported by the NSF. $5,000 plus participation in Pre-Departure Orientation and round-trip airplane ticket are provided. Last Deadline: November 10, 2016 (second Thursday in November, annually).
http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=5284

National Institutes of Health (NIH), National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) Drug Abuse Dissertation Research (R36) – NIDA has announced new NIH Dissertation Awards to support drug abuse doctoral dissertation research in NIDA areas of priority including research on basic and clinical neuroscience and behavior, developmental trajectories, epidemiology, prevention, treatment, services, and/or women and sex/gender differences. (NIDA supports more than 85 percent of the world's research on the health aspects of drug abuse and addiction.) Proposed dissertation research may be in conjunction with an ongoing research study or use extant data. Studies of HIV/AIDS and Health Disparities are encouraged. No more than $50,000 will be provided annually. Applications can be submitted through grants.gov or other institutional systems. Deadlines: Oct 16, Feb 16, June 16, annually (new applications); November 16, March 16, July 16 (renewals, resubmissions, revisions). <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PAR-13-182.html>

NIH/NIMH Mental Health Research Dissertation Grant to Enhance Workforce Diversity – Aims to provide awards to support the completion of doctoral research projects and dissertations from individuals of diverse backgrounds underrepresented in mental health research. Award includes approximately $22,000 yearly stipend and up to $15,000 for additional expenses such as fringe benefits, travel to scientific meetings, and research costs of the dissertation. Award given for no less than 12 months and no more than two years. Applicants must have an approved dissertation proposal. Open to citizens and permanent residents of the U.S. as well as non-citizen nationals. Deadlines: December 22, 2017, April 23, 2018.

<http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PAR-12-103.html>
and <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PAR-15-181.html>

NIH AHRQ Grants for Health Services Research Dissertation Program – Supports dissertation research focused on methodological and research topics that address the mission and research interests of Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ), including safety/quality, efficiency, and effectiveness. Students must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and be enrolled in an U.S. institution. Funds can be used for dissertation research and write-up. Grants are usually for $40,000 for a period of 9 to 17 months. Deadlines: February 1, May 1, August 1, and November 1 annually <http://www.ahrq.gov/funding/training-grants/rsrchtng.html#HRSDA>

U.S. Institute for Peace, Jennings Randolph Peace Scholarship Dissertation Fellowships – $20,000 for research and writing in all disciplines, for 4-7 fellowships of up to ten months (starting in September) on topics related to international peace-building, conflict management, and international security issues. Proposals must relate to the Institute's mission and have clear policy relevance. The Institute's annual strategic objectives for the next year include two cross-cutting themes: 1) Addressing Fragility, Strengthening Resilience, within which there are three sub-themes of a) Inclusive Politics, b) Delivering Security and c) Access to Justice; and 2) Alternatives to Extremist Violence. Citizenship is unrestricted. Applicants must have completed all coursework and examinations by the time their fellowship begins. Deadline: November 20, 2017. <https://www.usip.org/grants-fellowships/fellowships> and <https://www.usip.org/grants-fellowships/fellowships/jennings-randolph-peace-scholarship-dissertation-program>

Inter-American Foundation's (IAF) Grassroots Development Fellowships Program – Fellowships for PhD candidates who enrolled in an U.S. institution and are citizens of the U.S. or of an independent country in Latin America or the Caribbean, except Cuba. Dissertation research should examine "the efforts of the rural and urban poor to improve their lives, their methods of organization and production, and the policies and programs designed to alleviate their poverty." (Proposals for field research in Puerto Rico and the Dutch, British, and French territories will not be accepted.) Before beginning the IAF Fellowship, students must have advanced to candidacy for a Ph.D. in the social sciences, physical sciences, technical fields, or other disciplines related to grassroots development issues in Latin America or the Caribbean. Awards include a research allowance of up to $3,000; a $1,500 monthly stipend for between four to 12 months, round-trip transportation to the research site, health insurance, and attendance at a mandatory mid-year conference. Last deadline: 2018-2019 cycle will be announced during October 2017. <http://www.iie.org/en/Programs/IAF-Grassroots-Development-Fellowship-Program>

Borlaug Leadership Enhancement in Agriculture Program (LEAP) – A USAID-funded fellowship program aimed at supporting thesis research of graduate students studying at designated U.S. or African universities in USAID-assisted countries in sub-Saharan Africa who show strong promise as leaders in the field of agriculture and related disciplines. Applications are requested from sub-Saharan African students conducting research on topics related to agriculture and the U.S. Government's global hunger and food security initiative, Feed the Future. Fellows are awarded $20,000 for 3 to 12 months. Deadline: Borlaug LEAP has come to the end of a 10-year funding cycle. During 2017, they will NOT be issuing Requests for Applications or funding any new fellowships.

<http://borlaugleap.org/>

U.S. Borlaug Fellows in Global Food Security Program—USAID funds a two-part fellowship program to expand the pool of U.S. food security professionals who have the scientific base needed to study and manage the global landscapes in support of sustainable food systems. Topics that are related to food security and are linked to the research strategies of the USAID Feed the Future Initiative are admissible.

- Graduate Research Fellowship Grant Program – Supports graduate students to conduct research in a country with a significant food insecurity problem, in collaboration with a mentor from an International Agricultural Research Center. Grants up to $15,000 for six-month international stay, $20,000 for one-year international stay, and $40,000 for two-year international stay. Students applying for one-year grants may split the year into two, 6-month stays over a period of no more than 18 months. Fellows who do so still must spend 85% of their time during those two, six-month long stays in the host country. Although this is a grant for international research, up to four months (one semester) of research and/or data collection may be conducted in the U.S. Emphasis is placed on interdisciplinary projects, but students approaching an issue through a single discipline will also be considered. Fellows must be U.S. citizens and enrolled in accredited U.S. universities. Last Deadline:* April 11, 2016.

<http://www.purdue.edu/discoverypark/food/borlaugfellows/research-fellowship/index.php> and

<http://www.purdue.edu/discoverypark/food/borlaugfellows/research-fellowship/rfa.php>

- Summer Institute on Global Food Security – Two-week program for 30 graduate students attending U.S. institutions and interested in developing a holistic understanding of the conceptual challenges around global food security. Lodging, meals, and teaching materials will be provided at no cost. No citizenship restrictions. Last Deadline:* April 11, 2016.

<http://www.purdue.edu/discoverypark/food/borlaugfellows/summer-institute/index.php>

Leland International Hunger Fellows Program – Two-year program that trains emerging leaders in the fight to end hunger worldwide. During their first year, fellows work directly to build food security in the field; in their second year, they apply their experience to the design of sound development policy at the organizational, national, and international level. Fellows also participate in an annual CHC-sponsored training session and other professional development programs. Applicants apply directly to specific placement positions to alleviate hunger and poverty in Africa, Asia, and Latin America. Fellows receive a monthly stipend, health insurance, housing and relocation allowances, and professional development funds. Last deadline:* Spring 2017 (Applications are accepted every other year. Check back in October 2018 for more information.) <http://www.hungercenter.org/fellowships/leland/> and <http://www.hungercenter.org/fellowships/leland/apply/>

National Gallery of Art's Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts Predoctoral Fellowships – To support doctoral dissertation research in the history, theory, and criticism of art, architecture, and urbanism. Application for these fellowships may be made only through the chair of graduate departments of art history and other appropriate departments, who act as sponsors for applicants from their respective schools. Applicants must have completed all relevant coursework, exams, and residency requirements and be certified in at least two other languages besides English. Awards are usually $25,000 for 12 months for up to three years. There are eight fellowships of different durations. A housing allowance is available for fellows not in residence. Fellows in residence are provided with housing in apartments near the Gallery in Washington, D.C., subject to availability. In addition, predoctoral fellows receive allowances for travel and research-related materials, depending on the terms of the fellowship. Candidates must be either U.S. citizens or enrolled in a U.S.-based university.

Deadline: November 15, annually (Applications will be available online beginning August 15, 2017.)

<http://www.nga.gov/content/ngaweb/research/casva/fellowships/predoctoral-dissertation-fellowships.html>

National Gallery of Art - Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts - Predoctoral Fellowships for Historians of American Art to Travel Abroad – Four fellowships for doctoral students in art history who are studying aspects of art and architecture of the U.S., including native and pre-Revolutionary America. This fellowship is for four to six weeks of continuous travel abroad in areas such as Africa, Asia, South America, or Europe, to sites of historical and cultural interest, including museums, exhibitions, collections, and monuments. The travel fellowship is intended to encourage a breadth of art-historical experience beyond the candidate's major field, not for the advancement of a dissertation. Preference will be given to those who have had little opportunity for research travel abroad. Application for a travel fellowship may be made only through nomination by the chair of a graduate department of art history or other appropriate department. Each department may support two candidates. The amount of the award depends on travel plan, with a maximum of $6,000. Deadline: November 15, 2017. (Applications will be available beginning August 15, 2017.)

<http://www.nga.gov/content/ngaweb/research/casva/fellowships/predoctoral-travel-fellowships.html>

III. B. Individual Funding Opportunities by Foundations, Non-governmental Organizations, and Professional Associations

III. B. (1) Funding Opportunities for International Research

Social Science Research Council (SSRC)

● International Dissertation Research Fellowship (IDRF) – Approximately 80 fellowships for nine to 12 months (averaging $20,000) for students in the humanities and social sciences. Funds are intended for use toward international research, but students may complete a maximum of three months of U.S.-based research. The IDRF is open to a variety of methodologies, but promotes comparisons across time and space. Must have passed qualifying exams by the time the fellowship begins or by December 2015, whichever comes first. Citizenship is unrestricted; student must be enrolled in an accredited U.S. institution. Last Deadline: November 1, 2016.

<http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/idrf-fellowship/>

● Japan Society for the Promotion of Science Fellowship – ABD doctoral and postdoctoral students in the social sciences and humanities are eligible. Fellowship is to be used for individual research and collaboration with Japanese colleagues. Topics need not be explicitly about Japan, but projects must include work with colleagues and resources in Japan. Award offers are made in early summer for fellowships that must commence between June 1 and November 30 (long-term) or June 1 and March 31

(short-term). Long-term fellows stay in Japan for one or two years; short-term fellows remain in Japan for one to 12 months. Long-term fellows must be either U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Japanese nationals are ineligible. For short term grants, citizens of other countries may be eligible if they have completed a master's or Ph.D. course at a U.S. university and, upon completing the course, have for at least three continuous years conducted high-level research in the U.S. Deadline: Not currently accepting applications. Contact japan@ssrc.org or at (212) 377-2700 for more information. <http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/jsps-fellowship/>

Asian Cultural Council – Grants for gifted artists, scholars, or graduate students to conduct research and study, receive specialized training, undertake observation tours, or pursue non-commercial creative activity in the United States or in Asia. Research cannot be conducted in the fellow's home country. Grants are process-oriented, not product-oriented. Open to citizens and permanent residents of the U.S. or of Asian countries from Afghanistan eastward through Japan and Indonesia. Website contains a more inclusive list of countries and disciplines supported by this grant. Deadline: November 2, annually (Applications will be available beginning September 1, 2017.) <http://www.asianculturalcouncil.org/> and <http://www.asianculturalcouncil.org/apply-now/individual-guidelines>

American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) Competitions and Deadlines – Website lists all open ACLS competitions with upcoming deadlines. <http://www.acls.org/programs/comps/>

- ACLS - Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation/ACLS Program in Buddhist Studies – Dissertation Fellowships, Postdoctoral Fellowships, and Collaborative Research Grants in humanities and social sciences of Buddhist Studies. No restrictions on the location of work proposed or the citizenship of applicants. Dissertation fellowships provide a stipend of $30,000 for 10 consecutive months beginning September 30, 2018. Recipients may use the funds for fieldwork, archival research, analysis of findings, or dissertation writing. Deadline: TBD (Applications should be available by the end of August 2017.) <http://www.acls.org/programs/buddhist-studies/>
- The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation/ACLS Dissertation Completion Fellowship – Stipend of $30,000 plus research costs of up to $3,000 and university fees of up to $5,000 during a one-year term beginning summer 2018. Applicants should be advanced graduate students in the humanities or related social sciences in the last year of Ph.D. dissertation writing. No citizenship restrictions.. Deadline: TBD (Applications should be available by the end of July 2017.) <http://www.acls.org/programs/acf/>
- Henry Luce/ACLS Dissertation Fellowships in American Art are available to ABD art history students in any stage of their Ph.D. dissertation writing on projects related to the history of visual arts in the United States. The fellowships may be carried out in residence at the fellow's home institution, abroad, or at another appropriate site for the research. Ten fellowships will be available for a non-renewable, one-year term beginning between June and September 2018 for the 2018-2019 academic year. Fellowships include a $25,000 stipend and $2,000 travel allowance. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Deadline: TBD (Applications should be available by the end of July 2017.) <http://www.acls.org/programs/american-art/>
- ACLS African Humanities Fellowships – Dissertation-completion and postdoctoral fellowships available to residents and nationals of a sub-Saharan African country with a current affiliation at an institution in Ghana, Nigeria, South Africa, Tanzania, or Uganda. Projects must be in the humanities and carried out in sub-Saharan Africa. Applicants should be in the final year of writing the dissertation. Award: $10,000 for dissertation completion; $17,000 for postdoctoral fellows. Deadline: November 2, 2017. (Instructions and applications should be available by the end of August 2017.) Applications must be submitted by email to ahp@acls.org. <http://www.acls.org/grants/Default.aspx?id=3210>
- Henry Luce Foundation/ACLS Program in China Studies: Pre-dissertation grant of $5,000 for 3-4 months of research in China in 2018 to prepare for beginning basic dissertation research. Postdoctoral Fellowship (up to $50,000 for two consecutive semesters between June 2018 and September 2019) and collaborative reading-workshop grants (up to $15,000 for workshops held between June 1, 2018 and September 2019) are also available. Applicants must work in the social sciences or humanities. Research in Taiwan, Tibet, or Hong Kong is eligible. Working knowledge of Chinese is required. Deadline: TBD (Applications should be available by the end of August 2017). <http://www.acls.org/programs/china-studies/>

UNESCO Fellowships Programmes – Various fellowships sponsored by UNESCO and China, Republic of Korea, Czech Republic, Poland, Russia, Israel, Japan, and Saudi Arabia. Fellowships are for specially tailored training. Deadlines: vary by nation; calls for applications tend to be announced in the winter/spring semesters for deadlines from late spring to early fall. <http://www.unesco.org/new/en/fellowships/>

Laura W. Bush Traveling Fellowship – Funding for 4-6 weeks (~$2,500) for a trip to a foreign country that prioritizes interaction with individuals from foreign nations. Applicants should be willing to participate in relevant diplomacy events with the embassy. Proposal should address the mandate of UNESCO – using education, natural sciences, social and human sciences, culture, and/or communication and information to build strong ties among nations. Fellowship is intended to support students who have shown an interest in international collaboration but have not yet traveled abroad. Applicants must be U.S. citizens between the ages of 18 and 25 at the time of application. Application materials should be emailed to DCUNESCO@state.gov. Last Deadline: February 22, 2016. <http://usascholarships.com/laura-w-bush-traveling-fellowship/>

