

The
JULIAN SAMORA
ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS
(Graduate/Undergraduate)
For 2021-2022

The Julian Samora Research Institute (JSRI) is proud to provide an opportunity for current MSU students to apply for the Julian Samora Endowed Scholarships for academic year 2021-2022. The scholarships, named in honor of Dr. Julian Samora, support two students (one Graduate and one Undergraduate) engaged in scholarly activities focused on Latino/as in Midwestern communities. Applications will be reviewed and recommended by the JSRI Scholarship Committee. One recipient from each category will be announced March 2021.

REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must be current MSU students and must be attending MSU fall 2020 and spring 2021, and continuing through 2021-22. They must demonstrate excellent academic standing, and provide evidence of interest in research on Chicano/Latino communities. For the 2021-22 academic year, a $1,000 credit will appear in the students' MSU account in the fall and spring semesters.

INSTRUCTIONS

Applicants must submit the following materials by Friday, February 5th, 2021.

1. Cover letter with personal statement describing accomplishments, research/educational interests, and student goals.
2. Latest official transcript from MSU.
3. Resume which includes current local address and phone number.
4. One letter of recommendation from a Professor or advisor.

The awards committee will nominate recipients for the two scholarships: one award for an undergraduate student, and one award for a graduate student.

DEADLINE

Submissions must be received, whether digital or hardcopy, at JSRI by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, February 5th, 2021.

Direct all letters and application packet to:

David Figueroa, Office Assistant
Julian Samora Research Institute
Michigan State University
Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center
219 S. Harrison Rd., Room 51
East Lansing, MI 48824

Questions? Contact David Figueroa Martin at
(517) 432-7185 or e-mail figuer58@msu.edu