Harvard Travellers Club Permanent Fund Research Grants – To foster research and/or exploration that involves travel as part of the project. One to three grants of up to $4,000 are made each year to persons with projects that involve intelligent travel and exploration. Preference is given to graduate students. The travel must be intimately involved with the research and/or exploration. Recipients must provide a short write-up of their findings. Deadline: rolling <http://www.travellersfund.org/#!application/cee5>

Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC) fellowships – Funds MA, PhD, and summer language learning programs at research centers in Rome, Mongolia, Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Cambodia, Iran, India, Jordan, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Yemen, Egypt, Bulgaria, Turkey, Greece, Cyprus, Mexico, Palestine, Iraq, and Senegal and planned new programs for Nepal and South Caucasus. Types of support vary by center, but may include short-term or long-term study and research (sometimes requiring affiliation with a local higher education institution), pre-doctoral short-term travel, and language study. CAORC also offers a Multi-Country Research Fellowship in which scholars in fields in the humanities, social sciences, or allied natural sciences can conduct research in more than one country, at least one of which hosts a participating American overseas research center. All applicants must be U.S. citizens. Deadlines: Rolling. <https://www.jotform.com/CAORC/jm-kaplan-fund>

<http://www.caorc.org/> has hyperlinks to all centers. For summary of multi-country program and several other programs organized in conjunction with affiliated partners: <http://caorc.org/fellowships/>

Members of the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (provides information on other fellowships for various levels of study with varying deadlines):

American Academy in Rome \(AAR\)

American Center for Mongolian Studies \(ACMS\)

American Center of Oriental Research \(ACOR\)

American Institute of Afghanistan Studies \(AIAS\)

American Institute of Bangladesh Studies \(AIBS\)
American Institute for Indonesian Studies \(AIFIS\)
American Institute of Iranian Studies \(AIrS\)
American Research Center in Egypt \(ARCE\)
American Research Center in Sofia \(ARCS\)
American Research Institute in Turkey \(ARIT\)
American Research Institute of the South Caucasus
American School of Classical Studies at Athens
Cyprus American Archaeological Research Institute
Center for Khmer Studies \(CKS\)

Mexico Research Network \(MRN\)
Palestinian American Research Center \(PARC\)
The American Academic Research Institute in Iraq
West African Research Association \(WARA\)
American Institute of Indian Studies \(AIIS\)
American Institute for Maghrib Studies \(AIMS\)
American Institute of Pakistan Studies \(AIPS\)
American Institute for Sri Lankan Studies \(AISLS\)
Association for Nepal and Himalayan Studies
American Institute for Yemeni Studies \(AIYS\)

West African Research Center Travel Grant – Travel grant funds may be used to 1) attend and present papers at academic conferences relevant to the applicant’s field of research; 2) visit libraries or archives that contain resources necessary to the applicant’s current academic work; 3) engage in collaborative work with colleagues at another institution; and 4) travel to a research site. Citizenship: Open only to West African nationals affiliated with institutions of higher education. Grant offers $1,500 in travel expenses and a $1,500 stipend. Deadline: September 15, 2017
http://www.bu.edu/wara/fellowship/fund_travel/

Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research

- Dissertation Fieldwork Grants – Up to $20,000 to support dissertation or thesis research that contributes to anthropological knowledge. Students must be enrolled in a doctoral program (or equivalent, if applying from outside the U.S.) at the time of application. There is no time limit on the duration of the grant, and funding may be requested to cover distinct research phases (for example, two summers) if this is part of the research design. There is no preference for any methodology, research location, or subfield. The Foundation particularly welcomes proposals that employ a comparative perspective, can generate innovative approaches or ideas, and/or integrate two or more subfields. Citizenship is unrestricted. Applicants must submit application materials online and also send five printed copies by regular mail. Applicants should expect a decision within 6 months. Deadlines: May 1 and November 1 each year. <http://www.wennergren.org/programs/dissertation-fieldwork-grants>
- Wadsworth International Fellowships – Support study leading to a Ph.D. or equivalent doctoral degree in anthropology, particularly for students who are in the early stages of their doctoral programs. Applicants must be from countries where anthropology is underrepresented and where there are limited resources to send students overseas for training. (See country list on the website.) Priority is given to applicants who have not already begun graduate training abroad and who are likely to return to an academic position in their home country upon completion of their degree. Fellowships of up to $17,500 per year are to be used towards travel, living expenses, tuition and other fees. The fellowship is renewable for up to two additional years upon successful completion of each preceding year's study/training. A separate application can be made for an additional year of funding to support dissertation write-up. Final decisions are made by May 1 annually. Deadline: March 1, annually (Materials are available three months before the application deadline.)
<http://www.wennergren.org/programs/wadsworth-international-fellowships>
- Engaged Anthropology Grant – Up to $5,000 for expenses to enable past Wenner-Gren grantees to return to their research locale to share their research results with the community in which the research was conducted and/or the academic/anthropological community in the region or country of research. Applications must be received within six years of the original approval date of the Dissertation Fieldwork grant. Grantees may apply for the Engaged Anthropology Grant before their doctorate is completed, but funds will not be awarded until the doctorate is in hand. Decisions on applications will be made within 3 months. Deadline: February 1 and August 1, annually. <http://www.wennergren.org/programs/engaged-anthropology-grant>

● Post-Ph.D. Research Grants – These are awarded to individuals holding a Ph.D. or equivalent degree to support individual research projects. The program contributes to the Foundation's overall mission to support basic research in anthropology and to ensure that the discipline continues to be a source of vibrant and significant work that furthers our understanding of humanity's cultural and biological origins, development, and variation. The Foundation supports research that demonstrates a clear link to anthropological theory and debates, and promises to make a solid contribution to advancing these ideas. There is no preference for any methodology, research location, or subfield. The Foundation particularly welcomes proposals that employ a comparative perspective, can generate innovative approaches or ideas, and/or integrate two or more subfields. The maximum amount of the Post-Ph.D. Research Grant is US $20,000. Deadlines: May 1 and November 1, annually. <http://www.wennergren.org/programs/post-phd-research-grants>

Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR) Mellon Fellowships for Dissertation Research in Original Sources – Fifteen fellowships annually of up to $25,000 ($2,000 per month for 9-12 months for dissertation research plus an additional $1,000 upon participating in a symposium on research in original sources and submitting an acceptable report to CLIR on the research experience). Fellows may propose to work in more than one repository during the fellowship period, including repositories abroad. Preference is given to applicants working away from their home institutions. The grant aims to aid scholars in gaining skills and creativity in developing knowledge from original sources and to provide funding to conduct research using relevant sources rather than where financial resources are available. Projects to conduct interviews or oral histories or to create primary source material are not eligible. Covers many fields of humanities and social sciences. Citizenship is unrestricted. Last deadline: December 2, 2016; Applications for the 2018-2019 cycle should be available in August 2017. <http://www.clir.org/fellowships/mellon/mellon.html>

Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation Dissertation Fellowships – Support of $20,000 for research concerning violence, aggression, and dominance in relation to social change, the socialization of children, intergroup conflict, interstate warfare, crime, family relationships, and investigations of the control of aggression and violence. Ten or more dissertation fellowships awarded each year. Citizenship is unrestricted. This fellowship does not support doctoral research; it is only appropriate for the dissertation writing stage; applicants should be confident that they will finish their dissertation within one year. Priority is given to areas and methodologies not receiving adequate attention and support from other funding sources. Deadline: February 1, annually. Decisions will be made in June. <http://www.hfg.org/df/guidelines.htm>

Guggenheim Museum Hilla Rebay International Fellowship – Ten-month fellowship for in-depth professional training, spending at least three months at each of the following: Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum in New York, Guggenheim Museum Bilbao, and Peggy Guggenheim Collection in Venice. Fellows will receive funding of $30,000 (subject to taxes) and gain exposure to Museum operations, including Curatorial, Education, and Registration. Minimum MA/MPhil in art history or related academic fields. Doctoral candidates or recent Ph.D. graduates are encouraged to apply. Candidates must have fluency in spoken and written English, Spanish, and Italian. Deadline: May 15, annually; decisions by late July. <https://www.bu.edu/artsadmin/2016/04/27/hilla-rebay-international-fellowship/>

Ford Foundation Fellowship Programs For Achieving Excellence in College and University Teaching –

Membership in an underrepresented group is considered a positive factor. The awards will be made to individuals who have demonstrated superior academic achievement, are committed to a career in teaching and research at the college or university level, show promise of future achievement as scholars and teachers, and are well prepared to use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. <http://sites.nationalacademies.org/pga/fordfellowships/>

Two programs:

● Ford Foundation Predoctoral Fellowships: Approximately 60 three-year predoctoral fellowships for U.S. citizens, nationals, and permanent residents in many disciplines. (See website for a complete list.) Provides a $24,000 stipend plus tuition and fees each year and expenses to attend at least one Conference of Ford Fellows. Fellows must begin their first year's tenure no later than September 1, 2016. Applications will be available online by late September 2015. Deadline: December 14, 2017; supplementary materials received by January 9, 2018.

http://sites.nationalacademies.org/PGA/FordFellowships/PGA_047958 and

http://sites.nationalacademies.org/PGA/FordFellowships/PGA_166320

● Ford Foundation Dissertation Fellowships: Approximately 36 one-year fellowships in numerous disciplines for U.S. citizens, nationals, and permanent residents to support final year of dissertation writing. (See website for a complete list.) Fellows who receive an award for the 2016-2017 cycle should complete their dissertation no later than the fall 2017 semester. Provides a $25,000 stipend and expenses paid to attend at least one Conference of Ford Fellows. Deadline: December 7, 2017, with supplementary materials due on January 9, 2018.

http://sites.nationalacademies.org/PGA/FordFellowships/PGA_047959 and

http://sites.nationalacademies.org/PGA/FordFellowships/PGA_166318

American Sociological Association (ASA) Minority Fellowship Program – Supports the development and training of sociologists of color who are U.S. citizens and permanent residents in any sub-area or specialty in the discipline for a career in research and to address questions important not only to the discipline of sociology but also to the development of society. Past fellows have focused their research on aspects of social psychology, gender and sexuality, education, medicine and health, inequalities and stratification, race and ethnicity, and more. The annual stipend for each award cycle of August 1- July 31 is $18,000. In addition, arrangements for the payments of tuition are made with universities or departments. Deadline: January 31; application opens in November.

<http://www.asanet.org/funding/mfp.cfm>

Association of American Geographers (AAG) Dissertation Research Grants – Grants of up to $1,000 for doctoral dissertation research of any geographic specialty. Applicants must have been AAG members for at least one year at the time of submission. Applicants also must be ABD by the end of the semester or term following approval of the award. Deadline: December 31, annually.

<http://www.aag.org/cs/grants/dissertation>

American Historical Association – Two grants of up to $1,000 to support research on historical topics. Applicants must be members of the AHA. Preference will be given to advanced doctoral students, non-tenured faculty, and unaffiliated scholars and to those with specific research needs such as the completion of a project or discrete segment thereof.

● Albert J. Beveridge Grant for Research in the History of the Western Hemisphere – Can be used to study the history of Canada and Latin America. Deadline: February 15, annually.

<http://www.historians.org/awards-and-grants/grants-and-fellowships>

●The Bernadotte Schmitt Grant for Research in the European, African, or Asian History – Can be used to study the histories of Europe, Asia, and Africa. Deadline: February 15, annually.

<http://www.historians.org/awards-and-grants/grants-and-fellowships>

American Psychological Association Dissertation Research Award – Thirty to forty $1,000 awards and several $5,000 awards to assist science-oriented doctoral students of psychology with research costs. Applicants must be members of the APA. Applicants must be in psychology department or conducting a psychology-focused dissertation. A psychology department can endorse no more than 3 applications per a year. Deadline: September 1, 2017. <http://www.apa.org/about/awards/scidir-dissertre.aspx>

Society for the Study of School Psychology Dissertation Grant Award –Four awards of up to $5,000 to students conducting well-designed empirical research that contributes to advancing the scientific base of school psychology. Fellows must have a proposed plan to work closely with a mentor. No citizenship restrictions. Deadline: Requests for proposals are typically made in spring and fall and are announced on major school psychology listservs. http://ssspresearch.org/awards?quicktabs_7=1

National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) Academic Advising Research Support Grant – Up to $5,000 awarded to practicing professionals and graduate students from any institution (U.S. or international) seeking support for research in academic advising. Quantitative, qualitative, or mixed methodologies are welcome, particularly proposals that document the outcomes of different advising models. Applications open one month before the stated deadlines. Deadlines: November 1, 2017; March 15, 2018. <http://www.nacada.ksu.edu/Events-Programs/Awards/Research-Grants.aspx> and <http://www.nacada.ksu.edu/Resources/Research-Related/ResearchGrant.aspx>

National Academy of Education/Spencer Dissertation Fellowship Program Application - The Dissertation Fellowship Program seeks to encourage a new generation of scholars from a wide range of disciplines and professional fields to undertake research relevant to the improvement of education. These $27,500 fellowships support individuals whose dissertations show potential for bringing fresh and constructive perspectives to the history, theory, analysis, or practice of formal or informal education anywhere in the world. Applicants need not be citizens of the U.S. but must be enrolled in an U.S. degree-granting institution. <https://naeducation.org/> Deadline: Submissions for the 2018 fellowship will be accepted beginning Fall 2017. <https://naeducation.org/naedspencer-dissertation-fellowship-program/>

National Academy of Education
500 5th St, NW
Washington, DC 20001

American Educational Research Association (AERA) Dissertation Grants – Program supported by NSF for research about U.S. education using large national or international datasets. Up to 15 $20,000 awards annually for one-year project. Proposals should 1) develop or benefit from new qualitative methodological approaches, 2) incorporate subject matter expertise, especially in STEM fields, 3) analyze TIMSS, PISA, or other international data resources, and 4) include integration and analysis of more than one data set. The association encourages minority students and those researching diverse populations to apply. Grantees will also participate in a 2-day conference in Washington, D.C. Eligible: U.S. or non-U.S. citizens but must be working at a U.S. institution. Deadline: August 31, 2017. <http://www.aera.net/ProfessionalOpportunitiesFunding/FundingOpportunities/AERAGrantsProgram/DissertationGrants/tabid/12812/Default.aspx>

American Educational Research Association (AERA) Minority Dissertation Fellowship in Education Research – Offers dissertation support targeted to members of racial and ethnic groups historically underrepresented in higher education. $19,000 stipend for one year beginning July 1, 2016 or later, and up to $1,000 in travel support to attend the AERA conference. Fellows may also receive funding to attend a poster session in San Antonio, Texas and a career development workshop. Applicants should be at the dissertation-writing phase of their development. For U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Last Deadline: November 1, 2016.

<http://www.aera.net/ProfessionalOpportunitiesFunding/FundingOpportunities/AERAMinorityFellowshipProgram/tabid/10243/Default.aspx>

International Education Research Foundation - Sepmeyer Research Grant Program – Supports research, disseminates information on world educational systems, and facilitates the integration of individuals educated outside the United States into the U.S. educational environment and work force. Applicants' proposals should address: 1) supporting research for the evaluation of foreign academic credentials; 2) promoting the integration of students, scholars and professionals holding non-U.S. academic credentials into the United States; 3) facilitating the publication and dissemination of the results of the research; and 4) encouraging the exchange of information about the structure of educational systems and their corresponding credentials. Scholars are eligible regardless of citizenship or residence. Fellows will receive grants of up to $1,000. Deadlines: February 15 or August 15, annually.

http://ierf.org/index.php/individuals/new-applicants/research_grants/

Phi Delta Kappa Graduate Fellowships – Phi Delta Kappa offer several fellowships with different foci. (Website has a complete list.) Applicants should be good-standing members of PDK. Last Deadline: June 1, 2017. <http://pdkintl.org/programs-resources/scholarships-awards/graduate-fellowships/>

Phi Kappa Phi Grants – The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi offers various grants and fellowships with varying deadlines for dues paying members. Considers itself to be a global network of leading scholars in a variety of disciplines. Deadline: varies. <http://www.phikappaphi.org/grants-awards#.VdimVbxViko>

ACPA Foundation Grants Program – Supports research that enhances the student affairs profession and disseminates knowledge about college students. Proposals are evaluated based on the importance and usefulness of the topic to student affairs professionals and the strength of the research methodology. Applicants must be ACPA members. Grants usually range from $1,000 to $2,500 for a one-year project; multi-year grants are also available. Last deadline: July 1, annually.

<http://www.myacpa.org/acpa-foundation-grant-information> and
<http://foundation.myacpa.org/whatwedo/research-and-grants/>

ACPA AOFYE Grant – AOFYE and the National Research Center for the First Year Experience and Students in Transition (NRCFYESIT) will jointly award one $500 grant to promote original, descriptive, or evaluative research; philosophical studies; or institutional assessment or evaluation on issues surrounding admissions, orientation, and/or the first-year experience. Grant is open to faculty, staff, and graduate students, but priority is given to research projects that are further along in their development. Must be an ACPA member, submit a midterm and final project report, and be willing to present findings at an ACPA conference and submit work to the ACPA journal. Last Deadline: November 18, 2016.

<http://www.myacpa.org/aofye-research-grant-guidelines>

The International Reading Association (IRA) offers several fellowships for current members of IRA. No citizenship restrictions.

- Jeanne S. Chall Research Fellowship – $6,000 grant open to doctoral students who are planning or beginning their dissertations and to university-based graduate students who are embarking on their independent research studies focused on reading. See grant webpage for a list of eligible topics.

Deadline: January 15, annually. <https://www.literacyworldwide.org/about-us/awards-grants/ila-jeanne-s-chall-research-fellowship>

- Helen M. Robinson Grant – $1,200 given annually to assist doctoral students at the early stages of their dissertation research in the area of reading and literacy, focusing on instructional interventions. Recipients must have dissertation proposal successfully defended in order to apply. Deadline: January 15, annually. <https://www.literacyworldwide.org/about-us/awards-grants/ila-helen-m-robinson-grant>

- Steven A. Stahl Research Grant – $1,000 award given to a graduate student who has at least three years of pre-K-12 teaching experience. Research must be conducted in the classroom (including action research), focused on improving reading instruction and children’s reading achievement. Deadline: January 15, annually. <https://www.literacyworldwide.org/about-us/awards-grants/ila-steven-a-stahl-research-grant>

- Elva Knight Research Grant – Up to $8,000 fellowship to support research in reading and literacy. Deadline: January 15, annually. <https://www.literacyworldwide.org/about-us/awards-grants/ila-elva-knight-research-grant>

Pi Lambda Theta Research Grants – Grants between $500 and $4,000 can be used for tuition, research, or education-related projects. Research related projects can be either an independent project or part of a larger project, such as a dissertation. An applicant must have been a member of Pi Lambda Theta for at least one year before applying. No citizenship requirement. Website lists several grants. Deadlines: April 1, annually. <http://pilambda.org/about-plt/scholarships/>

Educational Testing Services (ETS) – Several graduate and post-doctoral fellowship and internship opportunities in educational measurement. Independent research projects should align with the interests of ETS. <http://www.ets.org/research/fellowships/>

- Harry Gulliksen Psychometric Research Fellowship – During the academic year, selected fellows study at their universities and carry out research under the supervision of an academic mentor and in consultation with an ETS researcher or psychometrician. During the summer, fellows may participate in the Summer Internship Program in Research for Graduate Students, working under the guidance of an ETS mentor. The goal of this program is to increase the number of well-trained scientists in educational assessment, psychometrics and statistics. Fellows are awarded a $19,000 stipend and $8,000 tuition for one-year fellowships. Applicants must be enrolled in a doctoral program and must be at the dissertation phase of their program. Last Deadline: December 30, 2016. <http://www.ets.org/research/internship-fellowship/gulliksen>

- Summer Internship Program in Research for Graduate Students – An 8-week summer internship program in the ETS offices in Princeton, N.J. Interns also participate in seminars and workshops; each intern must give a brief presentation about his or her project at the conclusion of the internship. Internship provides a $6,000 stipend, transportation and housing. In 2015, the program lasted from June 1 through July 24. Last Deadline: February 1, 2016. <http://www.ets.org/research/internship-fellowship/summer>

Graduate Women International – Offers various grants for female graduate students to conduct international research. Deadlines: Next available award applications will be available in 2019. Vary by membership status. <http://www.graduatewomen.org/what-we-do/grants-fellowships/>

American Association of University Women (AAUW) – Grants are available for graduate students, professional students, and recent Ph.D. graduates. <http://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/educational-funding-and-awards/>

● American Fellowships Dissertation Fellowships – $20,000 grants to support women doctoral candidates who will complete their dissertation writing. The American Dissertation Fellowship must be used for the final year of writing the dissertation. Applicants must have completed all coursework, passed all preliminary exams, and had the dissertation research proposal or plan approved by November 15, 2016. The doctoral degree/dissertation must be completed between April 1 and June 30, 2018. Degree conferral must be between April 1 and September 15, 2018. Students engaged in science, technology, engineering, and math fields or researching gender issues are especially encouraged to apply. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. by November 15, 2017. Deadline: November 15, 2017. <http://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/educational-funding-and-awards/american-fellowships/> and <http://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/educational-funding-and-awards/american-fellowships/af-dissertation-application/>

Mary Isabel Sibley Fellowship – $20,000 fellowship for unmarried women 25 to 35 years of age who have completed doctoral work except for dissertation. The fellowship is awarded alternately in the Greek or French studies. The award may be used for the study of Greek language, literature, history, or archaeology, or the study of French language or literature. Need not be Phi Beta Kappa member or U.S. citizen. Deadline: 2018 French studies cycle will start on October 1, 2017. The 2019 Greek studies cycle will open in fall 2018.

https://www.pbk.org/WEB/PBK_Member/PROGRAMS/AWARDS_FELLOWSHIPS/Sibley_Fellowship/PBK_Member/Programs/Awards_Fellowships/Sibley_Fellowship.aspx?hkey=fe51c0cb-0859-40c6-965f-665744f69cab. Application: <https://www.pbk.org/WEB/pbkdocs/Sibley2013.pdf>

Sigma Delta Epsilon Graduate Women in Science Fellowships – Ten awards annually of $1,000-$10,000 to graduate students, postdoctorates, or junior faculty for research “in all the natural sciences, including: physical, environmental, mathematical, computer, life sciences, anthropology, psychology and statistics.” Recipients are encouraged to be members of SDE/GWIS. Deadline: January 15, annually. (Information for the 2018-2019 grant cycle will be able in fall 2017.)

http://www.gwis.org/?page=fellowship_program

The Margaret McNamara Memorial Fund (MMMMF) – Grants of $12,000 for women (at least 25 years old by the end of year apply for grant) studying in Canada or the U.S. or at Universities of Cape Town, Pretoria, Stellenbosch and Witwatersrand in South Africa. Applicants must be a citizen of a country listed on the website (which excludes the U.S. or Canada). Recipients must return to their home countries after the grant and perform two years of service. Last deadline: January 16, 2016 (Different deadlines apply for studying in South African universities.) www.mmmf-grants.org and <http://www.mmmf-grants.org/home/uscanada-program>

The World Bank Robert S. McNamara Fellowships Program – Provides up to $25,000 for preparing a doctoral thesis to lecturers and researchers under age 35 working in academic and research institutions from countries listed with the World Bank as a developing country. Research grants cover residence costs for 5-10 months in a renowned university or research center. The field of research must be related to development at the master's level, in fields such as economics, health, education, agriculture, environment, natural resource management, or other development-related subject. Researchers must commit to return to their home countries after completing their fellowship to continue work toward a Ph.D. Last Deadline: December 14, 2016.

<http://web.worldbank.org/WBSITE/EXTERNAL/WBI/EXTWBISFP/0,,menuPK:551559~pagePK:64168427~piPK:64168435~theSitePK:551553,00.html> and
<http://web.worldbank.org/WBSITE/EXTERNAL/WBI/EXTWBISFP/EXTRSMFP/0,,contentMDK:21588557~menuPK:563061~pagePK:64168445~piPK:64168309~theSitePK:551843,00.html>

Joao Havelange Research Scholarship – FIFA grants scholarships of up to $30,000 to support academic research connected with football (soccer) in any of the following fields: law, economics, sociology, ethics, geography, history and medicine. Researchers are free to choose the subjects themselves, but FIFA and CIES may promote some specific subjects, taking into account academic priorities or topical themes. These research areas will be announced on the CIES website. Deadline: September 1, annually http://resources.fifa.com/mm/document/footballdevelopment/education/65/72/88/2011_brochure_joao_havelange_scholarship_final_2011.pdf

American Councils for International Education – Grant Competitions for Graduate Students for students currently enrolled in a Master's or doctoral degree program. These programs have been suspended pending reinstatement of Title VIII funding: Title VIII Combined Research and Language Training Program, Title VIII Research Scholar Program, and Title VIII Southeast European Language Training Program. <http://researchfellowships.americancouncils.org/graduatestudents>

University of Illinois Summer Research Laboratory – A summer program sponsored by the Russian, East European, and Eurasian Center at the University of Illinois to support graduate students and faculty using the Slavic library at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, the largest in North America. The program offers waived housing fees for staying in campus-run apartments and up to $300 to cover travel expenses for domestic students. International students from select countries may receive more. The Fisher Fellow Award also covers all program costs for advanced graduate students and recent Ph.Ds. who can attend the program in June and are interested in receiving bibliographic training. Last deadline: March 15, 2017 for both program and funding <http://www.reeec.illinois.edu/srl/> and <http://www.reeec.illinois.edu/srl/grants/index.html>

Paul and Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans – 30 fellowships each year for up to two years of graduate study in the U.S. for New Americans, immigrants, and the children of immigrants. The program is open to individuals who retain loyalty and a sense of commitment to their country of origin as well as to the U.S., but is intended to support individuals who will continue to regard the U.S. as their principal residence and focus of national identity. Each award is up to $25,000 for maintenance grants and up to $20,000 in tuition support each year; overall, the total award amount over two years is up to $90,000. Must not have reached 31st birthday by time of application. Must have applied to or be enrolled in a Ph.D. granting program. Deadline: November 1, 2017 <http://www.pdsoros.org/>

Smith Richardson Foundation: International Security and Foreign Policy Program and Domestic Public Policy Program – Funding to support Ph.D. dissertation research (fieldwork, archival research, or language training) on U.S. foreign policy, international relations, international security, strategic studies, area studies, and diplomatic and military history.. There are two separate fellowships for International Security and Domestic Public Policy. Applicants submit a concept paper and a grant proposal <https://www.srf.org/programs/domestic-public-policy/>; the decision committee will request additional materials from selected applicants. Deadline: Rolling. <http://www.srf.org/>

Charlotte Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships – $25,000 for 12 months of full-time dissertation writing on ethical or religious values in all fields of the humanities and social sciences. At least 22 non-renewable fellowships awarded to students who have completed all pre-dissertation requirements, including approval of the dissertation proposal, and are at the writing stage of the dissertation.. Last Deadline: November 15, 2016. <http://woodrow.org/fellowships/newcombe/>

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars Fellowships

<http://www.wilsoncenter.org/fellowships-grants>

- Woodrow Wilson Dissertation Fellowships in Women's Studies – Offers $5,000 award to approximately 10 doctoral candidates doing original and significant research about women that crosses disciplinary, regional, or cultural boundaries. Supports the final year of dissertation writing for Ph.D. candidates in the humanities and social sciences. Funds may be used for expenses connected with completing dissertations, such as research-related travel, data work/collection, and supplies. Citizenship is unrestricted. Last Deadline: October 15, 2016. <http://woodrow.org/fellowships/womens-studies/>

- The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation also offers Mellon Foundation Fellowships for dissertation completion and travel and research. Both grants are open only to graduate students who previously participated in the Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship Program. The dissertation grant is available to students who have completed all pre-dissertation requirements and are preparing to write their dissertation. The grant offers up to $20,000 for a 12-month period. The travel and research grant is available to students who have completed all pre-dissertation requirements, including approval of dissertation topic. The grant offers up to $5,000 for one summer or one semester and can be used to cover dissertation research, travel to/from research sites, and photocopying of documents and/or purchasing access to databases for research purposes. Last Deadlines: December 2, 2016 (Dissertation grant) and March 17, 2017 (Travel and research grant) 2018 grant cycles will open in September 2017. <http://woodrow.org/fellowships/mellon/dissertation-grants/> and <http://woodrow.org/fellowships/mellon/travel-and-research-grants/>

Kennan Institute of the Woodrow Wilson Center – Offers several grants to conduct research on the former Soviet Union through the Wilson Center in Washington, D.C., providing access to the archives there. The Eastern European Short Term Research Grants and Summer.

<https://www.wilsoncenter.org/kennan-institute-fellowships-and-internships>

Council for European Studies (CES) Pre-Dissertation Research Fellowships – Grant includes a $4,000 stipend for two months abroad, travel support for attending and presenting at the CES International Conference for Europeanists, and the opportunity to publish in the bi-yearly Perspectives on Europe. The fellowship is intended to fund fellows' first research project in Europe. Fellows must be in the early, exploratory stage of their research and possess the necessary language skills to complete their project. Awards include 20 Pre-Dissertation Research Fellowships for students working on general topics in European Studies, one pre-dissertation Research Fellowship for a student working in Portuguese Studies, and one pre-dissertation Research Fellowship for a student in anthropology on a topic in European Studies. Student must attend a university that is a member of the Council for European Studies Academic Consortium (which includes MSU). Last deadline: January 15, 2017 (2018 application cycle opens October 1, 2017). <http://councilforeuropeanstudies.org/grants-and-awards/pre-dissertation-research>

- Mellon-CES Dissertation Completion Fellowship in European Studies for ABD students (year 5 or beyond) who are U.S. citizens or green card holders. These fellowships include a $25,000 stipend paid as well as assistance in securing reimbursements or waivers in eligible health insurance and candidacy fees. Winners are expected to participate in professional development activities organized by the CES such as publishing in Perspectives on Europe, presenting at the International Conference for Europeanists, and participating in digital and in-person seminars and workshops. Must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. Last deadline: February 1, 2017 (2018 cycle opens October 1, 2017).

<http://councilforeuropeanstudies.org/grants-and-awards/dissertation-completion>

Erasmus+ Programme (previously Erasmus Mundus) – Provides several options for Masters and doctoral level study in Europe. Doctoral candidates may apply to spend a study/research/teaching period in an Erasmus Mundus joint program or cooperation partnership. No citizenship restrictions. Deadline: TBD; Most consortia will require applications to be submitted between October and January, for courses starting the following academic year.

http://eacea.ec.europa.eu/erasmus_mundus/funding/scholarships_students_academics_en.php and http://ec.europa.eu/education/opportunities/higher-education/index_en.htm

Alexander S. Onassis Public Benefit Foundation – Grants and scholarships for research, study and artistic endeavor in Greece. Applicants must not be citizens of Greece and include graduate students and doctoral candidates, among others. Last deadline: February 28, 2017.

<http://www.onassis.gr/en/scholarships-foreigners.php>

L.S.B. Leakey Foundation

● General Research Grants – For research related to human origins, including paleoanthropology, primate behavior, and studies of modern hunter-gatherer groups. Grants open to ABD doctoral students are in the $3,000-$15,000 range. No citizenship restrictions. Deadlines: January 10 and July 15 annually.

<http://www.leakeyfoundation.org/research-grants/>

● Leakey Franklin Mosher Baldwin Memorial Fellowships – For anthropology scholars and students who are citizens of an African country for a program of approved advanced special training or studies leading towards an M.A or Ph.D. at an institution outside the student's home country. Must have a mentor at their home university and proposed university of study. Welcome disciplines include paleoanthropology, archaeology, and primatology. The maximum award is $12,000 per year for two years. Deadline: February 15, annually.

http://www.iefaf.org/scholarships/573/Franklin_Mosher_Baldwin_Memorial_Fellowship

W. F. Albright Institute of Archaeological Research – Fellowships for students and scholars in Ancient Near Eastern Studies from prehistory through the early Islamic period, including the fields of archaeology, anthropology, art history, Bible, epigraphy, historical geography, history, language, literature, philology and religion and related disciplines. Deadline: TBD, check website for updates.

<http://www.aiar.org/available-fellowships/>

● Education and Cultural Affairs Junior Research Fellowships – $31,000 for up to three awards from 4.5 – 9 months. Room and half-board at the Institute is $1,078 per month. Open to doctoral students and recent Ph.D. recipients who are U.S. citizens. Deadline: TBD.

● Mediterranean Regional Research Fellowship Program will enable doctoral and post-doctoral students to conduct research in the humanities and related social sciences in countries bordering the Mediterranean and served by American overseas research centers. Awards range from $5,700-$33,600 depending on length of study. Deadline: TBD.

● Noble Group Fellowships for Chinese Students and Scholars – $75,000 available for up to five awards with a maximum grant of $25,000 for nine months and $12,500 for 4.5 months. Room and half-board at the Institute is $1,078 per month. Open to Chinese citizens who are doctoral students or post-doctoral scholars and are doing research in China or at institutions in other countries. Deadline: TBD

● George A. Barton Fellowships – $5,000 award for 2 months. The stipend is $2,844; room and half-board at the Institute is $2,156. Open to all doctoral students and recent Ph.D. recipients of all nationalities. Deadline: TBD.

● Carol and Eric Meyers Doctoral Dissertation Research Fellowship – $5,000 award for 2 months. The stipend is $2,844; room and half-board at the Institute is $2,156. Students of all nationalities at the doctoral level are eligible. While all topics will be considered, those involving the study of archaeology and society at the household level are encouraged. Deadline: TBD.

Archaeological Institute of America Fellowships – Eight fellowship programs for travel and study in Portugal, Greece, Italy, Berlin, other parts of Europe and Asia, and the U.S. Grants are open to members of the Archaeological Institute of America at the dissertation research or write-up stage.

Anna C. & Oliver C. Colburn Fellowship provides support for study at the American School of Classical Study at Athens (Deadline: January 15, 2018).

DAI Fellowship for Study in Berlin encourages and supports North American scholars wishing to explore archaeology in Berlin (Deadline: November 30, 2017).

Deadline for all other grants: November 1, 2017. <http://www.archaeological.org/grants>

American Schools of Oriental Research Fellowships to participate in excavations in the Eastern Mediterranean, including Cyprus, Jerusalem, and Jordan – Most grants range from $500 to $1,500. Last deadline: February 15, 2017. <http://www.asor.org/fellowships/excavation-grants-fellowships/>

Boehringer Ingelheim Fonds - Ph.D. Fellowships (for Basic Biomedical Research in Europe) – Grants for outstanding young scientists (maximum age of 27 years) to pursue a Ph.D. project of approximately three years in basic biomedical research in an internationally leading laboratory. Fellowship comprises a monthly stipend initially granted for two years, which can be extended for up to 12 months. The grant supports European citizens working in Europe and overseas, as well as students from overseas pursuing their Ph.D. project in Europe. The Ph.D. project must be experimental, in the field of basic biomedical research and aimed at elucidating basic biological phenomena of human life and acquiring new scientific knowledge. Natural scientists should have been awarded their diploma or equivalent degree; physicians, veterinary surgeons and pharmacists should have passed their state examinations. At the deadline, the applicant should not have been working on his/her project for more than 6 months. Deadlines: February 1, June 1, and October 1 annually. <http://www.bifonds.de/fellowships-grants/phd-fellowships.html>

● Short-term Pre-dissertation Travel Grants for European citizens working in Europe and abroad as well as students from overseas working in Europe. Grants are awarded for visits ranging from four weeks to three months and include a flat-rate amount that may cover the expenses for travel, lodging, and course fees. Goal is to learn clearly-defined research methods and/or evaluate the scientific and personal prerequisites before embarking on a PhD thesis. Deadline: Applications may be submitted at any time but must be received at least six weeks before planned date of departure.

<http://www.bifonds.de/fellowships-grants/travel-grants.html>

American-Scandinavian Foundation Fellowship for Study in Scandinavia – Fellowships and grants for research or graduate study in any discipline in one or more Scandinavian country for up to one year. Fellowships provide up to $23,000 for one year of dissertation-related study or research. Grants provide up to $5,000 for research or study visits of 1-3 months. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Some ability in the language of the host country is preferred. Deadline: November 1, annually. http://www.amscan.org/fellowships_grants.html and <http://www.amscan.org/fellowships-and-grants/fellowshipsgrants-to-study-in-scandinavia/>

Additional funding sources for study and research in Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden: <http://www.amscan.org/fellowships-and-grants/alternate-funding-sources-for-study-or-research-in-denmark-finland-iceland-norway-and-sweden/>

Centre for International Mobility (CIMO) Fellowships Research in Finland – Grants for young doctoral students and researchers from all countries and all academic fields. The primary target group is students who will be doing their doctorate (or double doctorate) at a Finnish university. Visiting doctoral-level students and researchers who are doing their doctorate degree at a foreign university can also be considered, provided that the motivation letter of the hosting Finnish university department presents exceptionally good grounds for the application. Funds 3-12 months, with monthly allowance of 1,500 Euros. Must have a Finnish university host sponsor. Deadline: Rolling. Must be submitted at least 5 months before the proposed scholarship period.

http://www.studyinfinland.fi/tuition_and_scholarships/cimo_scholarships/cimo_fellowships

Berlin Program for Advanced German and European Studies – Up to one year of research support at the Freie Universität Berlin for scholars in social sciences and humanities disciplines, including historians working on the period since the mid-18th century. Applications accepted from U.S. and Canadian nationals and permanent or long-term residents. Applicants for a dissertation fellowship must be full-time graduate students enrolled at a North American university who have achieved ABD status by the time the proposed research stay in Berlin begins. Also eligible are U.S. and Canadian Ph.Ds. who have received their doctorates within the past two calendar years. Stipends include $1,400 Euros per month and round-trip airfare. Applications should be available by the end of September 2015 for the 2016-2017 grant cycle. Deadline: December 1, annually. <http://www.fu-berlin.de/en/sites/bprogram/>

Germany Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) Research Grants – For undergraduate seniors, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers (two years or less beyond the PhD) in all fields to undertake up to 10 months independent study or a master's program in Germany. Ten-month grants may be extended for an additional year to cover the cost of completing a master's degree. Funding dates coincide with the German academic year (October 1, 2018 to July 31, 2019). Awards include stipends of 750 Euros, health insurance, rent subsidy, family allowance, and travel costs. Candidates must have ABD status by the application deadline (short-term grants) or by the start of the grant period (long-term grants). Must also have proof of a contact at a German academic institution and have completed a language evaluation. More detailed information will be available on the website after August 31, 2017. Deadlines: TBD. <https://www.daad.org/en/find-funding/scholarship-database/>

Institute for European History - Residential Fellowships (Mainz, Germany) in arts, history, and social sciences, specializing in the history of occidental religion, ecumenical research on the Reformation in Europe, and general history from the 16th to the 20th centuries. Awardees receive a monthly stipend of $1,200 for 6-12 months of research. Deadline: August 15, 2017.

http://www.ieg-mainz.de/en/publications/ieg_digitaland <http://www.ieg-mainz.de/en/studentships/promotion>

http://www.ieg-mainz.de/en/fellowships/funding/doctoral_fellowships

Alexander von Humboldt Foundation Germany Chancellor Fellowship for Tomorrow's Leaders – For citizens of the U.S., Brazil, India, Russia, and China for one year of research in Germany in multiple disciplines such as politics and public policy, law, media, business, the non-governmental sector, and the arts. Fellowship provides a monthly fellowship of 2,150-2,750 Euros to up to 50 young professionals. Offers mentors, support for family members, money toward German language courses, and a study tour of Germany. Deadline: 15 September, annually. The fellowship begins on 1 October of the following year. https://www.humboldt-foundation.de/pls/web/docs/F29497/programme_information.pdf and <http://www.humboldt-foundation.de/web/4074.html>

American Council on Germany –

● Goldman Fellowships for the Study of German and European Politics, Political Economy, and International Affairs – Topics may include German economic and foreign policy and the evolution of U.S.-European relations. Fellows are required to develop research itineraries in consultation with the American Council on Germany. Ph.D. dissertation research candidates are eligible. Applicants must be U.S. citizens aged 45 or younger. Knowledge of the German language is not a prerequisite. Awardees receive travel funds as well as a per diem stipend of $200 for up to 28 days in Germany. Deadline: July 31, 2017. <https://www.acgusa.org/fellowships/goldman/>

● Hunt Fellowships for scholarship on contemporary German society and the political, cultural, and social history of Germany – Like Goldman Fellows, Hunt Fellows receive travel funds as well as a per diem stipend of $200 for up to 28 days in Germany. Hunt Fellowship projects should focus on German politics, society, and culture, particularly from a historical perspective. Deadline: July 31, 2017. <https://www.acgusa.org/fellowships/hunt/>

Leo Baeck Institute – Offers several fellowships for those studying the German-Jewish community. Also provides an award to American scholars in connection with the DAAD. Deadlines vary based on the award. <http://www.lbi.org/about/fellowships/>

● Fritz Halberts Fellowships – For research projects concerning the culture and history of the German-speaking Jewry. Up to $3,000 of support to be used by the end of the year in which the grant is awarded. Decisions are sent in January following the deadline. Deadline: November 2017.

<https://www.lbi.org/about/fellowships/fritz-halbers-fellowship/>

● Leo Baeck Fellowship Program – Fellowships are awarded to doctoral students who pursue their research in the history and culture of German-speaking Jewry. Besides financial support for one year, the program offers regular workshops, jointly organized by the Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes and the Leo Baeck Institute London. The program particularly aims at doctoral students who wish to carry out research in more than one country; it is open to students of any nationality at any institution of higher education. Fellows receive a stipend of 1,150 EUR per month. Monthly supplements and travel allowances may be requested for research trips and conference participation. Deadline: February 2018 <https://www.lbi.org/2013/12/announcement-leo-baeck-fellowship-programme/>

Kress Foundation Fellowships – Offers six pre-doctoral fellowships of $30,000 in the History of Art for completion of dissertation research. Awards are made to art historians and art conservators in the final stages of their preparation for professional careers, as well as to students of art history and related fields who are interested in art museum education and curating. Fellowships are held in association with institutes in Florence, Leiden, Munich, Paris, Rome and London. For both awards, individuals must be nominated by their art history department (maximum of one nomination per department). Must be U.S. citizen or studying at U.S. institution. Deadline: November 30, annually for fellowship and travel grants. <http://www.kressfoundation.org/fellowships/default.aspx?id=52>
<http://www.kressfoundation.org/fellowships/institutional/>

Longhi Foundation Doctoral Fellowships for the Study of the History of Art – Fellowships of 600 Euros per month (up to 5,400 Euros) are available to support nine months from October-June of research in the history of art at the Longhi Foundation in Florence, mainly concerning Italian painting from the 13th to the 18th centuries. Applicant must be under the age of 32 at the application deadline. Fellows must frequent the Institute, cooperate on specific group research projects selected by the Scientific Committee, and work full time on the research for which the fellowship is assigned. Deadline: May 15, annually. <http://www.fondazione-longhi.it/>

Newberry Library/École Nationale des Chartes Exchange Fellowship – Fellowship provides a monthly stipend ($4,200, unless otherwise noted) and tuition for an American or Canadian graduate student to study for one term at the École Nationale des Chartes in Paris, the oldest institution in Europe specializing in the archival sciences, including paleography, bibliography, textual editing, and the history of the book. Preference is given to students attending institutions that are members of the Center for Renaissance Studies Consortium. Applicants who are in the early stages of preparing their dissertations are preferred. Project abstracts and descriptions should provide specifics about a need for the training available at the École Nationale des Chartes and how it will contribute to their dissertation or future projects. Deadline: November 15, annually. Short-term grants also are available; these grants are due December 15, annually. <http://www.newberry.org/long-term-fellowships>

France, Government of - Grants and Programs – List by Cultural Services of the French Embassy of scholarships, fellowships, prizes, etc.; mostly for cultural collaborations. <http://frenchculture.org/grants-and-programs>

● U.S.A.-France Exchange Programs - List of fellowships and jobs in the research area in France: <http://www.france-science.org/USA-France-Exchange-Programs.html>
List of currently open calls: <http://www.france-science.org/-Open-Calls-for-Proposals-.html>

Education Office of the Embassy of France in the United States Humanities and Social Sciences (HSS) Chateaubriand Fellowship Program – Supports doctoral students who are enrolled in American universities to conduct research in France for 4 or 8 months. The fellowship provides a monthly stipend of 1,500 Euros, health insurance, and a round-trip ticket to France with welcome package. Next application should open in October 2015. Last deadline: January 27, 2017. <https://www.chateaubriand-fellowship.org/-HSS-Application-.html>

● The Chateaubriand Fellowship in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) – The Embassy of France in the U.S. also offers a STEM fellowship program for doctoral students enrolled in American universities to conduct research in a French laboratory for 4-9 months. Priority is given to candidates working toward a dual Ph.D. degree with their French host institution. All STEM and health disciplines are eligible. Fellows receive up to 1,400 Euros/month, a round trip ticket to France, and health insurance. Call will open in October 2015. Last deadline: January 27, 2017. <http://www.france-science.org/chateaubriand> and <https://www.chateaubriand-fellowship.org/-STEM-Application-.html>

Lady Davis Fellowship Trust Fellowships for Graduate Studies – Post-doctoral Researchers and Doctoral Students from abroad, regardless of nationality, gender or field of scholarship, to teach, study and participate in research in Israel at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem and at the Technion Institute of Technology in Haifa. Fellowships are granted initially for one semester or one year with the possibility of extension and include a monthly stipend ranging from $750 to $1,000 and one return ticket. No citizenship or discipline requirement. Deadline: November 30, annually. <http://ldft.huji.ac.il/fellowships-information/technion-fellowships/graduate-students>

United States-Israel Binational Agricultural Research and Development (BARD) Fund
<http://www.bard-isus.com/funddes.aspx>

● BARD Graduate Student Fellowship Program – The exchange program supports Ph.D. students in the United States to travel to Israel and promotes collaboration between scientists of both countries and expose student to research in the other county. BARD Fellowship provides up to $11,000 ($1,500 per month and $2,000 travel) to conduct research in the host laboratory for 3 to 6 months. Fellows accompanied by spouse or child/ren will receive a one-time $2,000 dependent allowance. Cycle should open August 15, 2017. Deadline: Mid-January, annually <http://www.bard-isus.com/funddes.aspx>

● Middle East Research and Development Grant (MARD) enables small multinational research groups to jointly prepare a detailed research proposal, funding preliminary research that would strengthen the team's proposal when applying to the international granting agency. Teams should include representatives from the Palestinian Authority, Jordan, Israel and the U.S. Awards provide up to $50,000 for one year of research and development. Deadline: TBD. <http://www.bard-isus.com/funddes.aspx>

U.S.–Israel Binational Science Foundation - Prof. Rahamimoff Travel Grants Program for Young Scientists – For U.S. or Israeli citizens age 35 or younger in environmental and life sciences; international opportunities; medical - basic science; medical - clinical science; medical - translational; social sciences; multidisciplinary; and physical sciences and engineering. Grants of up to $4,000 for trips of two months. The program is open to U.S. PhD students doing research that requires facilities or expertise not available in their home countries but available in Israel. In 2015, two calls for applications will be made. Deadline: December 6, 2017.
<http://www.bsf.org.il/bsfpublic/DefaultPage1.aspx?PageId=25&innerTextID=25>

Medieval Academy of America William Schallek Memorial Graduate Study Fellowship – To support a graduate student in any relevant discipline dealing with late-medieval Britain (ca. 1350-1500) with $30,000 for full-time work on dissertation. Amount covers research and living expenses for the equivalent of an academic year of study. Deadline: October 15, annually (and must be a member of MAA by September 15).
http://www.medievalacademy.org/?page=Schallek_Fellow_Inst&hhSearchTerms=fellowship and http://www.medievalacademy.org/?page=MAA_Grants

North American Conference on British Studies (NACBS) Dissertation-Year Fellowships – Provides a graduate student enrolled in a North American university with a $10,000 stipend to conduct dissertation research in libraries and archives in the United Kingdom. Two runners-up will receive a $5,000 travel grant. The candidate must need to travel to the British Isles to conduct dissertation research and must conduct full-time research there for at least three months. Travel grant awardees may conduct shorter research trips. Citizens of the U.S. or Canada are eligible and must have completed all requirements for the Ph.D. degree except for the dissertation. The nomination must be made by the student's dissertation advisor, who must be a member of the NACBS, supported by one additional letter of recommendation. Last deadline: April 1, 2017 <http://www.nacbs.org/prizes/nacbs-dissertation-year-fellowship>

American Architectural Foundation (AAF) Sir John Soane's Museum Foundation Traveling Fellowship – $5,000 traveling fellowship to enable graduate students enrolled in programs in the history of art, architecture, interior design, and the decorative arts to travel to London to pursue projects related to the work of Sir John Soane or Sir John Soane's Museum and its collections. Two awards given annually. No citizenship restrictions. Last Deadline: March 1, annually.
<http://www.soanefoundation.com/fellowship.html>

Institute of Historical Research, University of London School of Advanced Study – Offers various doctoral and postdoctoral grants for research and write-up. <http://www.history.ac.uk/fellowships/junior>

● Jacobite Studies Trust Fellowship – Six-month fellowships to study the Stuart dynasty in the British Isles and in exile, from the departure of James II in 1688 to the death of Henry Benedict Stuart in 1807. This may also include work on their friends and supporters, their activities, their influence, their views, ideologies, artifacts and works of art; and the political, diplomatic, military, religious, intellectual, and cultural context in which they lived. Fellowship is non-residential, but fellows should actively engage in the activities of the Institute. Awardees must have been in their doctoral programs for at least 3 years or have had a Ph.D. for 2 years. The Fellowship provides a stipend of 15,000 pounds for research. Last deadline: May 12, 2017. <http://www.history.ac.uk/fellowships/jacobite-studies-trust-fellowship>

● IHR Doctoral Fellowships – Up to six full-year and one half-year IHR Research Fellowships in History (broadly defined) for dissertation write-up. No restrictions on nationality or academic affiliation; awardees must have completed at least three years of full-time study by the beginning of the award. Awards are for 15,726 pounds for a year and 7,836 pounds for half a year. Last Deadline: April 28, 2017. <http://www.history.ac.uk/fellowships/ihr-doctoral-fellowships-scoloudi-thornley-rhs>

U.S. - Ireland Alliance - George J. Mitchell Scholarships for Study in Ireland – To introduce and connect generations of future American leaders to the island of Ireland, up to 12 Mitchell Scholars between the ages of 18 and 30 are chosen annually for one academic year of postgraduate study in any discipline offered by institutions of higher learning in Ireland and Northern Ireland. Deadline: September 29, 2017. <http://www.us-irelandalliance.org/content/3/en/George%20Mitchell%20Scholarship%20Program%20|%20us-Ireland%20Alliance.html>

National University of Ireland, Galway - Lady Gregory Doctoral Research Fellowships -- Humanities, Social & Behavioural Science, Languages & Literature (Study in Ireland) – Support full-time Ph.D. research within the Structured Ph.D. programs of the College, in line with the strategic research priorities of the College's six Schools: Education; Geography and Archaeology; Humanities; Languages, Literatures and Cultures; Political Science and Sociology; and Psychology. Scholarships may be awarded in any of these disciplines: Education, Geography, Archaeology, English, Film Studies, History, Irish Studies, Philosophy, Classics, French, Gaeilge, German, Italian, Spanish, Political Science and Sociology, Women's Studies, and Psychology. Applicants are encouraged to affiliate themselves with one of the research institutes associated with the College: the Moore Institute for Research in the Humanities and Social Studies; the Whitaker Institute for Innovation and Societal Change; or the emerging Research Centre for Social Sciences. Particular research projects may consider by the Ryan Institute for Environmental, Marine and Energy Research. Deadline: TBD http://www.nuigalway.ie/faculties_departments/arts/scholarships.html

International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis (IIASA) Young Scientists Summer Program, Austria – Full funding for summer residential research for students whose interests correspond with IIASA's research on issues of global environmental, economic and social change. Should be about two years prior to receiving a Ph.D. Participants from 73 countries; usually 6-10 U.S. students chosen. Deadline: TBD (opens October 1, 2017). <http://www.iiasa.ac.at/web/home/education/yssp/about.html>

Austrian Exchange Service – Grants for Ph.D. students, post-docs, and young university lecturers to perform research in Austria in Environmental and Life Sciences; Arts and Humanities; Medical - Basic Science; Physical Sciences and Engineering; and Social Sciences. Deadlines: various: <http://www.scholarships.at/> and <https://www.scholarships.at/default.aspx?CMSPage=64>

Austrian Government – Various grants for research about or in Austria at: Austrian Database for Scholarships and Research Grants. Deadlines: various. <http://www.grants.at/home/EN/>

Belgian American Educational Foundation – $27,000 fellowships for advanced study or research for one academic year at a Belgian University or institution of higher learning in the arts, humanities, environmental and life sciences, and social sciences. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and must be registered in a graduate program towards a Ph.D. or equivalent degree in the U.S. or Belgium or hold a Master's, Ph.D., or equivalent degree. Recipients must make their own arrangements for affiliation with a Belgian university. Preference is given to applicants under the age of 30. Knowledge of Dutch, French, or German is optional. Health insurance is provided for fellows.

Deadline: October 31, 2017. <http://www.baef.be/documents/fellowships-for-us-citizens/study-res-fellow.-for-us-citizen-.xml?lang=en>

American Institute of Pakistan Studies (AIPS) Short & Long Term fellowships, Summer Research Grant, and Travel Grants – Several AIPS grants are available for Ph.D. students who are members of AIPS. No citizenship restrictions; non-U.S. applicants must be affiliated with a U.S. academic institution. Check for deadlines and availability of certain grants, some of which may not be offered in the future. Last deadline: January 15, 2017. <http://www.pakistanstudies-aips.org/content/fellowships-available> and <http://www.pakistanstudies-aips.org/fellowship>

- Long- and Short-Term Fellowship – Applications are invited for research fellowships at the pre- or post-doctoral level for projects lasting one to nine months. Awards will include international travel expenses and stipends (subject to availability of funds). Fellows can travel to Pakistan on certain types of AIPS Fellowships, but research must be conducted in Lahore or Islamabad while travel restrictions are in place. Fellows may not bring dependent(s) or a spouse. Due to security, Fellowships to Pakistan are awarded at the discretion of AIPS and may be altered at a later date.
- Summer Research Grant – $3,000 to cover airfare and living expenses. U.S. citizens are required to conduct their research in Islamabad or Lahore. Research must take place during the calendar year that the grant is received. Funding may not be available for summer 2016; check website for details.
- Travel Grant – Provides AIPS members with conference funding of up to $600 for domestic and up to $1,500 for international travel. Requests for funding must be submitted at least two weeks prior to the start of the conference.

American Institute of Bangladesh Studies – Research fellowships cover international travel to Bangladesh and stipends for pre- or post-doctoral students. Applicants must be a member of AIBS, enrolled in an U.S. academic institution, and a U.S. citizen. <http://www.aibs.net/?q=Fellowships>

- Pre-doctoral Fellowships – Applicants must have completed at least one year of doctoral study and currently be enrolled in a degree-granting program. The grant provides a stay of between 2 and 4 months in Bangladesh that may be used for language study, resource assessment, or network building to aid in the completion of a competitive dissertation proposal. The award is for $3,000, plus round-trip airfare. Last Deadline: October 2, 2016; <http://www.aibs.net/?q=fellowship/pre-dissertation>
- Junior Fellowships – Applicants must have ABD status and be at the research and data collection phase of their projects. Fellowships will be equivalent to $920 per month for six to 12 months plus economy Round-Trip Air Transportation (up to $2,500) via the most direct route and using the Bangladesh carrier whenever possible. Last Deadline: October 2, 2016. <http://www.aibs.net/?q=fellowship/junior>

Ashburn Institute Mayme and Herb Frank Educational Fund (FEF) Grants – Supports graduate students to complete a thesis, dissertation, coursework, or an independent project relating to international integration and federalism. Awards generally range from $500-$2,000 and cover only tuition and fees, paid directly to a higher education institution. Deadlines: April 1 for fall awards and October 1 for spring awards annually. <http://streitcouncil.org/index.php?page=aud-scholarships>

Metropolitan Center for Far Eastern Art Studies Grant Program – Dissertation research projects that offer new insights into East Asian art. Applicants must have completed all the requirements for the Ph.D.

except the dissertation and can be engaged in fieldwork. Grants generally cover overseas travel and living expenses and are intended to supplement other support to a maximum (from all sources) of $22,000 for a single student, $27,000 for a couple. Application will be available on September 1, 2017. Last deadline: December 31, 2017. <http://www.metcenter-grants.net/doctoral.html>

Japan Foundation Japanese Studies Doctoral Fellowship Program – The Japan Foundation, a semi-governmental organization, promotes cultural exchange and mutual understanding between Japan and other countries. Fellowships support doctoral candidates in the humanities and social sciences, including comparative research projects, to conduct research in Japan for four to 12 months. Citizenship: unrestricted. Must have obtained ABD status by the time the fellowship begins. Last Deadline: November 1, 2016 http://www.jfny.org/japanese_studies/fellowship.html

Japan Monbukagakusho (MEXT) Research Student Scholarship – Japanese Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology offers scholarships to foreign students for 1) research study, 2) professional training, 3) teacher training, and 4) Japanese studies. Applicants must be 35 or younger at time of award. Scholarship is available to graduate students to conduct research projects at Japanese universities in the fields of the Humanities, Social Sciences and Natural Sciences. Monthly stipends range from 143,000 to 148,000 yen, and scholarships range from 1.5 to two years. The study area must be in the same field as the applicant has studied (or is now studying) or a related one. Applicants must be able to learn the Japanese language. Must be available for an interview following the deadline at the Japanese consulate in Detroit. Last deadline: June 10, 2015. <http://www.us.emb-japan.go.jp/english/html/mext-scholarship-info.html> and <http://www.detroit.us.emb-japan.go.jp/en/culture/mextRS.html>

Hosei University - International Fund Fellowship - Foreign Scholars Fellowship Program – Two to three fellowships for scholars in the humanities, social or natural sciences, or engineering who wish to carry out non-degree research programs at Hosei University under the direction of and/or in cooperation with Hosei faculty and researchers. Candidates must be presently enrolled in a doctoral degree program, hold a Doctorate or its equivalent as recognized by the University, have sufficient fluency in either Japanese or English, and be no more than 39 years of age as of April 1, 2016. Applicants may apply for 6 or 12 months of funding. Fellowship package includes transportation to and from Japan and a monthly stipend of up to 300,000 Japanese Yen. May begin in April or October. Must be willing to present findings at a conference and publish the results within two years of completing research. Last deadline: June 2, 2017. <http://www.global.hosei.ac.jp/en/researchers/hif/>

Kobe College Corporation (KCC) Japan Education Exchange Graduate Fellowships Program – Fellowships for U.S. citizens enrolled in a graduate program in the U.S. Applicants should have a record of having taught about Japan or show the potential to do so in the future. Preference will be given to applicants with documented interest in Japanese Studies, including Japanese arts, culture, education, language, history, journalism, or business. Students who have not studied or lived in Japan will also be given preference. Applicants must demonstrate research level Japanese language competency. There are no restrictions on the place of study or research in Japan or age of applicant. Two fellowships are restricted to women; and one is open to both women and men. Last deadline: April 15, 2017.. <https://www.kccjee.org/graduate-fellowship-program>

American Oriental Society Louise Wallace Hackney Fellowship for the Study of Chinese Art – For the study of Chinese art, with special relation to painting and its reflection of Chinese culture, and the translation into English of works on this subject. $8,000 stipend for 12 months. Applicants should have completed three years study in the Chinese language or its equivalent. Must use award from July 1 of the year the grant is awarded until the following June 30. Citizenship: U.S. Deadline: March 1, annually. <http://www.americanorientalsociety.org/news/the-louise-wallace-hackney-fellowship-for-the-study-of-chinese-art/>

Walter O. Spofford, Jr. Memorial Internship Involving Chinese Environmental Issues at Resources for the Future, Washington D.C. – Summer internship at Resources for the Future for graduate students with a special interest in Chinese environmental issues. Students should be in their first or second year of graduate training in the social or natural sciences. The intern can expect to work with one or more RFF researchers on a variety of ongoing projects or assist in the development of entirely new areas of research and policy analysis. Applicants may be U.S. citizens or non-citizens; non-U.S.-citizens must have documentation proving they can legally work in the U.S. Chinese students are particularly encouraged to apply. $375/week. Deadline: TBD. <http://www.rff.org/about/walter-o-spofford-jr-memorial-internship>

Center for Chinese Studies (CCS) (Taiwan) Research Grant to Assist Foreign Scholars in Chinese Studies – For three to 12 months of support for research in Chinese and Taiwan studies in Taiwan. Provides direct round-trip ticket between the domicile of grant recipients and Taipei and monthly stipends of NT$25,000, as well as assistance with research expenses, research materials, liaisons with universities and research institutions, and use of CCS facilities.

Deadline: May 31, annually. <http://ccs.ncl.edu.tw/ccs2/ENGLISH/regulation.aspx>

Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) Taiwan Fellowship – Supports doctoral students to conduct advanced research at universities or academic institutions in Taiwan. Scholars work in the social sciences and humanities, with topics related to Taiwan, cross-strait relations, Mainland China, the Asia-Pacific region, Sinology, and/or Chinese studies. Research may last from 3 months to one year, with a monthly stipend of NT$50,000. Applicants should be foreign nationals. Airfare and health insurance are also covered. Deadline: Application process will begin in May 2018.

<http://taiwanfellowship.ncl.edu.tw/eng/about.aspx>

● Ministry of Education (MOE) Short Term Research Award – Supports PhD. Students to undertake 2-6 months of short-term research activities in Taiwan. Provides a monthly stipend of NT$25,000 (approximately U.S. $830) and airfare to and from Taiwan. Applicants should be ABD and focused on one of the following areas: Taiwanese humanities, social science, culture, art, and related comparative research. Deadline: September 30 each year for the following year's project (subject to change).

<http://tafs.mofa.gov.tw/SchDetailed.aspx?loc=en&ItemId=19>

Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation "Doctoral Fellowships" and "Dissertation Fellowships for Republic of China Students Abroad" – These programs support research in Chinese studies in the humanities and social science. Maximum stipend is $18,000. Citizenship for Doctoral Fellowships is unrestricted; must be enrolled in an accredited institution in the U.S., Canada, or Latin America. Citizens of the ROC should apply for Dissertation Fellowships for ROC Students Abroad. Deadline: October 15, annually. http://www.cckf.org.tw/en?set_language=en and <http://www.cckf.org.tw/en/grants> (for all except citizens of Taiwan)

Cultural Times Foundation Scholarships for Doctoral Dissertation Research in Chinese Studies – $6,000-$10,000 awards given to U.S. or Canadian doctoral candidates in the humanities or social sciences with an approved dissertation prospectus. Last deadline: June 30, 2017.

<https://ceas.uchicago.edu/sites/ceas.uchicago.edu/files/uploads/CTCFapp.pdf>

Confucius China Studies Program Joint Research Ph.D. Fellowship – Supports dissertation research in China for six months to two years. Recipients are expected to improve their Chinese language skills for the duration of their grant. Students in the fields of language, literature and the arts, history, philosophy, sociology, political science, economics, education, and international relations and cross cultural studies are particularly encouraged to apply. Applicants should apply to collaborate with specific, participating Chinese universities with appropriate faculty to guide their projects. Applicants should be enrolled in a U.S. institution and not have spent significant time in China during their secondary degree. (Citizens of the People’s Republic of China are ineligible.) Deadline: TBD; application will open fall 2017. <http://www.iie.org/Programs/Confucius-China-Studies-Program>

Korea Foundation Fellowships for Field Research, Korean Language Training, and Graduate Studies – One-to-12-month fellowships for around 30 professors and researchers, as well as approximately 150 awards to graduate students who are conducting research related to Korea; not for study in natural sciences, medicine, or engineering. Some grants provide funds for language training, covering living expenses and tuition for 6 to 12 months. (The Foundation is an independent institution affiliated with the Korean Ministry of Foreign Relations.) Deadline: set based on the region of the program you apply. Deadline for U.S. applicants: TBD, <https://en.kf.or.kr/?menuno=3795>

Scobie Memorial Travel Grant in Latin American Studies – Up to $1,500 for exploratory pre-dissertation research for 4 to 12 weeks on a topic in Latin American history. Last deadline: April 8, 2017. http://clah.h-net.org/?page_id=135

Howard Hughes Medical Institute - International Student Research Fellowships (for Doctoral Students) – Supports outstanding international pre-doctoral students studying in the United States who are ineligible for fellowships or training grants through U.S. federal agencies. Participation is by invitation only. HHMI will award three-year fellowships to international students to support years three, four, and five of a Ph.D. program ($43,000 annually). Nominated students must be in their second or third year of a Ph.D. program. Eligible biomedical-related fields include biology, chemistry, physics, math, computer science, engineering, and plant biology—as well as interdisciplinary research. Last deadline: HHMI will not hold a 2017 competition for the International Student Research Fellowships. <http://www.hhmi.org/programs/international-student-research-fellowships>

American Philosophical Society (APS)

- APS Library Resident Research Fellowships – Applicants must demonstrate a need to work in the Society's library collections. The stipend is $3,000 per month for 1-3 months. Applicant must normally reside more than 75 miles from Philadelphia. Must have passed preliminary examinations. Citizenship: unrestricted. Last Deadline: March 1, 2017. <http://www.amphilsoc.org/grants/resident>
- APS Lewis and Clark Fund for Exploration and Field Research – Applicants must be in fields that require direct observation in field study, such as Anthropology, Archaeology, Biological Sciences, Ecology, Geography, Geology, Linguistics or Philology, and Paleontology. Grants, for research anywhere in the world, range from several hundred dollars to $5,000 for travel and research expenses. Must be U.S. citizen or non-U.S. citizen based at a U.S. institution or planning to carry out their work in the United States. Last Deadline: application February 1, 2017. <http://www.amphilsoc.org/grants/lewisandclark>

The Explorers Club Exploration Fund Grant – Provides graduate, post-graduate, doctorate and early career students with support for exploration and field research. Awards range from $500-$5,000

(average award is approximately $2,500). Disciplines may include natural sciences, anthropology, archaeology, animal studies, and conservation science. Last deadline: October 10, 2016.

http://www.explorers.org/index.php/expeditions/funding/expedition_grants

The Getty Research Institute Predoctoral Residential Grants – $25,000 stipend for fellows to complete work on projects related to the Getty Research Institute's annual research theme, including for completing a dissertation. Recipients are in residence at the Getty Research Institute or Getty Villa in Los Angeles from mid-September to mid-June. Citizenship: unrestricted. Deadline: TBD, application should open during summer 2017.

http://www.getty.edu/foundation/initiatives/residential/getty_pre_postdoctoral_fellowships.html and <http://www.getty.edu/foundation/initiatives/current/>

American Musicological Society Alvin H. Johnson AMS 50 Dissertation Fellowships – 12-month stipend of $21,000 for writing dissertation in various fields of music as a branch of learning and scholarship. Candidates must be registered for a doctorate at a North American university and must have reached candidacy status. Three fellowships given annually. Citizenship: unspecified. Deadline: December 15, 2017. (Competition opens November 15, annually.) <http://www.ams-net.org/fellowships/ams50.php>

University of Rochester Frederick Douglass Institute Predoctoral Fellowship Program – Provides $26,000 and additional research funds to a graduate student from any university whose degree contributes to the scholarship in the field of African and African-American Studies. Fellows must be in full-time residence during the tenure of their awards. No citizenship restrictions. Applicants must have completed all required courses, qualifying exams, and at least one chapter of the dissertation before the fellowship begins. Last deadline: December 20, 2016. Competition will open in September 2017.

http://www.rochester.edu/college/aas/grad_programs/fellowships.html

Boston College African and African Diaspora Studies Program (AADS) Dissertation Fellowship – For scholars working in any discipline in the humanities or social sciences with projects focusing on any topic within African and/or African Diaspora Studies, preferably on comparative projects in dialogue with critical issues and trends within the field. $30,000 stipend plus $1,500 research budget. Must be in residence for nine-month academic year and teach one course. Last deadline: January 15, 2017.

<http://www.bc.edu/schools/cas/aads/resources/dissfellowship.html>

Marilyn Yarbrough Dissertation/Teaching Fellowship – Provides $32,500 stipend plus health benefits, housing, and a small moving allowance and some research and conference travel for residence at Kenyon College for scholars in the final stages of their doctoral work who need only to finish writing their dissertation. Fellowships have been awarded in African and African American Studies, American Studies, Anthropology, Art History, Asian Studies, Biology, English, History, Math, Modern Languages and Literatures (Spanish), Music, Religious Studies, Sociology, Women's and Gender Studies. The fellow is expected to write their dissertation and teach one course per semester. Application should open in October 2015. Deadline: Rolling; open until filled. <http://www.kenyon.edu/directories/offices-services/office-of-the-provost/awards-and-recognition/marilyn-yarbrough-dissertationteaching-fellowship/> and <https://chroniclevitae.com/jobs/0000341658-01>

Dumbarton Oaks Junior Fellowships, Graduate Digital Humanities Fellowship, Summer Fellowships, and Short-term Pre-doctoral Residencies – Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collection, located in Washington, DC, offers residential fellowships for doctoral students interested in Byzantine, Garden and Landscape, and Pre-Columbian studies. Junior and Digital Humanities Fellowships are one-year fellowships ($27,000-$47,000, including a stipend of $15,500-$28,000 as well as moving costs and housing) intended for degree candidates who have fulfilled all preliminary requirements for the Ph.D. by the time of application. Short-term residencies are offered for advanced graduate students preparing for their exams, conducting research, or writing their dissertations. Students in need of access to fieldwork and photo collections, the Rare Book Room, or Museum objects are particularly encouraged to apply. Residency provides 2-4 weeks of free accommodation, free lunches on weekdays, and a Reader badge for access to the library. Seven-to-nine week summer fellowships also are available to scholars at all stages of their career, providing an allowance of $250 per week, housing, and travel reimbursement. (Check website to see whether the digital humanities fellowship will be available.) Deadline: Applications for Project Grants, Regular, Junior, Tyler, and Summer Fellowships are due November 1. Applications for Mellon Fellowships are due February 1. <http://www.doaks.org/research/support-for-research/fellowships>

Resources for the Future (RFF) Joseph L. Fisher Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship – Provides a stipend of $18,000 to graduate students in the final year of dissertation research focused on issues related to the environment, natural resources, or energy. This fellowship is intended to be a student's principal source of support. Awardees will be invited to give a presentation of their research at RFF, for which RFF will pay reasonable travel expenses. RFF's primary research disciplines are economics and other social sciences, and proposals in these fields will have the greatest likelihood of success. Proposals from the physical or biological sciences must have an immediate and obvious link to environmental policy matters. Fellowship applicants for 2016–2017 must expect to complete all requirements for their doctorate by the end of summer 2017. No citizenship restrictions. Last Deadline: February 28, 2017. <http://www.rff.org/about/joseph-l-fisher-doctoral-dissertation-fellowships>

PEO International Peace Scholarship Fund and Scholar Awards – Scholarships for international female students studying in the U.S. and Canada (Peace Scholarship) and American and Canadian women pursuing a doctoral degree at an accredited college or university (Scholar Award). Scholar Award provides up to $15,000 to women who are within two years of completing doctoral degrees. Applicants for the Scholar Award must be nominated by local PEO chapters. Peace scholarship provides up to $10,000 to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Deadlines: November 20, 2017 (Scholar Award) and December 15, 2017 for eligibility forms and March 1, 2017 for completed applications (Peace Scholarship). <http://www.peointernational.org/peo-projects-and-philanthropies>

Rotary Foundation Scholarships – The Foundation is piloting a grants program with District Grants and Global Grants to be offered by individual Rotary clubs. The Foundation also offers the Rotary Peace Fellowship Professional Development Certificate for professionals with extensive experience in peace-related fields. The 3-month program in peace and conflict resolution takes place at Chulalongkorn University in Bangkok, Thailand, and includes 2-3 weeks of field study. Deadlines: vary, district and global grants accepted throughout the year; peace fellowship applications accepted March-July (check local Rotary club for details). <https://www.rotary.org/myrotary/en/take-action/apply-grants> and <https://www.rotary.org/en/peace-fellowships>

Sustainability Science Program Fellowships at Center for International Development, Harvard University – Residential fellowships (semester, 10 months, or year), 12-month stipend of $55,000 for post-doctoral fellows or $28,000 for doctoral fellows. The awards aim to promote sustainable development. Last deadline: March 1, 2017. <https://www.hks.harvard.edu/centers/mrcbg/programs/sustsci/grants-fellowships/fellows> and

<http://www.hks.harvard.edu/centers/mrcbg/programs/sustsci/grants-fellowships/fellows/fellowships-in-sustainability-science>

British Petroleum Future Conservationist Awards – Awards of up to $15,000 to high potential teams who aim to develop their skills through practical conservation projects lasting from three months to one year. Projects must take place in countries not defined as “high income economies” by the World Bank and focus on globally important species or sites for biodiversity conservation that are under threat. Each team must have at least three people and at least 50% of team members must be from the country where the project is taking place. No team member should have more than five years of paid work experience in the conservation sector. Deadline: Next call for applications will be announced in September 2017. <http://www.conservationleadershipprogramme.org/FutureConservationistAward.asp>

Bioversity International - Vavilov-Frankel Fellowships (for Scientists from Developing Countries) – Grants for nationals of low- and medium-income countries, aged 35 or under, holding at least a master's degree (or equivalent) in a relevant subject area. Two fellowships are available to encourage the conservation and use of plant genetic resources by enabling outstanding young scientists to carry out innovative research outside their own countries for 3-12 months (up to $20,000) on a range of biophysical, economic, and social themes related to the conservation and use of plant genetic resources in developing countries. Deadline: TBD. Check back to website for updates. <http://www.bioversityinternational.org/vavilov-frankel-fellowship/>

Kleinhans Fellowship for Community Forestry Research – Applicants must have a master's degree in forestry, ecology, botany, environmental science or an appropriate related field. Doctoral candidates or post-doctoral researchers are preferred. The fellowship provides a grant of $20,000 per year for two years in Latin America. The Rainforest Alliance that sponsors the program is most interested in research that could potentially be applied to the ongoing work of their TREES Programs which trains communities and small- and medium-sized enterprises to harvest and manufacture forest and non-timber forest products in a sustainable manner and market these goods to responsible businesses and consumers around the world. Last Deadline: February 28, 2017; award cycles are once every two years. <http://www.rainforest-alliance.org/fellowships/apply> and <http://terravivagrants.org/rainforest-alliance-kleinhans-fellowship-for-research-in-community-forestry/>

The American Australian Association Australia to U.S.A. Fellowship and U.S.A. to Australia Fellowship – Provides up to $40,000 to U.S. citizens and permanent residents for study in Australia or to Australian citizens and permanent residents for advanced study in the U.S. For research in business, engineering, geosciences, mathematics, medicine, neurology, pediatrics, sciences, sustainability, and technology. Deadline: October 15, annually (U.S. to Australia); April 15, annually (Australia to U.S.). <http://www.americanaustralian.org/?page=Fellowships>

Australian Endeavour Research Fellowships – Provide up to AU$24,500 for non-Australian graduate students and postdoctoral researchers for 4-6 months of comparative or collaborative research in Australia as part of a current postgraduate or postdoctoral research program. It also assists recipients build international professional links and institutional collaborations. Deadline: June 30, annually. Applications for the 2019 round are expected to open in late April 2018. <https://internationaleducation.gov.au/Endeavour%20program/Scholarships-and-Fellowships/Pages/default.aspx>

The Compton Foundation – Offers various grants throughout the year for international and domestic research. The organization funds projects that explore the connections between its issue areas. (See website for more details.) Deadlines: various. <http://www.comptonfoundation.org/what-we-support/>

Society for Scientific Study of Sexuality (SSSS) Student Research Grants – Awarded for doctoral or thesis research on human sexuality. Some grants are also available for recent post-docs. Two $1,000 grants awarded. Must be a member of SSSS and have IRB approval for research project. Deadline: February 1 and June 1, annually. http://www.sexscience.org/honors/student_research_grants/

Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues (SPSSI) Applied Social Issues Internship – Open to Ph.D. dissertations in psychology, a social science with psychological subject matter, or related fields. Internship grants range from $300-$2,500 to cover research costs, community organizing and, in unusual cases, a stipend. Program aims to encourage research that is conducted in cooperation with a community or government organization, public interest group or other not-for-profit entity that will benefit directly from the project. Must be a member of SPSSI. Deadline: April 15, annually. <http://www.spssi.org/index.cfm?fuseaction=page.viewpage&pageid=637>

Doris Duke Fellowship for the Promotion of Child Well-being – Provides an annual stipend of $30,000 for up to two years to support the completion of dissertation and related research on topics of child well-being and the prevention of child maltreatment. Fellows are guided by an academic mentor, whom they select; they also identify a policy or practice mentor to assist them in better understanding how to frame their research questions with an eye toward maximizing policy and practice relevance. Up to 15 fellowships are awarded annually. Fellows are selected from a range of academic disciplines, including - but not limited to - social work, child development, public health, medicine, public policy, education, economics, psychology, and epidemiology. Applicants must be advanced to candidacy and must be citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. Deadline: TBD; Application materials will be available on this page starting on August 1, 2017: <http://www.dorisdukefellowships.org/apply/>

SPA/Lemelson Fellowship – Supports graduate students in the field of psychological anthropology to pursue exploratory research for planning their dissertation research and methods training to prepare for dissertation research. Up to $6,000 can be requested for travel expenses, research expenses, and any other reasonable and justified expenses. Normally, fellows receive their awards after their first or second year of graduate training. Students at other points in their education may apply with an explanation of their situation, but funding may not be used to support any portion of dissertation field research. Applicants do not need to be enrolled in an anthropology department but must be members of SPA. Last deadline: February 3, 2017 http://www.aaanet.org/sections/spa/?page_id=94

Abel Wolman Doctoral Fellowship – For a doctoral student in the field of water supply and treatment. Up to $25,000 per year for two years from the American Water Works Association. Open to students in the U.S., Canada, and Mexico. Application for 2016 fellows will open in September. AWWA also offers other smaller grants and scholarships. Last deadline: January 12, 2017. <http://www.awwa.org/membership/get-involved/student-center/awwa-scholarships.aspx>

The International Research Foundation for English Language Education (TIRF) Doctoral Dissertation Grant – Up to $5,000 to graduate students who have advanced to candidacy. Applicants should either attend universities in developing countries or demonstrate that their work has the potential for positive impact in developing nations. Applicants should have projects that align with the foundation's research priorities, listed on the website. No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: April 26, 2017. <http://www.tifonline.org/research-grants/doctoral-dissertation-grants/>

National Council for Research on Women Mariam K. Chamberlain Dissertation Award – One annual $8,500 award granted to a first-generation college graduate working on a dissertation under close supervision of a senior dissertation advisor, who will receive $1,500 for continued mentorship. Dissertation must be related to Re:Gender’s mission to end gender inequity, as well as its annual theme and three program focus areas of identity, economic wellbeing, and thriving environments. Recipient must be ABD when the award begins. No citizenship restrictions. Deadline: Deadline should be in March 2018; check back on website for details. <http://www.regender.org/index.php?q=MKCAwardInfo>

International Foundation for Electoral Systems (IFES) Charles and Kathleen Manatt Democracy Studies Fellowship Program – $5,000 award and 4-6 week research residency at IFES in Washington, D.C. Applicants must be a U.S. or international student studying at a U.S. university in the Midwest. Applicants should be pursuing degrees in international relations, political science, public administration, or related areas. Last deadline: March 15, 2017. <http://www.ifes.org/work-us/fellowships>

Horowitz Foundation for Social Policy – Provides approximately 15 grants annually of $5,000 to 7,500 initially and $2,500 upon receipt of a final report or copy of the research product. Preference will be given to projects that deal with contemporary issues in the social sciences and issues of policy relevance. No citizenship restrictions. Applicants must have reached candidacy status. Deadline: December 1, 2017. <https://www.horowitz-foundation.org/grant-info>

Organization of American States (OAS) Regular Program for Academic Scholarships (Graduate) – Up to $30,000 per academic year to undertake graduate study or graduate research in the Americas. Scholarships are awarded to citizens or permanent residents of an OAS member state for a maximum of two academic years, and candidates must return to reside in the sponsoring country for no less than two years after completing the program of study covered by the scholarship. Last Deadline: November 30, 2016. http://www.oas.org/en/scholarships/regular_program_2016.asp

Inter American Press Association Scholarship Program – Provides up to $20,000 for an academic year in a Latin American or Caribbean country. Applicants must be natives of countries in the Western Hemisphere, journalists or students in their final year of a journalism degree, and between 21 and 35 years old. Must be fluent in the language of the place you intend to study. Deadline: January 15, annually (Competition usually opens October.) <http://en.sipiapa.org/contenidos/want-a-scholarship.html>

The Earthwatch Institute Emerging Scientists Grants – Provides small grants and volunteer opportunities to established and emerging scientists engaging in field research. Supports practical field experience and scientific training opportunities for underfunded and/or underrepresented conservationists. Deadline: July 30, 2017. <http://earthwatch.org/scientific-research/scientist-opportunities/working-with-earthwatch> and <http://earthwatch.org/Research-Funding/Apply-for-Funding>

C. Lowell Harriss Dissertation Fellowship Program – $10,000 to assist Ph.D. students at the dissertation-writing stage. Applicants’ research should complement the Lincoln Institute’s interests in land and tax policy. No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: February 1, 2017. <http://www.lincolninst.edu/research-data/research/c-lowell-harriss-dissertation-fellowship-program-0>

Jacobs Research Funds – Funds anthropological and linguistic research on Native American (First Nations) peoples, with priority given to research on endangered cultures and languages and research on the Pacific Northwest. Research on other areas in Canada, the continental United States, Alaska, Mexico, Central America, and South America will be funded if possible. Other possible topics for research include: social organization, political organization, religion, mythology, music, other arts, psychology, and folk science. Individual grants offer up to $3,000, and Kinkade Grants provide up to $9,000 for projects requiring an intense period of fieldwork. Deadline: February 15, annually.
<http://depts.washington.edu/jacobsf/>

Newberry Consortium in American Indian Studies – Offers grants to conduct research at the Newberry Library in Chicago. Must attend a university that is a member of NCAIS, which includes MSU. For information on grants and how to apply for the following grants, see: <https://www.newberry.org/darcy-mcnicke-center-fellowships> and <https://www.newberry.org/how-apply> and <https://www.newberry.org/fellowships>

Deadlines: November 15, annually (Long term grants) and December 15, annually (Short term grants)

- Frances C Allen Fellowship for Women of American Indian Heritage – This fellowship is intended to encourage women of American Indian heritage in their studies of any field related to the Newberry's collections.
- Susan Kelly Power and Helen Hornbeck Tanner Fellowship – This fellowship for PhD candidates and postdoctoral scholars of American Indian heritage supports up to two months of residential research in any field in the humanities, using the collections of the Newberry.
- Newberry Consortium in American Indian Studies Graduate Student Fellowships – These fellowships offer support for 1-2 months ($2,500 per month) of dissertation research and carry stipends for doctoral candidates. Graduate Fellows will be offered individual research space at the Newberry. Awards may also be used to fund research in other libraries, archives, or in the field. Fellowship recipients are expected to present their research at the consortium's annual graduate student conference or at a Newberry-sponsored seminar in American Indian and indigenous studies

Environmental Research and Education Foundation Scholarship Program – Up to $12,000 annually, paid monthly, to doctoral students with a clearly demonstrated interest in solid waste management research. Fellowship can be extended for up to three years from the initial award date. Masters students can be awarded up to $5,000 per year and extended for up to two years. No citizenship restrictions.
Deadline: Varies. <https://erefdn.org/scholarship-program/>

III. B. (2) Funding Programs for Foreign Language Study for Field Research

Foreign Language and International Studies (FLAS) Fellowships at MSU – MSU Centers for African Studies (<http://africa.isp.msu.edu/undergraduate-studies/african-languages/foreign-language-and-area-studies-flas/>), Asian Studies (<http://asia.isp.msu.edu/academics/fellowships-scholarships/flas/>), Center for Advanced Studies of International Development and the Gender Center (<http://casid.isp.msu.edu/research-and-funding/flas/>) offer Title VI FLAS fellowships, both Academic Year and Summer Intensive for study of foreign languages. Awards provide tuition, fees, and a stipend of $15,000 for the academic year and up to $7,500 for summer intensive language fellowships. Contact individual centers for application details. Applications for the 2018-19 year will be available in the fall of 2017. Last deadlines: February 3, 2017 (African Studies Center); February 10, 2017 (Asian Studies Center)

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships for Advanced Study of Asian Languages – Grants for individuals pursuing professional, academic, or business careers that involve the regular use of an East or Southeast Asian language, including Japanese, Chinese, Korean, Thai, Vietnamese, Indonesian, Khmer, and Burmese. Applicants must be at or near advanced level in the specified language. The grants fund an academic year of full-time, intensive advanced language study at an institution in Asia (not for part-time study or research). Where there is no structured advanced-level language program at an educational institution in the country, the grant may provide for the financing of private tutorials under certain terms. Must be U.S. citizen or permanent resident. Deadline: December 30, 2017.
<http://www.blakemorefoundation.org/language.html>

Critical Language Scholarship Program – Intensive Summer Institutes in Arabic, Azerbaijani, Bangla/Bengali, Chinese, Hindi, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Persian, Punjabi, Russian, Turkish, and Urdu. Institutes have recently been held in Azerbaijan, Bangladesh, China, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Japan, Jordan, Morocco, Oman, Russia, South Korea, Tajikistan, Tunisia, and Turkey. Must be U.S. citizen and currently in an undergraduate or graduate degree-granting program. Funded by the Department of State and administered by the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC). All CLS Program costs are covered, including travel, orientation, room and board, entrance fees, and academic credit. Applications for Summer 2018 should be available in mid-to-late September 2017. Expected deadline: November 2017. <http://clscholarship.org/>

African Languages Initiative (AFLI): Domestic Intensive Summer Program – The most recent AFLI summer program was held at the University of Florida during the summers of 2014, 2015, and 2016. The program offered courses in Akan/Twi, French, Hausa, Swahili, Wolof, Yoruba, and Zulu and ran from June 11 to August 1, 2014. The program and the U. of Florida fellowships have been funded by the Defense Intelligence Agency's National Security Education Programs (Boren and NSEP Flagships programs). Deadline: TBD. www.africa.wisc.edu/?page_id=24 and <http://africa.ufl.edu/african-languages/afli/>

South Asian Summer Language Institute (SASLI) – Offering intensive study of eight South Asian languages at the University of Wisconsin-Madison for approximately eight weeks each summer (8 credits earned). Students may only register for one language per summer. Languages offered in Summer 2015 were: Bengali, Hindi, Pashto, Sanskrit, Sinhala, Tamil, Tibetan, Telugu, and Urdu at the elementary and intermediate levels. Some intermediate level courses may be cancelled. SASLI Scholarship- All SASLI students are eligible to apply for ROTC Project GO Funding, Fee Remission (up to $1,000 of a half/full fee remission), and the FLAS fellowship. Last Deadline: April 1, 2017. <http://sasli.wisc.edu/courses.html> and <http://sasli.wisc.edu/>

Southeast Asian Studies Summer Institute (SEASSI) – An eight-week intensive language-learning institute at University of Wisconsin-Madison at three levels of Burmese, Filipino, Hmong, Indonesian, Khmer, Lao, Thai, and Vietnamese. Each course is equivalent to two semesters of study with full academic year credit. FLAS Fellowship provides tuition and a $2,500 summer living stipend. Tuition Scholarship provides partial tuition scholarships that reduce tuition costs to a range of $2,000-$2,500. Last deadline: April 3, 2017. <http://seassi.wisc.edu/>

Intensive Nepali at Cornell University – Six credits of summer study at Cornell University for beginning and continuing students. A small number of Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) fellowships are available. Six-week program (e.g. June 8-July 17) meets five days a week. The program offers between 20-23 contact hours per week, and fellows are expected to spend between 4-5 hours daily doing homework and preparing for class activities. If you would like to be notified via e-mail when new information is available, please subscribe to the Summer Session announcement list:

https://www.sce.cornell.edu/ps/email_lists.php?itemID=139. Last deadline: February 1, 2016.

<https://www.sce.cornell.edu/ss/programs.php?v=AS-NEPALI&s=Overview>

Center for Arabic Study Abroad (CASA) CASA Fellowship – The program in Cairo and Amman for graduate and undergraduate students is a three-semester, 12-month intensive Arabic language and culture program that includes components focusing on the study of Colloquial and Modern Standard Arabic. Michigan State University students are eligible for round-trip airfare to/from Cairo, Egypt, tuition for all courses, monthly stipend of $500-$550 to help meet living expenses, plus 1,200 LE per year for excursions with ALI. Fellows must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Fellows and also must pass the CASA Selection exam, which usually requires a minimum of 3-4 years of college-level language study. (Date for exam is TBD, but should be in February 2018.) More information for 2018-2019 academic year applications should be available in October 2017. Last Deadline: January 9, 2017.

http://projects.iq.harvard.edu/casa_at_harvard/applicants

Gerda Henkel Foundation Scholarships – Grants for scholars of all disciplines in the arts, humanities, and social sciences, primarily focused on the historical humanities, both inside and outside Germany. Scholarships also are available for two Special Programs: “Islam, the Modern Nation State, and Transnational Movements” and “Security, Society, and the State” – Types of funding mainly include grants for research scholarships and research projects, and also conferences and workshops. Research grants are awarded only if connected to a research project developed by a university or research institute. Ph.D. scholarships are provided to individual doctoral students who have or will earn their Master’s degree by the age of 28. Support includes up to two years of study with a monthly stipend of 1,400 Euros. Child support, travel aid, and material aid are available as required. Support is primarily provided for students in archaeology, art history, historical Islamic studies, history, history of law, history of science, and prehistory/early history. Deadline: Applications for PhD scholarships are considered throughout the year. Recipients of PhD scholarships will be selected four times a year. The review and approval process of a complete application is generally completed within six months. <http://www.gerda-henkel-stiftung.de/phd-scholarships> and https://www.gerda-henkel-stiftung.de/application_phd-scholarships Arabic Language Study Programs in the U.S. and Middle East – See many programs listed at <http://www.lsa.umich.edu/summer/summerprograms/summerlanguageinstitute>. See also the University of Michigan Center for Middle Eastern and North African Studies blog for addition grants, fellowships, and postdoctoral opportunities: www.cmenasu-m.blogspot.com.

American Councils for International Education Russian Language and Area Studies Program – Graduate students are welcome to apply for this program. Currently, American Councils’ Outbound Scholarship Fund can offer between $500 and $2,500 to defray the cost of studying Russian in Russia or Central Asia. Other fellowships may cover airfare. With the reinstatement of Title VIII funding for American Councils, they may be able to offer three-fourths of the cost of program fees. Can apply for academic year, semester, and summer study. Deadlines: February 15 (summer term); March 15 (fall semester and academic year); and October 15 (spring semester). All deadlines are annual.

<http://www.acrussiaabroad.org/?action=program&prog=RLASP>

Indiana University Summer Language Workshop – Formerly known as SWSEEL, this program in 2015 offered courses in Arabic, BCS, Chinese, Hindi-Urdu, Kurdish, Mongolian, Persian, Russian, Swahili, Turkish, Turkmen, and Ukrainian. (They have offered different languages in the past.) Students may apply for FLAS through their home universities and through IU. Last deadline: March 31, 2017.

<http://indiana.edu/~swseel/>

III. B. (3) Funding Opportunities in Many Disciplines (mostly outside the Humanities and Social Sciences) that may support International Research

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Science to Achieve Results (STAR) Fellowships for Graduate Environmental Study – For masters and doctoral students in environmental fields. Potential funding: $42,000 per year ($25,000 stipend for 12 months and tuition and fees up to $12,000 per year) for up to three years. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Deadline: Application for 2018 estimated to open in summer 2017. Can register for email updates regarding application openings.

http://www.epa.gov/ncer/rfa/2013/2013_star_gradfellow.html, <http://epa.gov/ncer/rfa/> and http://www.epa.gov/ncer/rfa/2013/2013_star_gradfellow.html#FUNDING

National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Dr. Nancy Foster Scholarship Program – For students enrolled or about to enroll to do Master's and Ph.D. research in oceanography, marine biology, or maritime archaeology. Particularly intended for women and minorities. Yearly support of up to $42,000 per student (12-month stipend of $30,000 in addition to an education allowance of up to $12,000) and up to $10,000 of support for a 4-6 week program collaboration at a NOAA facility. Masters students may be supported for up to two years and doctoral students for up to four years. Approximately 3-4 awards annually. Last Deadline: December 9, 2016. The 2018 application period will open in late October 2017..

<http://fosterscholars.noaa.gov/> and <http://fosterscholars.noaa.gov/howtoapply.html>

NASA Earth and Space Science Fellowship (NESSF) Program – Funds approximately 75 Master's and PhD students in Earth sciences, Heliophysics, Planetary Science, and Astrophysics. Funds diverse biophysical and social science areas that must be relevant to NASA research. One to three years of support of up to $30,000 per year. Deadlines: Deadlines in early February each year.

<https://science.nasa.gov/researchers/sara/fellowship-programs> and

<https://nspires.nasaprs.com/external/solicitations/solicitations.do?method=open&stack=push>

Amelia Earhart Fellowship – Provides $10,000 to approximately 35 women pursuing doctoral degrees in aerospace-related sciences or aerospace-related engineering. Grants may be used at any university or college offering accredited post-graduate courses and degrees in these fields. Women of all nationalities are encouraged to apply. Deadline: Application information for 2018 will be posted in July 2017.

<http://www.zonta.org/WhatWeDo/InternationalPrograms/AmeliaEarhartFellowship.aspx>

Society of Women Engineers (SWE) – SWE offers scholarships from $1,000-$20,000 to women pursuing ABET-accredited graduate programs in preparation for careers in engineering, engineering technology, and computer science in the U.S. and Mexico. Applicants complete one application and are considered for all scholarships for which they are eligible. Applicants must be attending a graduate program full-time and not fully funded for tuition, fees, books, and equivalent. Last deadline: February 15, 2017.

<http://societyofwomenengineers.swe.org/index.php/scholarships#activePanels>

TDR (The Special Programme for Research and Training in Tropical Diseases) – TDR, a collaboration between the World Health organization, UN Children’s Fund, UN Development Programme, and the World Bank, seeks to fund research on infectious diseases of poverty, including infectious diseases and the culture and environment that contribute to these problems. There are several calls for grants throughout the year. Deadline: varies by grant. <http://www.who.int/tdr/grants/en/>

Schlumberger Foundation - Faculty for the Future Fellowships – Women from Emerging Economies in Physical Sciences – Fellowships to women from developing and emerging economies to pursue Ph.D. or post-doctoral studies in the physical sciences, engineering and technology at leading universities abroad. Fellowships provide up to $50,000 per year and may be renewed through to completion of studies. The applications website will open in September 2015. Deadline: November 17, 2017. <http://www.facultyforthefuture.net/>

Grant Programs for Students - American Museum of Natural History (AMNH) – For research on ornithology, marine zoology, and North American fauna. Offers modest short-term awards to advanced students commencing their careers in the fields covered by AMNH ($500-$1,500). Deadline: December 15, 2015. http://rggs.amnh.org/pages/academics_and_research/fellowship_and_grant_opportunities and <http://www.amnh.org/our-research/richard-gilder-graduate-school/academics-and-research/fellowship-and-grant-opportunities>

Smithsonian Institute Fellowship Program – Fifty awards annually for research in multiple fields at the Smithsonian Institution by graduate students at any stage. Fellowships are awarded annually to scholars wishing to conduct independent study or research at one or more of the Smithsonian’s 19 units and research centers. Graduate students who have not yet advanced to candidacy are invited to apply for 10-week Graduate Student Fellowships; advanced (ABD) graduate students are invited to apply for Predoctoral Student Fellowships for 3-12 months; $7,000 to Graduate Student fellows, $32,700 to Predoctoral Fellows and $48,000 to Postdoctoral and Senior Fellows. Maximum research allowance is $4,000. No citizenship restrictions. Deadline: December 15, annually. <http://www.smithsonianofi.com/fellowship-opportunities/smithsonian-institution-fellowship-program/>

PADI Foundation Water-Related Projects – Supports “underwater science, environmental projects, and education ... that [enrich] mankind's understanding of the aquatic environment and encourage sensitivity to and protection of the delicate ecological balance of underwater life.” Average awards are $5,000-$10,000 (and up to $20,000). About 40 awards annually. Deadline: February 1, 2018 (2018 grant cycle opens November 1, 2017) <http://www.padifoundation.org/>

Resources for the Future Joseph L. Fisher Dissertation Awards – Support of $18,000 for doctoral dissertation research on the environment, natural resources, or energy, primarily in economics and other social sciences, and secondarily in the physical or biological sciences. Must have an immediate and obvious link to environmental policy matters. Applicants must be ABD and in their final year of dissertation research. Last Deadline: February 28, 2017. <http://www.rff.org/about/joseph-l-fisher-doctoral-dissertation-fellowships>

Link Foundation – Three fellowship programs: 1) Energy program: 2-year fellowships of $28,000/year for students working toward a Ph.D. degree. (Deadline: December 1, annually) <http://www.linkenergy.org/>; 2) Fellowship in Advanced Simulation and Training: Five one-year fellowships with each grant totaling $28,500 (Deadline: January 15, annually) http://www.ist.ucf.edu/link_foundation.htm and <http://www.linksim.org/>; 3) Fellowship in Ocean

Engineering and Instrumentation: Several $28,000 predoctoral research fellowships for one year of study and research, open to candidates currently enrolled in academic institutions in either the U.S. or Canada. (Last Deadline: March 9, 2017) <http://www.linkoe.org/>

Fannie and John Hertz Foundation Graduate Fellowships – Open to U.S. citizens and permanent residents in the applied and physical sciences who have a record of high scholastic performance. Provides three fellowships: 1) $32,000, 9-month personal stipend and tuition, renewable up to 5 years; 2) $38,000, 9-month personal stipend and tuition renewable for one additional year; and 3) $6,000 annually for up to three years, available to awardees with funding from another source. A $5,000 stipend is available for fellows with children. Application opens in August 2015. Last deadline: October 27, 2017. <http://www.hertzfoundation.org/dx/fellowships/fellowshipaward.aspx> and <http://hertzfoundation.org/fellowships/application/>

Scholarship from International Association for Great Lakes Research (IAGLR) – Awards two $2,000 scholarships and one-year IAGLR memberships for doctoral students whose dissertation research is likely to make a significant contribution to the understanding of large lakes. Deadline: December 1, 2017. <http://www.iaglr.org/as/iaglrchol.php> and <http://iaglr.org/scholarships/iaglr-scholarship/iaglrapp>

ThinkSwiss Research Scholarship, Swiss Government – For undergraduates and graduate students at any stage, in all fields, to do research at public universities and institutes in Switzerland for two to three months. Award is approximately $1,000 per month. ThinkSwiss Summer Schools also provide travel grants to U.S. participants, who would benefit from hands-on research, training, and professional networks. Deadline: varies. <http://thinkswiss.tumblr.com/>

Sophie Danforth Conservation Biology Fund - Roger Williams Park Zoo – Awards of $1,000 for international projects with local, in-country collaborators and field studies or other projects with a multi-disciplinary approach to biodiversity/ ecosystem conservation. Deadline: June 1, annually. <https://www.rwpzoo.org/conservation/dansforth-conservation-grants> and <https://www.rwpzoo.org/conservation/dansforth-conservation-grants/info-for-applicants>

Cleveland Metroparks Zoo/Cleveland Zoological Society – Supports conservation and research projects in Africa, Asia, or Latin America. Grants of $1,000-$5,000. Deadlines vary. <http://www.clemet zoo.com/conservation/grants/>

Kauffman Dissertation Fellowship Program – Up to 15 dissertation fellowship grants of $15,000 each to PhD, D.B.A., or other doctoral students at accredited U.S. universities to support dissertations in the area of entrepreneurship. Deadline: August 16, 2017. <http://www.kauffman.org/microsites/kdf>

American Geophysical Union – Several research grants in Atmospheric Sciences; Biogeosciences; Geodesy; Geomagnetism and Paleomagnetism, Hydrology, Ocean Sciences, Planetary Sciences, Space Physics and Aeronomy; Volcanology; Geochemistry and Petrology; Agronomy; Volcanology; Geochemistry and Petrology; and Mineral and Rock Physics. Student travel grants also awarded (deadlines vary). <http://education.agu.org/grants/>

- Horton Hydrology Research Grant supports up to three Ph.D. candidates working in hydrology or water resources research. Provides up to $10,000 for research costs as well as related travel expenses ($500 domestic, $1,000 international). No citizenship restrictions. Last deadline: April 15, 2017. <http://honors.agu.org/research-grants-and-awards/> and <http://honors.agu.org/research-grants-and-awards/the-horton-hydrology-research-grant/>
- History of Science Fellowship provides doctoral students with a $5,000 fellowship to assist with the costs of travel for data collection. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Deadline: TBD. <http://education.agu.org/grants/research-grants-fellowships/history-science-fellowship/>

Foundation for Community Association Research, Byron Hanke Graduate Fellowship for Graduate Research on Community Associations – $3,000-$5,000 grants for study of community associations and common-interest communities. Graduate students of all disciplines are welcome to apply, provided their studies relate to community associations generally and to the topic of the candidate's proposed community associations research project. Deadline: Applications will be accepted starting in February 2018. <http://www.cairf.org/scholarships/hanke.aspx> and http://www.cairf.org/scholarships/hanke_application.pdf

Canadian Government Scholarships for Non-Canadians – Various awards available to foreign students for study/research in Canada. Search by nationality. Deadlines: various http://www.scholarships-bourses.gc.ca/scholarships-bourses/non_can/opportunities-opportunitites.aspx?lang=eng

Association for Canadian Studies in the United States ACSUS-Enders Graduate Fellowship in Canada-U.S. Relations – Up to $4,000 award for four to six weeks of data collection at a Canadian university, research site, or business. Fellowship aims to fund projects that have policy relevance for Canada-U.S. relations as well as Canadian social, economic, political, security, and quality of life issues. Limited to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. May contact nadyne.lacroix@iccs-ciec.ca for more information. Deadline: varies based on organization. <http://www.iccs-ciec.ca/graduate-student-scholarships.php>

*If you find additional funding opportunities or errors in this compendium, please notify:
David Wiley, Department of Sociology, <wiley@msu.edu>.*

© Michigan State University 2015

